XI. COMMITTEE REPORTS.

CONCERNING PERMANENT FUND MATTERS.

The following resolution offered by W. M. Shultz was adopted:

1. We feel that what has been done in the interest of the Permanent Fund must be regarded as only a movement toward the desired goal and that the effort to bring this Fund to at least a Half Million Dollars must be continued. As the present assets of both cash and subscriptions amount to only about $350,000, it is obvious that more than $150,000 must yet be subscribed in order to cover shrinkage and expenses and attain the half million goal.

2. We consider that every church in the Conference is under obligation to make a contribution to this Fund. Circumstances may very possibly delay a campaign and much perseverance will be required in the matter, but no church can be released from this obligation nor considered to have done its duty until it has raised its full Apportionment for the Fund.

3. We urge all pastors and District Superintendents to press this work and give all possible aid to the Secretary in his work of securing and collecting subscriptions.

4. We feel that it is the duty of every effective member of the Conference to subscribe to this Fund and urge all who have not yet done so to make a subscription at once. We also suggest that the greater the prominence of a member of the Conference, the greater is his obligation to make and pay a generous subscription.

5. We instruct the Secretary of the Permanent Fund to labor for the coming Conference year along the following lines:

1. To put on Campaigns as vigorously as possible in all churches which have postponed such work and to carry to completion the work in churches which have only make a beginning.

2. To endeavor to secure prompt payment of installments on subscriptions as they become due and also to collect any possible amounts from old and neglected subscriptions.

3. To watch for opportunities to solicit large gifts and payments on the Annuity plan and to persuade people to remember the Fund in Wills.

4. To stir up all possible interest in the Fund by sermons, addresses and correspondence.

6. We desire to express in this public way the appreciation of the Conference to Dr. F. S. Townsend, Field Secretary of the Permanent Fund, for his untiring efforts to secure subscriptions for the fund intrusted to his hands. He has not spared himself in any way, but has worked to the full measure of his strength and time, and his report shows that his labors have not been in vain, and it is the opinion of this Conference that he be continued in this work for another year, and we hereby request the Bishop to make such appointment.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society has passed through a year of shadows, clouds and sunshine.

Five years ago we had an appropriation of $12,000. By hard work and unceasing prayer the work has grown until last year we had the faith to accept an appropriation of $22,500. The branch officers knowing the distressing needs in the field asked us if we were not willing to accept an appropriation of $25,000 for the year just closing. Knowing the great and undaunted faith of our own Mrs. A. J. Clarke and being so thankful for God's wonderful blessings we said, "West Virginia never has taken a backward step and by God's help she will go forward on her knees if necessary."

In May the shadows began to gather and the clouds to thicken. Mrs. Clarke was ill and very soon God took her home. At first we were bewildered. We did not know what to do or which way to turn. However we realized that we must not falter or waver. The time had come when we must work and pray as we have never done before because the work which Mrs. Clarke had carried on for years could not be dropped. We realized we could not find any one woman to take Mrs. Clarke's place but we did know there were more than three thousand women besides hundreds of boys and girls who were going to buckle on the armor a little tighter and accept their share of the responsibility.

During the year Mrs. Johnson, Miss Bell and Miss Abbott helped to dispell the shadows by their inspiring personalities and untiring work.

As we have so often heard, "The darkest hours are just before dawn," we came to the close of the year with the clouds scattered and the bright rays of sunshine brightening our lives because of the five missionaries supported by individual auxiliaries.

While we accepted the appropriation of $25,000 we were a little fearful and our faith was a little weak but were simply taught a little more forcibly how the Lord blesses us more exceeding and abundantly then we ever thought, when we realize he has so graciously blessed us with a grand total of $29,280.76. To Him be all the honor, glory and praise.

MRS. C. FRED ANDERSON,
Conference Secretary.

WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The year closing June 15th, 1924, was marked with more than usual thanksgiving. With gratitude to our Heavenly Father, who has guided and strengthened the women in their work, we record substantial gains in the Districts, with a total membership in all departments, Woman's, Young People and Junior, of 6005 members, with a substantial and permanent interest and a deeper consecration and love for this great work.

We have been greatly helped by the services of Mrs. Nora E. Richards, who came to us from the Pittsburgh Conference, and engaged in splendid field work in the Morgantown District. The Executive Board has secured her services as Field Secretary for the West Virginia Conference and we bespeak for her a cordial welcome in each District where she may be called to work.

The new Secretary of Supplies, Mrs. Jessie McAdams, 113 Fifteenth street, Wheeling, W. Va., is always ready to respond to the needs of the supply work. She reports the distribution of supplies to the amount of $3487.87.

Holloway Deaconess Home continues its ministry of mercy, with Miss Strickler as Superintendent and the seven deaconesses associated with her.

The Mountain Lake Park Summer School of Missions, Mrs. May Leonard Woodruff, Superintendent, was the most successful one of the several sessions thus far held. The attendance was large and through the inspiration of the splendid faculty, each day marked the increasing enthusiasm and interest.

Mrs. Walter Furbee, Treasurer, reports all pledges paid and our total annual receipts $32,337.42. This marks a gain of $3,617.26.

The Young Peoples and Junior Departments have done good work. The Juniors report the largest net gain, to-wit: 215 members.

Conference Work

1. Kacmar Mission. Kacmar Mission for Foreign Peoples of Wheeling and vicinity, located in upper Benwood, has been extensively enlarged, under the superintendency of Miss Winchester and Miss Ethel Vanek. Their plan is to carry on complete Settlement Work. The Kacmar Building will be dedicated during the period of the Annual Meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary Society, which is to be held in Moundsville, Nov. 12, 13 and 14.

2. Engle Settlement House. This flourishing institution closed its most successful year. The work has been under the direction of Miss Kinison and Miss Trumbell. It is planned to continue the program of work already begun and enlarge it as soon as it is possible to do so.

3. Scott's Run Settlement House. This newest work has had eight months of real progressive, consecrated service. All kinds of service are necessary to meet the needs of this diversified community. This work was begun by Miss Fuller. Her good work was cut short by failing health. Miss Nora E. Richards was secured to complete the year's work and this new worker carried out Miss Fuller's plans, blending in with them many new and successful methods of work.

A vacation Bible School of much merit, was the crowning event of the year's work for each of these settlements.

The Love Gift Offering, launched a little over a year ago, has been accumulating and before June 15th, 1925, we hope and pray that the entire amount $25,000.00 shall have all been laid upon the Altar of Service.

As we move forward into this another year's work, may we go forth in the strength of the "Great Friend" of these "Foreign Peoples" who live in our midst, and may Jesus, the Great Friend, live in every home, making of them real Christian homes and transforming every life He touches into a genuine Christian, so that each home and every life may add its part in "making America all for Christ."

And thus working shall we not do all in the strength and knowledge of that motto which unites all members of the Woman's Home Missionary Society and may we be conscious of them in our every life, "Not by might nor by power but by My Spirit, saith the Lord of Hosts."

MRS. R. B. NAY, President,
MRS. S. K. ARBUTHNOT, Cor. Secy.

COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN MISSIONS.

We, your committee on Foreign Missions, beg to submit the following report:

First, we feel grateful that the leaders of our Conference have given so much time to the discussion of this important subject.

Therefore, we earnestly recommend that our District Superintendents and Pastors return to their fields of labor to give special attention to this very important phase of their work.

Second, inasmuch as there has been a great slump in our offerings for the past year, we prayerfully urge that every pastor thoroughly organize his church, Epworth League and Sunday School, so that the organizations in all their societies may give all the light and knowledge possible. In order that all our people may become better informed as to the world's needs.

Third, we further recommend that every church give immediate attention to offerings for the deep emergency now upon the church to meet the large deficiency and at least to bring up the amount equal to that of last year.

J. H. CARSON, Secretary.
W. E. LOWTHER, Chairman.

COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION.

We thoroughly appreciate the wisdom of the action of the last General Conference in unifying the various Educational Departments and Activities of the church, to the end that the whole range of life shall come under the influence of Christian training; and we urge our pastors to avail themselves of the co-operation of the General Board as far as possible.

We would again bring to remembrance the interest of the Student Fund which has been and is of unmeasured value to the youth of our church in helping them to secure educational equipment for their life work otherwise impossible to them.

West Virginia Wesleyan College.

We regret the serious illness of our Brother Dr. Elmer Guy Cutshall, President of our college at Buckhannon, and our prayers are constantly on his behalf that a speedy and complete recovery may be granted unto him by the Great Physician.

The situation caused by the President's enforced absence from the college has again brought to our attention the efficient and pains-taking work of the Dean Thomas W. Haught, who, in the absence of the President, takes upon his already well burdened shoulders the added responsibilities of the president's office. His long connection with the institution has been in a very large measure productive of what we now know as "The Spirit of Wesleyan".

It is encouraging to learn that in spite of the serious and wide spread financial depression the enrollment of students is holding up well; but, in order to maintain the desired increase in enrollment, we would pledge ourselves to a more careful and persistent cultivation of "Wesleyan" in the minds of our High School students all over the Conference.

Encouragement also comes from the report of the Treasurer, William Coleman, that the productive endowment of the college still continues to climb and is now at the figure of approximately 380,000 Dollars, FORTY-FOUR THOUSAND Dollars having been added this year. Though this is good, it is not yet sufficient to meet all the running expenses and there is need therefore, of the constant help of every one of us on this behalf.

We recommend as Trustees for the term of four years the following:—

Revs. G. D. Smith, Archibald Moore, D. L. Ash and L. E. Resiger.

Messrs. G. W. Atkinson, U. G. Young, R. M. Hite, Samuel T. Spears, S. L. Richards and W. T. Williamson.

For the unexpired term of J. S. Withers, deceased (two years), George H. Trainer.

Revs. Bascomb T. Trevy and T. M. Zumbrunnen,

Messrs. R. B. Nay and W. H. Nemcomb.

Our Theological Institutions.

A word should be said about our Theological Schools which are continuing to do such excellent work in training the on-coming Preacher Material. They are The Boston University School of Theology, Drew Theological Seminary and Garrett Biblical Institute. We commend these institutions to the attention of our student preachers and suggest that they avail themselves of the opportunity of special training offered.

Summer School of Theology.

In view of the constantly increasing demand for a thorough intellectual training of the ministry we would place ourselves on record as follows: While in no wise neglecting the supreme importance of the spiritual elements and their constant cultivation in the preacher of the Gospel we DO stand for a full rounded out equipment where the mind and intellect shall receive its own share of careful training. And therefore urge a conscientious observance on the part of our undergraduates of the requirement of attendance at the Summer School of Theology at Mountain Lake Park.

Conference Board of Education.

We recommend as members of the Conference Board of Education for THREE YEARS, Revs. B. T. Trevy, D. C. Pickens and C. E. Goodwin, Messrs. R. B. Nay, U. G. Young and Harvey W. Marmer.

JAMES W. ENGLE, Chairman.
ARTHUR LAZENBY, Secretary.

PROHIBITION.

We, your committee on Temperance, make the following report:

Prohibition came in the "nick of time". It was the greatest progressive step taken by our nation since the abolition of human slavery. It is the greatest success where best enforced. We rejoice in the significant fact that it is being more effectively enforced today than ever before in West Virginia.

True, there are still violations. But the liquor traffic always was lawless, wrong in principle, inexpedient in practice. The first rebellion that ever raised its arm against the American flag was the Whiskey Rebellion of 1794. They hauled down the flag, fired on mail carriers, post offices and custom houses and drove the tax collectors into hiding. George Washington had to call for troops to suppress the incipient rebellion and enforce the law. From that day to this the Liquor Traffic has violated every law passed for its regulation, taxing or prohibition. It is, therefore, not surprising that it is lawless still. In the light of its history we find little to discourage us in our warfare for its complete abolition.

On the other hand we rejoice in the great blessings and benefits it is bringing to our nation and to other peoples. It has removed legalized temptation from the pathway of the young, the weak and the habit bound. Millions of excessive drinkers have quit drinking and have been saved for two worlds. We rejoice in this fact.

We rejoice also in the bloodless revolution in the social customs of America, the improvement of public morals, general health and national wealth through this glorious victory for decency and order.

We rejoice in the measure of law enforcement achieved in state and nation. We protest against any backward step of slackening in enforcement of the Eighteenth Amendment. In the name of over 80,000 members of the Methodist Episcopal Church of West Virginia, we declare against the proposed legalizing of the manufacture and sale of beer and wine for beverage purposes.

We condemn the outlawed liquor traffic in every form and also any condoning or conniving action or attitude on the part of public officials sworn and salaried to uphold the dry law. Where this law is violated the property so used should be padlocked, the citizen lawbreakers jailed, the alien violators deported.

We rejoice in the splendid dry victory in our State primary election resulting in the nomination by the dominant parties of the driest set of candidates the state has had in years. We now urge all our voting church members and all citizens to help elect wholesome dry officers in November.

We urge the re-enactment of the law requiring the teaching of the ill effects of Alcoholism and Narcotics upon the human system to the end that a citizenry may be reared which will respect and obey the Volstead law and thus help maintain orderly Constitutional Government.

We further urge the strengthening of our present enforcement laws; adequate penalties for public drunkenness, and the removal from office of any public official found guilty of such offense.

We heartily commend all faithful Federal and State enforcement officers who have done effective work and assure them of our sympathy and co-operation. We call upon all good citizens to take active interest in maintaining law and order, serving as witnesses and jurors and giving information to the proper authorities and in every other way rendering to the dry cause their best aid.

We heartily commend the West Virginia Anti-Saloon League, W. C. T. U. and all other contributing agencies and organizations for their untiring efforts and effective work and we pledge them our faithful co-operation, moral and financial support.

We commend the faithful and efficient work done by Rev. O. M. Pullen, Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, of West Virginia and earnestly request the Bishop to re-appoint him.

J. C. BUCKLEY, Chairman.
R. O. PHILLIPS, Secretary.

EPWORTH LEAGUE REPORT.

Your Committee on Epworth League wishes to call to your attention the accomplishments of and work of our young people of this Conference. Many things of note have been done and the character of the work has been of such importance that all who are at all interested in the welfare of our young people have every reason to be glad.

Sub-District Organizations.

It has long been the plan of the Conference organization that each District of the Conference be organized into sub-districts. We are glad to report that in Buckhannon, Morgantown, Wheeling, Parkersburg, and Huntington Districts such organizations have been effected and are doing excellent work. The Pastors are urged to assist the local District officers whenever possible to bring about other organizations of a similar character.

District Rallies.

We are pleased to call your attention that other plans of the Conference organization have become effective in that Epworth League Rallies have been held in every District of the Conference this year. Hundreds of our young people have attended these meetings and have gone back to their home leagues with new visions of service and new ideas in League work.

Visit of Dr. W. E. J. Gratz.

We are delighted to report that the Central Office of the Epworth League has been represented within the bounds of the Conference this year in the person of Dr. W. E. J. Gratz, then Institute and Life Work Secretary of the Epworth League, now Editor of the Epworth Herald by General Conference election. Dr. Gratz visited Buckhannon, Elkins, Parkersburg, and Morgantown Districts and attended District meetings in each instance. His coming was attended by large crowds of our young people and his visit has resulted in increased activity along all lines. Our League work is on a higher plane because of him. We also rejoice in the fact that he was able to be back with us at the meeting of our Annual Conference and at this time he addressed the Annual Meeting of the Conference Epworth League and delivered a strong address at the League Anniversary meeting on Sunday evening of Conference week. Central Office was also represented at the Summer Institute in the person of Mr. Walter Foley, Institute and Life Work Secretary, successor to Dr. Gratz. His coming was a real blessing to the Institute and many people were helped by his teachings in the class room.

Summer Institute.

We are glad to report that the Eighth Session of the Epworth League Institute was held at Wesleyan College, Buckhannon, Aug. 11th to 18th, 1924. About 250 of our choice young people were present from all sections of the Conference, and it was a week full of inspiration and good fellowship. The class work was well attended, a deep and abiding interest was shown in the work, and Dr. Claude E. Goodwin, Dean of the Institute, reports that it was one of the most successful Institutes ever held.

We would like to call the attention of our pastors to the Institute held yearly at Buckhannon and would urge that they make provision to send their choice young people to this training school. It will not only result in renewed interest in League work in the local chapter but it will mean deep and permanent consecration to the work of the Kingdom.

Mid-Year Institutes

We are also glad to report that mid-year Institutes have been held at the following places: Parkersburg, Huntington, Charleston, Wheeling, and Clarksburg. A large number of our young people, numbering into the hundreds, were in attendance and all reports indicate that much good was done. We hope that during the course of this year that each District may be able to hold such an Institute within its bounds at some central place.

Junior Leagues

All reports indicate that much good work has been done in the chapters of the Junior Epworth League. The aim for the Conference Cabinet has been a Junior League in every chapter, and we feel sure that it has been more nearly realized in the work of this last year than ever before. Our pastors and workers are urged to correspond with the Central Office of the League at 740 Rush street, Chicago, Ill., and secure such literature as may be needed in the organization and establishment of Junior Leagues.

Conference Officers—We submit the following for the approval of the Conference as the officers for the ensuing year:—

President—Arthur Beckett of Huntington.

First Vice-President—Ralph C. Brown of Buckhannon.

Second Vice-President—Arthur Lazenby of South Charleston.

Third Vice-President—Harris A. Jones of Elkins.

Fourth Vice-President—T. M. Zumbrunnen of Charleston.

Secretary—E. Vernon Smith of Clarksburg.

Treasurer—Vashti Congrove of Parkersburg.

Junior Supt.—Miss Romanna Rowley of Clarksburg.

Respectfully submitted,

DENVER C. PICKENS, Chairman.

JOHN L. WOLFE, Secretary.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

Report of the Committee on Sabbath Observance.

Your Committee on Sabbath Observance bring to your consideration the following report:

We re-affirm the statements of one year ago. That, according to information furnished by the Lords Day Alliance, the organized interests which control the commercialized sports and recreations of the United States, such as theatres, motion pictures shows, baseball, etc., are largely composed of such as to whom the Christian Sabbath has no meaning in a sacred way. That it seems their deliberate purpose to destroy every vestige of legal safe guard which our forefathers placed about the Sabbath and to transform it into a mere National Recreation day for their own profit.

That, step by step, with increasing rapidity, they are accomplishing their deadly purpose.

That no Legislature assemblies that a "feeler", if not a curse-fully prepared measure, is not at hand to ascertain whether the time is ripe. That this movement has behind it millions of dollars and that no cost will be held dear if it will accomplish the desired end. That according to a carefully prepared questionnaire sent out by the Lords Day Alliance, many of the States have no legal protection for the Sabbath and that also in many of the States there are clear evidences of increasing demand that the Christian Sabbath be legislated out of existence. That many of our own people fall in with the spirit of the times and make the day one of travel and pleasure, if not one of outright business transactions. That the annulling of this day as a Sabbath for rest and worship means also the end of the conquering progress of the Christian religion. Whereas we have an able ally in the Lords Day Alliance and remembering the Church's stalwart agent for public morals in the person of Clarence True Wilson. Therefore, be it resolved: That we of the West Virginia Conference offer our aid and hearty co-operation with all agencies designed for the maintenance of the Holy Day for its sacred purpose.

Resolved, further, that as our Lord's watchmen, we will set the pace by reducing our own seeming necessary travel and temporal duties to the minimum and that we will speak out from our pulpits the word of the Lord.

"Remember the Sabbath Day to Keep it Holy."

Respectfully submitted,

M. W. CASTLE, Chairman.

D. B. ORR, Secretary.

COMMITTEE ON THE WESLEY FOUNDATION.

The Committee on the Wesley Foundation submits the following report: The work of the Wesley Foundation at the West Virginia University at Morgantown has recorded another forward stride through the acquisition of a piece of property situated near our Methodist church there. Alterations have been made during the summer so as to fit it for a student center, that is, "A Home Away From Home."

The First Methodist Church at Morgantown, which during the past five years has provided an office for the University Pastor and a place for the various student activities, last year put an item of $500 in their budget and raised that amount to $1000 for the coming year.

Another important step was taken during the past year to bring to pass a more friendly spirit of co-operation and good will between the respective Executive Boards of Wesleyan College at Buckhannon and the Wesley Foundation at Morgantown. As yet no definite plans have been formulated but it is hoped that by the end of this year a policy destined to further the interests of these enterprises of the Kingdom will have been worked out.

We recommend that the West Virginia Conference extend the courtesy to the University Pastor, John A. Vollenweider, to visit such pastoral charges as he may have time for and as may be congenial to pastors and churches for the purpose of conveying to the people a more adequate conception of the work of the Wesley Foundation and its service to the young people from our Methodist homes. It is to be understood that there shall be no public appeal for financial aid on the occasion of these visits.

Signed,

JOHN A. VOLLENWEIDER.

CLAUDE H. KING.

J. T. KEENAN.

DENVER C. PISKENS.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS AND RELIGIOUS EDUCATION.

Your Committee on Sunday Schools and Religious Education submits the following report and recommendations:

I. During the past year headway has been made toward more definite and effective plans for a program of religious education throughout the bounds of the Conference. It has been a year of planning and getting ready for some definite action at this session of the Annual Conference, and the following recommendations are submitted for your approval:

a. The Board of Sunday Schools suggests the probability of its being able to assist in the support of our Conference program of religious education to the extent of half the budget. We therefore advise that steps be taken to provide the remainder of a sufficient budget to support this work in an adequate manner.

b. It is highly desirable that a Director of Religious Education be appointed whose business it shall be to promote the interests of Religious Education throughout the Conference, and we recommend that Dr. M. J. Trenery of the Extension Department of the Board of Sunday Schools be asked to meet the Conference Board at an early date to enter definitely into further plans for placing the worker on the field by not later than January 1st, 1925.

c. We recommend that the Committee on Sunday Schools and Religious Education be requested to appoint a Board of Directors for the Standard Training School to be held at Wesleyan College the week following the Epworth League Institute, and that the Conference pledge its interest and effort in behalf of this very important part of the religious education program of the conference.

II. Little has been done in a financial way toward the support of this program during the past year. Some few responses were made to the request for a contribution of two cents per enrolled member in the Sunday Schools of the Conference. This money has been used to pay for postage and other necessary expense for Standard Training Schools and other expenses of the Committee.

Respectfully submitted,

S. C. JONES, Chairman.

O. R. SNODGRASS, Secretary.

PERIODICALS AND BOOK ACCOUNTS.

We, your committee on Periodicals and Book Accounts, submit the following report:

In view of the stream of cheap literature that is constantly pouring from the press of our country, in the way of books, magazines and newspapers, we feel that it behooves us to use our utmost endeavor to counteract this contaminated fountain, by urging and persuading our people to buy and read the very best literature that can be procured.

From the days of the Wesleys, the Methodist Episcopal Church has been a producer and distributor of the best literature that the people called Methodist can buy.

When we patronize our Methodist Book Concern, we are not only helping our people to secure good reading matter, but are increasing the fund for those venerable men of God—our retired ministers, and their dependents.

We are pleased to learn that during the past year the sales at our depository, in Pittsburgh were $261,000, or an increase of $9,000 over the previous year, despite the fact that there was an industrial depression in most all lines of commercial activities in the Pittsburgh Area.

We are gratified that our General Conference, in its wisdom saw fit to re-elect Dr. J. J. Wallace, as editor of the Pittsburgh Christian Advocate, for another quadrennium.

We extend to Dr. Wallace our congratulations, and pledge to him our co-operation and support in making the Pittsburgh Advocate, one of the best periodicals in the whole family of Advocates.

We are also pleased that the very efficient and congenial Business Manager of the Advocate, Dr. Daniel Westfall, is to continue his stay among us.

While we are glad for the increased sale of books at the Pittsburgh depository, we are sorry to note the steady decrease in subscriptions to the Advocate.

We read of a certain preacher, in the long ago, who was urged to give attention to reading. Let us do likewise.

B. S. HAMRICK, Chairman.

H. W. FLANAGAN, Secretary.

PARSONAGES AND FURNITURE.

Your Committee on Parsonages and Furniture submit the following report:

We respectfully call attention of the Conference to the requirements of our Discipline for parsonages, or houses rented for our ministers. In all cases the ministers should have a home in which certain disciplinary conditions have been met, and Superintendents, Ministers, and Board of Trustees are urged to locate such homes, that the ministers and their families shall not be deprived of the prestige and influence a good home affords, nor be humiliated as they sometimes are.

Many of our parsonages are lacking in those external appointments that add to the comfort and convenience of the minister and his family. It is imperative that good wells of water be secured conveniently, sufficient outbuildings designed to adequately meet the needs of the minister, and such other interests as would be sanitary and health conserving.

It is highly desired that this year all parsonages be furnished with the following: A combination kitchen range and heating stoves necessary, kitchen cabinets, chairs, tables, book cases and other uniform furniture. That these materials shall be secured by a Parsonage and Furniture Committee suggested by the Trustees and Stewards of the church and placed in the care of the minister in charge.

Many complaints come through the District Superintendents that ministers are careless with good property, and that unsanitary conditions are carelessly allowed, the walls mutilated. Let all ministers take pride in the parsonage, keeping it clean and extend the courtesy of a clean and prepared house to his successor, should be move.

Respectfully submitted,

E. J. JOHNSON, Chairman.
SAMUEL C. JONES, Secretary.

CONFERENCE MINUTES.

We, your Committee, offer the following report:

In view of the fact that the cost of publishing Conference minutes is constantly increasing and that advertising space is difficult to sell, we urge that all pastors be prompt in paying to this fund any amount that may be recommended by the Conference.

Therefore, we recommend that each pastor in full connection be asked to contribute $2.50 annually to this fund, and that each Probationer and Supply in charge of a circuit, be required to contribute $2.00 annually to this fund.

These amounts to be payable in advance at the seat of the Annual Conference, and if not paid at this time the proportionate number of minutes to be sent to each pastor thus failing, accompanied by bill for same.

Also there is more or less complaint concerning the delay in printing and sending out Conference minutes, therefore, we urge that due diligence be used by all connected with this work to get the minutes out, as soon after Conference as is possible.

Respectfully,

F. V. ARNETT, Chairman.
WILLIAM A. DEBAR, Secretary.

HOSPITALS AND HOMES.

Your Board of Hospitals and Homes met at the call of the chairman and after giving careful consideration to the correspondence, suggested constitution, etc., which was submitted to us in connection with the Hospital project at Charleston, wish to report that it is the unanimous opinion of the Board that no action be taken at this time. The drives for funds already in progress in the Conference, and other drives already projected which must have first place would naturally postpone any such action on our part concerning the Hospital project for some years.

Respectfully submitted,

C. R. HAVIGHURST, Chairman.
DENVER C. PICKENS, Secretary.

CONFERENCE EVANGELISTS

V. A. Nanna.

Number of meetings held, ten, with some conversions in each. These meetings have extended in area from Hancock county in the north to McDowell county in the south; and from the Chesapeake Bay to the Ohio River.

Contributions were received amounting to $1,573.

Respectfully submitted,

V. A. NANNA.

H. T. Hieronimus

The sacrifices and labors of the year's work have been large, the numerical results meagre, but the joy and peace of service far outweigh all.

About 500 persons made profession of religion; $1000 received as remuneration and 10,000 miles travelled, tell the story of the year's work.

Respectfully,

H. T. HIERONIMUS.

Edward D. Fellers

This has been a hard year for definite soul winning. Results are for the sixteen campaigns. Conversions, 1,250; sermons preached, 358; salary net, $2300. I have given all my time to the work assigned me. West Virginia Conference has gotten every minute of my time the brethren have claimed.

EDWARD D. FELLERS.

XIII. REPORT OF SECRETARY OF THE WEST VIRGINIA CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS' PERMANENT TRUST FUND ASSOCIATION FOR CONFERENCE YEAR 1923-1924.

When the plan of campaign for the benefit of the Permanent Fund was adopted a year ago I knew that a hard task was before me. Had I not known this at first I should have been soon enlightened for a large number of persons at once began to post me concerning all manner of difficulties and discouragements. During the whole year it has been a decided exception for anyone to give me a word of encouragement, though I have found many loyal and faithful workers.

Among the multitude of discouraging things mentioned, two proved to be of marked prominence and painful truth. One was the feeling of prejudice among the laity against campaigns and especially against the making of pledges for a term of years. The other was the business depression in a large number of places.

The first three months after Conference I spent in preparatory work. I visited all possible district gatherings and a number of churches. After careful study and much prayer it was decided that the campaign should be put on by districts, during a period of several months, rather than in a rush over the whole Conference in a few weeks. The outcome showed clearly the wisdom of this decision, for the conditions of the weather, roads and business proved to be worst of all in the Spring and early Summer. The districts were divided into groups, with a leader for each one, literature was prepared and sent out to all charges and early in January the intensive campaign began on Wheeling district.

For over six months my work was strenuous, in spite of all the aid given by District Superintendents, Group Leaders, Pastors and other workers. No expensive special workers were brought in. The work was all done by our own preachers and laymen except that Brothers Bash and Howe of the Area office, each gave me two Sundays for this work. The chief expense was for travel of workers and of the supplies who filled the pulpits of pastors who were out on the campaign. A number of laymen did splendid work and thus far not one of them has sent me an expense account.

During the year I have traveled about 10,000 miles in this work. I have visited 33 of the 37 groups, going to all large towns and cities in the Conference and to many small towns and country circuits. I have held one hundred seventy services of all kinds and at more than one hundred of these I delivered formal sermons or addresses.

Much of this field work would have been impossible but for good help in the office. The correspondence has been very large, as is shown by a postage bill of $140.08, and the keeping of the books has at times been a heavy task. The office and field work for the year would have been beyond the power of one person.

I am sorry to be obliged to report that the results of the year's work are below both my hopes and my estimates. I have reports from barely one-half of the pastoral charges of the Conference and some of these do not indicate that a real campaign has been put on. A number of churches have been so situated with regard to their own affairs or local business conditions that they have postponed their campaign until next year. In some cases this has been definitely arranged with the Secretary but in others only a general understanding appears. Some churches have declared a purpose of putting this cause in their budgets but have not made formal pledges. Some churches gave a public service to the cause but have not followed up the work beyond that. A large number of subscribers have refused to pledge themselves for more than one payment, though they say they hope to continue for four years.

Of course we all know that not every church can raise its apportionment but I feel that every pastor should make an honest effort to help this cause and that every effective member of the Conference should make a personal subscription. I consider that the greatest triumph of the year has been won by a pastor whose official board would not take the matter up. He quietly secured committees from other members of the church, put on a splendid campaign and may finally reach the full apportionment to his charge. Such workers always win.

Either by formal pledge of the church or by personal subscriptions the following have raised their apportionments:

Buckhannon District—Sutton.

Charleston District—Sheppard's Chapel, Charleston; Nitro; Kayford.

Elkins District—Rainelle.

Huntington District—Beckley; Glen White; Highlawn, Huntington; Logan.

Morgantown District—Barracksville; Highland Avenue, Fairmont.

Parkersburg District—St. Mary's; St. Andrews, Parkersburg.

Wheeling District—Farmington, Glendale; Moundsville First; Fourth Street and Wesley, Wheeling.

So many pastors have failed to make complete reports and so many charges have not yet put on a thorough campaign that the total of subscriptions reported to Sept. 16 is only $117,883.11. I suppose two or three thousand dollars on old subscriptions may possibly yet be collected. It is obvious that the campaign cannot be regarded as anywhere nearly completed.

The receipts for the present Conference year to Sept. 30 are as follows:

Subscriptions	$22,943.14
Interest	147.25
Sundry Receipts	20.75

Total	$23,111.14
Balance Oct. 1, 1923	2,977.18

Total	$26,088.32
-------------	-------------

The expenses for the year to Sept. 30 are as follows:

Total	$25,166.43
Balance for New Year	921.89

THE FUTURE.

As it was with Israel so it is with us—"There remaineth very much land to be possessed."

I feel that the coming year must be one of earnest work. Every effort will be made to collect installments due on subscriptions. Campaigns must be put on as far as possible for the charges which have not had one or have not done the matter justice. The work cannot be regarded as finished on a charge until it has paid its full apportionment. I pledge myself to faithful work and I plead for the loyal support of every member of the Conference.

FRANK S. TOWNSEND.

REPORT OF THE AUDITOR.

The committee for auditing the accounts of the Conference have carefully reviewed all accounts coming before them and wish to submit the following report:

We have examined the accounts of the Missionary funds of each District Superintendent and find them correct.

The account of E. A. Trenor, Treasurer of District Superintendents salary fund shows that each Superintendent has received a salary of $5000 and that there is now a balance in hand of $56.12. We find these correct.

The accounts of O. A. Kelley were examined and found correct, showing a balance of $414.81 in the Union National Bank of Clarksburg to the credit of the Conference treasurer.

We find correct the accounts of Claude E. Goodwin, Conference Treasurer of the Board of Stewards, showing a balance for the year of $599.96.

We have examined the accounts of F. S. Townsend, Secretary of the West Virginia Conference Claimants Fund, and find these correct.

The accounts of U. G. Young, Treasurer of the Conference Claimants' Permanent Fund, were examined and were found correct.

Respectfully submitted,

G. BLEAKLEY, Chairman.

I. S. MIDDLEDAUGH, Secretary.

XVIII. IN MEMORIAM

REV. A. J. HIATT, D. D.

Nature richly endowed A. J. Hiatt with superior mental qualities and gave him a regal bearing and commanding personality that marked him as one of her noblemen.

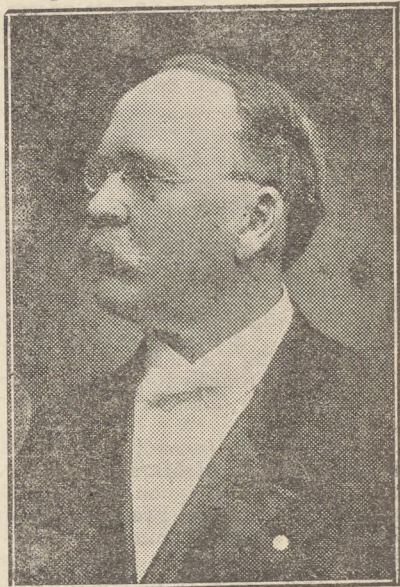

Born into a Quaker home, near Westfield, Ind., in 1850, the lad was reared according to the strictest tenets of that puritanical sect. There he imbibed those sterling virtues of probity and uprightness which were the guiding principles of his life. His ideals were always lofty and exalted.

Early in life he felt the call to preach the glorious tidings which had so completely gripped his own life. Yielding to this "inward light," young Hiatt gladly responded to the "call." Being deeply impressed with the fervent piety and simpleness of faith of the Wesleyan Methodists, he began his ministry among these good people, and for eight years continued with them, growing year by year into a stronger and more commanding position.

For forty-two years he labored abundantly, "in season and out of season," for the Church of his choice and for the expansion of the Kingdom. Full sheaves at harvest time show conclusively that this "workman of God" did not labor in vain.

While Doctor Hiatt was a powerful gospel preacher and a most successful revivalist, a splendid Bible teacher, yet he seemed to excel as a church builder. During his pastorates in the North-East Ohio and West Virginia Conferences he built nineteen churches and parsonages. Some of the best church edifices and most comfortable parsonages within the two Conferences were erected under his administrations. The following is but a partial list of the churches he served and of those he built: In North-East Ohio Conference, Woodland Avenue and Broadway, Cleveland; Glenville, where a fine stone church was built; Barnesville, where a fine parsonage was erected; Simpson Church, Canton, and Uhrichsville; First Church, Moundsville, where an imposing brownstone church and parsonage was erected; First Church, Huntingtno, where a great white-stone church and parsonage was built.

Doctor Hiatt's active ministry closed with the termination of his work as superintendent of Charleston district in 1920. With his beloved wife, who has divided his sorrows and multiplied his joys for the long period of their married life, he returned to his native state and took up his residence in Nobleville, near the place of his birth. His period of retirement was destined, however, to be of short duration.

Dr. Hiatts death occurred at the home of his son, Blanchard E. Hiatt, at Roanoke, Va., Dec. 19, 1924, where he and Mrs. Hiatt had gone to spend the holidays.

Tender services were held in the Virginia home, December 20, and then was undertaken the sad journey to the old Indiana home, where, on December 23, his pastor, the Rev. H. S. Nickerson, conducted a fitting and beautiful service, in which he paid a loving tribute of respect and affection to this departed servant of Jehovah.

He is survived by his wife and one son, Blanchard E. Hiatt.

S. K. ARBUTHNOT.

REV. MOORE McNEIL.

February 19, 1924, Rev. Moore McNeil passed to his reward from the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. H. Cochran at Lost Creek, W. Va.

Rev. McNeil was born in Pocahontas county, November 9, 1830. There he grew to manhood, and was active as a teacher, before entering the ministry in September, 1859.

He became a member of the W. Va. M. E. Conference in 1867 and continued active in this work until April 5, 1881. For twenty-one years he rendered effective service, at the end of his active pastorate he was given the retired relation which he held to the end.

Following the death of his wife he remained with his son, Frank C. McNeil at Smithville, for some time, afterwards going to the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. H. Cochran, at Lost Creek where he remained until death.

On July the second, 1862, he was united in marriage to Miss Jane Poole Caldwell, of Marshall county. To this union twelve children were born, ten of which survive. Cloyd T., of Kellerton, Iowa; William K., Washburn; Frank C., of Smithville; Burleigh S. C., Smithville; Mrs. G. M. Clammer, Fort Collins, Colo.; Mrs. Gus J. Shaffer, Kingwood; Mrs. A. L. Ireland, Buckhannon; Mrs. H. H. Cochran, Lost Creek; Mrs. S. J. Morrow, Dallas, Texas; Mrs. K. P. Wright, Washington, D. C.

Having served the Harrisville and Smithville charges in the years that has passed, many of the older generation will readily recall the stately figure of Rev. McNeil, as he stood in his pulpit preaching Jesus as the Savior of sinners, fully realizing the great responsibility that rested upon him as a servant of God, with the assurance that he could do nothing within himself, but that all things were possible to those who love the Lord.

Although many mile-stones have been passed in the life of this aged pilgrim, and these years being rip with the fruits of experience he trusted not in self, but made abundant use of the great store house of God's power, and through the medium of prayer, he was ever drawing on the all sufficient supply of Grace. His devotion and zeal for his Master at the eventide of life was beautiful to see.

Many souls have been led from darkness into light by his council and guidance; when these living gems are layed down at Jesus' feet they will merit many stars in his crown of righteousness.

There in the presence of Him who came to claim His own, he shall shine as the brightness of the firmaments. This blessed hope bears us on.

Funeral services were conducted in the Smithville Methodist Episcopal church, by the pastor, Rev. B. H. Barnes, and the body laid to rest in the Westfall cemetery, at Smithville.

REV. P. W. SHRADER

The Rev. P. W. Shrader was born in Ohio, December 18, 1868, and departed this life ay 8, 1924. He consecrated his young manhood to Jesus Christ when he was eighteen years old, and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church. After serving as a local preacher in Ohio a few years, he joined the West Virginia Conference in 1897, and preached in that Conference for about twenty-seven years.

Brother Shrader was a good preacher, an excellent father, a devoted husband and a loyal friend. About ten years of his ministerial life were spent on the Pendleton charge, now called Upper Tract, where he was universally respected and loved by the people of all churches. Last Conference he was sent to Circleville charge, in the same county, where he was having an excellent pastorate.

He is survived by his wife and six children, Burger Talbott, Hazel Kathleen, Cranston Warren, Reginald Owen, Ina Virginia and Dwight Arlington, all at home. His father and brother tloso survive him. His father is eighty-six years old and lives in Ohio. He will be greatly missed by his family, as they all loved him dearly. He died in the Memorial Hospital, Harrisburg, Virginia.

Brother Shrader was a good man, full of faith and the Holy Ghost. He fought the good fight, he finished his work on earth, and he now is living in the land where there is no death.

The Rev. C. W. Milem, pastor of the Upper Tract charge, conducted the funeral services.

L. E. RESSEGGER.

MRS. VICTORIA M. STEELE.

Mrs. Victoria M. Steele, a former well-known and highly esteemed resident of Buckhannon, passed away following a protracted illness, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank B. Trotter, at Morgantown, on Tuesday, March 18. Mrs. Steele was a fine type of Christian womanhood. Her life radiated useful service to those around her. She was in the eighty-fifth year of her age. Her many friends in this vicinity will learn with deep regret of her demise. She is survived by two sons and two daughters, namely: John L. Steele, of Washington, D. C., and Wilson Steele, of Fairmont; Mrs. F. B. Trotter of Morgantown, and Mrs. J. D. Pifer, of Joplin, Mo. The body of the deceased was conveyed to Buckhannon and a short service was held at the Heavner cemetery. Dr. W. E. Lowther, pastor of the M. E. church of Morgantown, and Dr. James Engle, of this city, conducted the burial service.

Mrs. Steele was the widow of the late Rev. Samuel Steele, who, many years ago, was pastor of the Buckhannon M. E. church. She had, during her many years residence in this city, endeared herself to the hearts of all whose privilege it was to have known her. The pall bearers were Dean T. W. Haught, Dr. Frank B. Trotter, Judge J. C. McWhorter, Frank Maxwell, U. G. Young, and B. F. Cody, of Elkins. Among the out-of-town relatives who attended the service here were Dr. and Mrs. F. B. Trotter, of Morgantown; Steele Trotter, of Charleston; Russell Trotter, of Fairmont; Mrs. Laura Steele and son Lorentz, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Steele, of Fairmont; Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Cody, of Elkins.

J. W. ENGLE.

MRS. B. H. MAHONE.

Mary A. Mahone, the wife of the Rev. B. H. Mahone, of the West Virginia Conference, was born November 11, 1848, and died at Flatwoods, W. Va., September 29, 1924.

Early in life she was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church and has always been a consistent and devoted Christian. Her religion dominated and permeated her entire life. She was known and honored for her rugged integrity.

She was married to B. H. Mahone on December 14, 1869, by the Rev. J. T. Carroll. To this union were born seven children, who are all living: Mrs. B. H. Lewis, Sutton, W. Va.; Mrs. W. A. Rymer, Glenville, W. Va.; A. V. Mahone, Burnsville, W. Va.; L. H. Mahone, Portland, Oregon; W. A. Mahone, Flatwoods, W. Va., and J. K. Mahone, Clarksburg, W. Va.

As the wife of a Methodist preacher she proved a real "Mistress of the Manse," enduring all the toils and privations incident to the itinerant ministry, and also entering into the real pleasures and joys of her Lord's service.

She was a wonderful mother and wife, and the chair that is vacant none other can ever fill.

Her funeral was conducted by Superintendent S. B. Hart of the Huntington district and her pastor, the writer, after which her body was borne by loving hands to the "silent city of the dead." She has gone to rest in the land of fadeless dawn.

T. H. YOUNG.

MRS. N. B. JOHNSON.

Lucinda White Johnson was born in Monongalia county, W. Va., July 20, 1850, and died in Huntington, W. Va., November 29, 1923. She suffered a stroke of apoplexy on November 23, and about dawn on Thanksgiving morning slipped away to be with God. She became a member of the Church in her girlhood days and remained a faithful member until her death, taking great interest in all its affairs. She had a great love for the Church. As the wife of one minister and the mother of another, she made a rich and valuable contribution to the kingdom of God. It will be remembered that she was the wife of the Rev. N. B. Johnson, who was one of the strong preachers of the Conference, and the mother of the Rev. John W. Johnson, who, from our finite understanding of things, went all too soon. Because of this experience, she gave valuable assistance in all of the activities of the Church. She was wide awake in building up the Church and Kingdom. She gave most excellent support to her pastor. Her knowledge of the work of the Church, in all its fields, was beyond the average because of her perusal of the Church papers. The Church has sustained a loss in the going of this good woman, but heaven is richer. Funeral services, held in the home, assisted by Superintendent R. G. Backus and the Rev. James E. Bird, pastor of High Lawn Church, Huntington.

C. E. GOODWIN.

MRS. N. L. G. ANDERSON.

Maggie Day Anderson was born in Pendleton County, West Virginia, December 17, 1876, and departed this life at her home in Triadelphia, West Virginia, on the 31st day of August, 1924.

She was converted in girlhood and united with the U. B. Church, remaining a member of the same until her marriage to Rev. N. L. G. Anderson in 1896, when she transferred her membership to the Methodist Episcopal church and was a faithful and useful member of the same until she was called home.

Mrs. Anderson was a faithful wife, good mother and a devoted Christian, always doing her full duty in bearing the burdens of the home, and shared the trials and triumphs of her husband's work as a minister of the gospel.

She died suddenly and in triumphant peace, leaving her husband and six children to mourn their loss.

Funeral services were conducted in the Triadelphia parsonage by Rev. W. E. Anderson, assisted by a number of pastors of the Wheeling District, and her body laid to rest in the West Alexander cemetery.

W. E. ANDERSON.

MRS. F. S. BISHOP.

Mrs. Fred S. Bishop, wife of the pastor of Andrews Methodist Episcopal Church, Grafton, W. Va., died at their parsonage home, on Tuesday morning, October 7, 1924.

Mrs. Bishop was born in Bethesda, Belmont county, Ohio, October 28, 1882, and was the youngest of four daughters of the late Robert W. and Mary Ann Hunt. She was married to the Rev. Fred S. Bishop, of the West Virginia Conference, March 11, 1903, and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. To Mr. and Mrs. Bishop five children were born: Willis F., Ronald A., Sterling, Catherine and Betty, all of whom survive the mother.

Mrs. Bishop was a good Christian, kind, affectionate, amiable and true. She was loyal to the Church and the cause of her Master. Even during her illness, which lasted nearly a year, she tried to be of use to her husband and the cause which he represents until her Master said, "It is enough." She has finished her work and gone to her reward.

Funeral services were conducted at the parsonage by the writer, assisted by the Rev. O. R. Snodgrass. The large number who attended this service was an evidence of the esteem in which she was held.

C. A. SNIDER.

MRS. W. J. KERR.

Dorothy G. Kerr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thorn and wife of Rev. W. J. Krr, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, Barracksville, W. Va., was born at Rivesville, W. Va., July 12, 1900, and died at Cook Hospital, Fairmont, July 22, 1924. She was a graduate of the Fairmont Normal and previous to her marriage a teacher in the Fairmont City Schools. September 23, 1923, she became the wife of Rev. W. J. Kerr.. She was a devoted wife, a faithful worker in the vineyard of the Lord and was tenderly loved by all who knew her. She leaves a little babe, a bereaved husband, father, mother, one sister and one brother. Converted in early life she unwaveringly followed her Lord through life and death.

XXI. COMMISSION ON FINANCE.

The Commission on Finance met in First Church, Parkersburg, on Thursday afternoon, October 16, 1924.

The meeting was called to order by John Beddow, and after prayer by L. C. Shingleton of Clarksburg, and R. G. Backus, pastor of our church at Weston, P. Y. DeBolt was chosen temporary secretary.

The following members were present, all the Superintendents, the following pastors: C. G. Stater, John Beddow, J. E. Scott and P. Y. DeBolt; the following laymen: L. C. Shingleton, S. L. Richards, E. A. Trenor, W. S. Speece.

The election of officers for the ensuing year was next on the program and the following were chosen: John Beddow, president; P. Y. DeBolt, secretary; E. A. Trenor, treasurer.

E. A. Trenor read the treasurer's report for the past year, which showed some deficiency over the year before. The report was accepted and adopted.

By unanimous consent the salary of District Superintendents was placed at $5000.00 and the percentage placed at nine per cent of the pastor's cash salary.

The District Superintendents reported some increase in pastors' salaries on the charges thus far visited. These reports were very encouraging.

On motion of L. C. Shingleton, it was ordered that the Treasurer be paid the salary due him for the past two years out of the first money received from the Superintendents.

On motion of Superintendent McCluskey, the traveling expenses of the Commission were allowed. There being no further business, the meeting adjourned with prayer and benediction by Dr. H. C. Howard.

P. Y. DeBOLT, Secretary.

THE MOODY BIBLE INSTITUTE OF CHICAGO

—Rev. James M. Gray, D. D., President—

Founded by the Great Evangelist and Christian Educator
D. L. Moody in 1886.

TRAINING FREE

The object of the Institute is expressed in the service rendered by its students in all parts of the world, who are pastors, evangelists, missionaries, teachers, gospel singers, Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. secretaries, rescue mission superintendents, deaconesses and workers in Sunday schools and boys' and girls' clubs.

This is divided into a Day School, Evening School and Correspondence School. The General Course of the Day School is covered in two years. Its enrollment last year was 1238. Five other courses are Missionary Pastors, Religious Education, Jewish Missions and Swedish-English. Advanced work is taken in these courses covering longer periods of time.

The Evening School permits students to take work equivalent to the Day same diploma, though it necessarily covers a longer period of time. A shorter course is possible however, leading to a certificate. The enrollment last year was 861.

The Correspondence School is for those who cannot attend the Institute in person. Eight courses are offered in different methods of Bible study, Practical Christian Work, Evangelism, Christian Evidences, etc. For these a limited fee is charged. The enrollment last year was 10,047.

This supplies Bible teachers, evangelists and gospel singers for church and mission work, and also conducts Bible conferences, music classes and evangelistic meetings wherever called for.

This is a periodical devoted to Bible knowledge and interpretation; news and methods of world-wide Christian work; editorial comment on current events and conditions; inspirational verse and selected miscellany. It is catholic in spirit and outlook; evangelical and evangelistic. Issued monthly, $2.00 a year, to any address. Rev. James M. Gray, D. D., editor.

DREW

THE THEOLOGICAL UNIVERSITY OF METHODISM

With the largest faculty of any theological school in Methodism, Drew offers a wealth of courses leading to the degrees of Master of Arts, Bachelor of Divinity, Master of Theology, and Doctor of Theology.

Drew is in imperative need of additional buildings and endowment. If the Church is to have adequate leadership tomorrow it must make adequate provision for theological training today.

NATIONAL MUTUAL CHURCH INSURANCE COMPANY OF CHICAGO

(THE METHODIST MUTUAL)

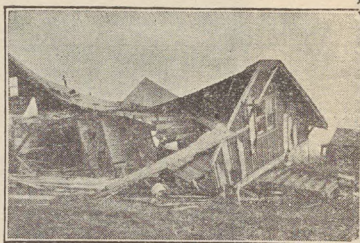

This company has, since 1898, been impressing upon church officials everywhere the need of protection. Insures against FIRE, LIGHTNING, and TORNADOES. No assessments; legal reserve for protection of policy holders same as stock companies; business at highest point ever attained and constantly increasing.

A BURNING SHAME!

Policies in force over SIXTY-NINE MILLION DOLLARS ($69,000,000.00) Gross Losses paid nearly $2,000,000.00. NOT ONE DOLLAR EVER DUE AND UNPAID. Insures Churches, Parsonages, Property of Ministers, Homes and Personal Effects of Church Members, AT COST.

Tornado insurance is the only possible protection when storms come and no one knows WHEN or WHERE they will come. Order a policy now. Cost is trifling.

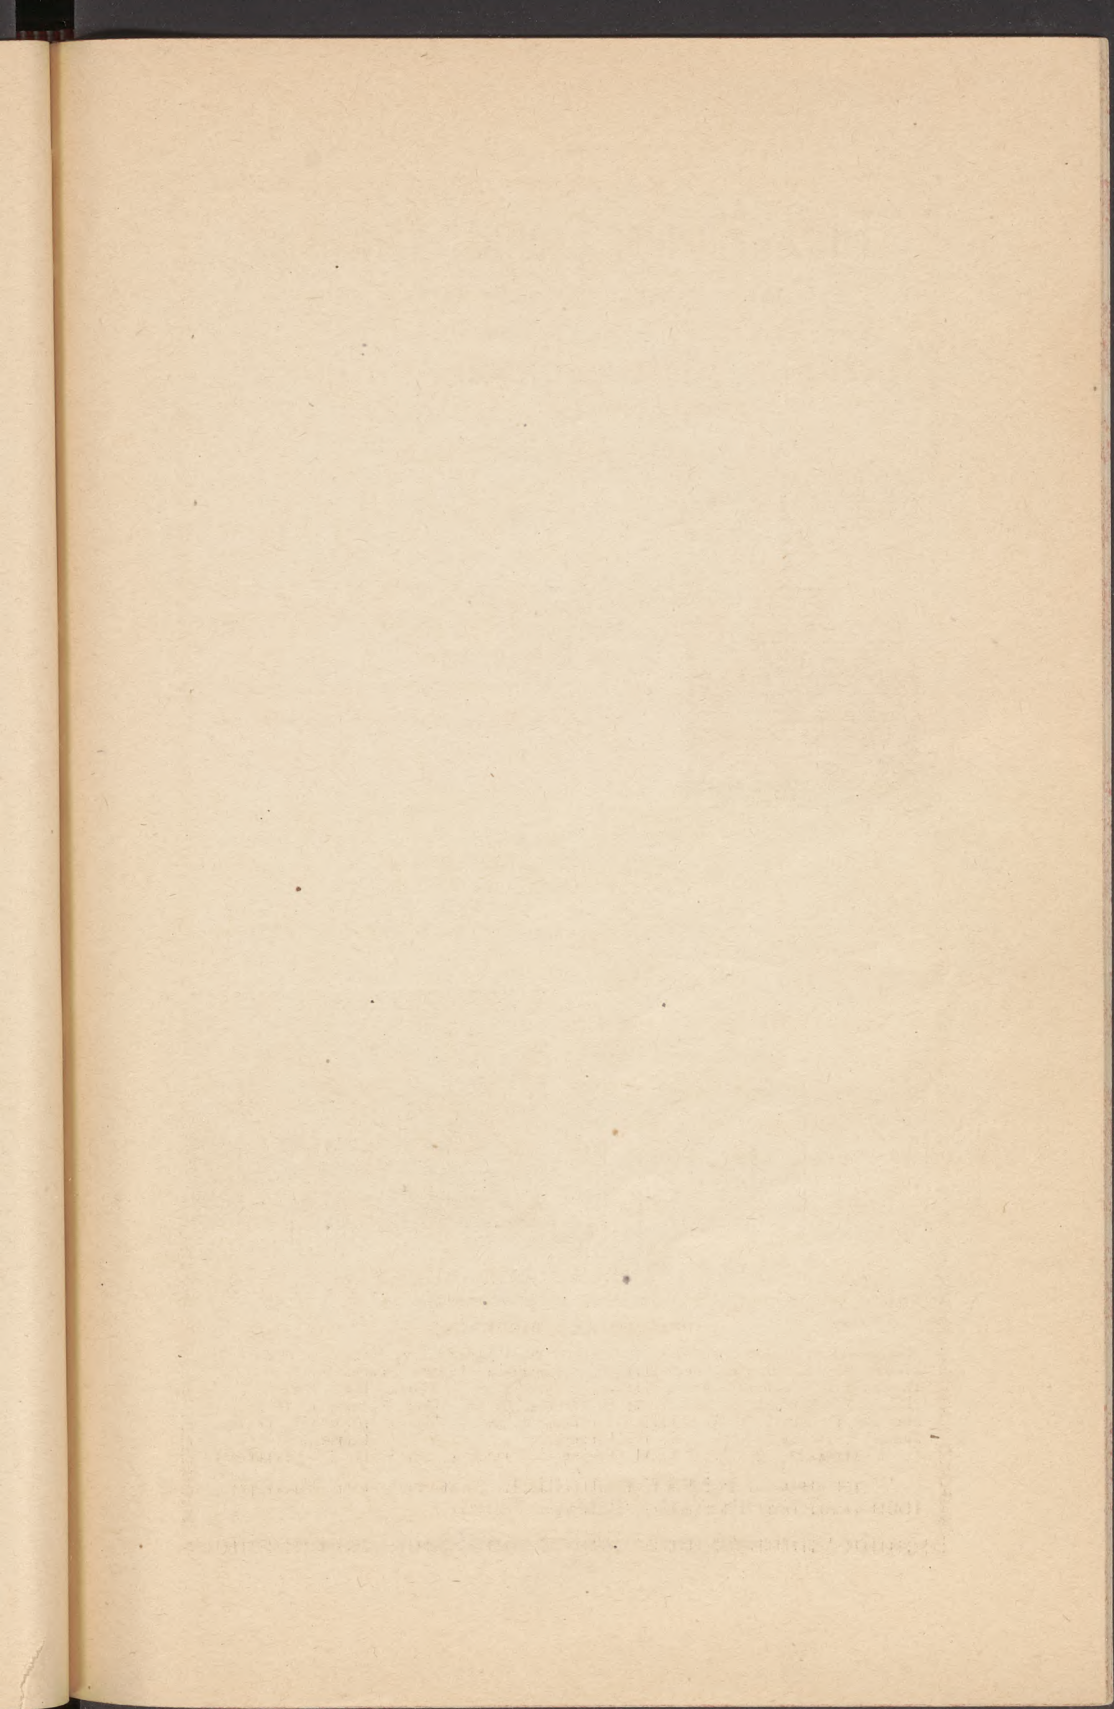

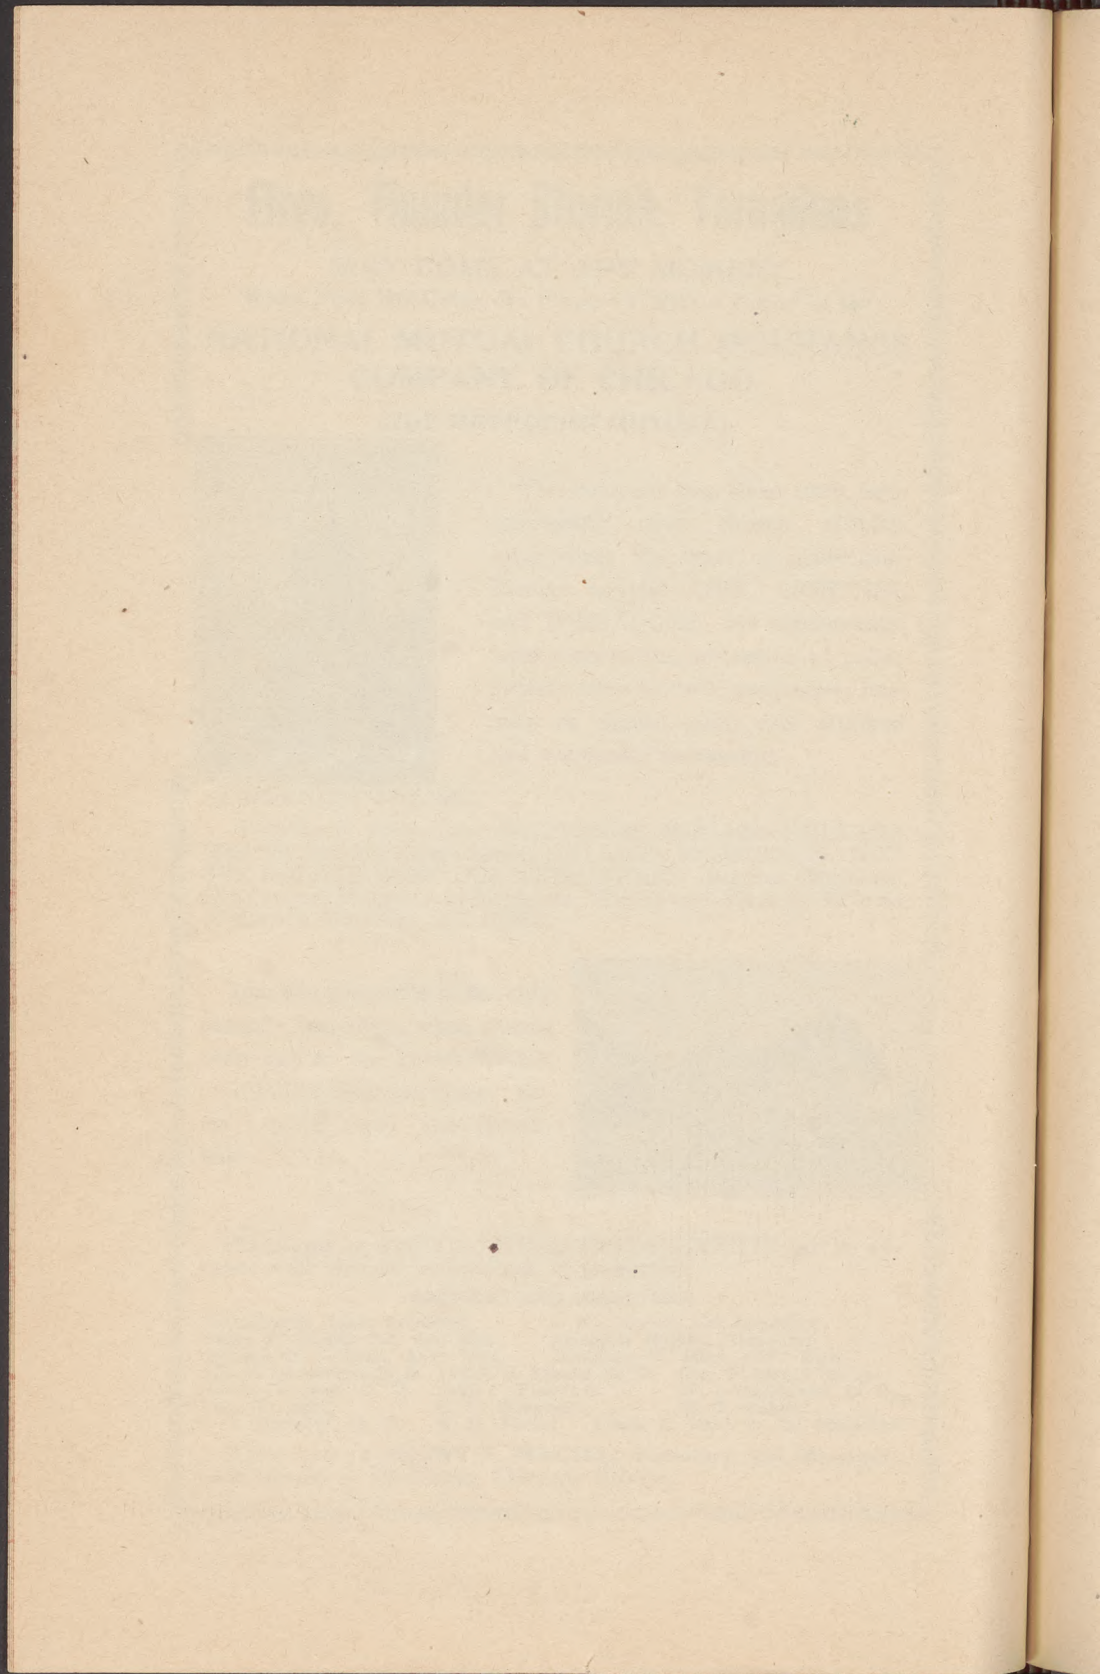

Premiums in EASY ANNUAL INSTALLMENTS, or in advance with special reductions, if preferred.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE COMMITTEE ON CONFERENCE RELATIONS—The Committee on Conference Relations presented the following Recommendations and on vote of the Conference they were adopted:

Recommendation No. 1

"Whereas the list of detached members of the Annual Conference is large, and constantly growing; and at present the Conference Claimants Fund does not receive anything from such members for annual distribution, as is done by the charges; also

Whereas, all these brethren will some day be Claimants on this Fund, Therefore—We, The Committee on Conference Relations recommend that all ministers in detached relation to the Conference be required to pay to the Annual Conference Claimants Fund, a sum equal to two and one-half (2½%) per Annum, of their salaries, and that credit be given to the charge in which they hold their membership, in addition to the amount paid by that charge annually.

Signed J. E. SCOTT, Chairman
P. Y. DEBOLT, Secretary

Recommendation No. 2

We, your Committee on Conference Relations, recommend that the maximum number of men to be granted Conference Evangelist Relations in the Conference, shall be four (4). and that the Conference request the Cabinet to assist us in maintaining this limitation.

Signed J. E. SCOTT, Chairman
P. Y. DEBOLT, Secretary

Recommendation No. 3

Whereas it is inconvenient for detached men working outside of the Conference area to report to the Annual Conference; we recommend that men working outside of our area, be asked to transfer their membership to the area in which they are employed.

Signed J. E. SCOTT, Chairman
P. Y. DEBOLT, Secretary

CHANGE OF RELATION—On recommendation of the Committee on Conference Relations, A. G. Cox, A. L. Ireland and Roy J. Badgley were changed from effective to supernumary, and the secretary was instructed to send notice to R. J. Badgley of the action of the Conference, with the statement that at the next session of the Conference he would be located, if he did not show in writing or person proof that such action should not be taken.

CONCERNING THE KING ESTATE AT RIPLEY—On motion of C. B. Graham a vote of thanks was tendered to heirs of the E. D. W. King estate at Ripley, which estate was presented to the West Virginia Conference at the 1924 session; the following resolution was also presented carrying with it the appointment of trustees for the estate, and by vote of the conference it was adopted:

RESOLUTION

“Whereas in the matter of the gift of the King homestead in Ripley, W. Va., to the West Virginia Conference, as a home for retired ministers of the Conference, their widows, dependents and other worthy constituents, it is necessary to elect a Board of Trustees to hold said property; The following names are presented:

E. E. CROSS, Ripley, W. Va.
E. B. HARRISON, Ripley, W. Va.
E. D. W. KING, Cottageville, W. Va.
M. C. ARCHER, Ripley, W. Va.
The Pastor of The Methodist Episcopal Church at Ripley.

CLASS FOR FULL CONNECTION—The Bishop called the class for full connection in the Conference and very earnestly addressed them concerning the responsibilities of the work, and after they had answered the disciplinary questions they were admitted to full membership in the Conference, and the Bishop offered prayer.

REPORTS—Reports were read as follows: J. E. Wagner read the report of the Committee on State of the Church, T. M. McCarty submitted the report of The Committee on Episcopal Fund, C. R. INTRODUCTION—The Bishop introduced to the Conference the Rev. tDr. F. G. Behner, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Clarksburg.

RESOLUTION—PERMANENT FUND—The following Resolution from the Permanent Fund Investment Commission, was presented by J. B. Workman and upon his motion it was adopted:

RESOLUTION

"The Permanent Fund Investment Commission presents the following resolution:

First—We commend the faithful work of the secretary of the Permanent Fund, Dr. F. S. Townsend, and recommend his appointment for another year, asking for him the earnest cooperation in his work on the part of the pastors, District Superintendents and churches.

Second—We are glad for an increase of $26,000 to the amount subscribed, and for the addition of $18,000 to the amount of invested funds; We need yet a little over $100,000 in order that our goal of a half million be reached. We therefore urge upon the secretary and all the friends of this cause to "Carry On" until the goal has been reached.

Third—We would be glad to be able to report to the session of our Conference, that every effective member of the Conference had made a pledge to this fund, and while we recognize the fact that some of the brethren may not be able to give largely, we shall appreciate their example and leadership in the matter.

Fourth—We urge the churches which have not yet put on a vigorous campaign, to do so as early as possible during the year, and we call upon the churches not having completed their campaign, to do so at their earliest opportunity; moreover all subscribers should remember that payments need to be promptly made.

Signed ARCHIBALD MOORE, Chairman,
J. B. WORKMAN, Secretary.

JOURNAL APPROVED—On motion it was ordered that after editing by the secretary, the Journal of the Fourth Day proceedings be approved without reading.

CONCERNING THE READING OF THE APPOINTMENTS—The Bishop announced that because of the great distances some of the pastors must travel to get home, the reading of the appointments would be given on Sunday evening after the close of the Anniversary service of The Board of Temperance and Public Morals, and that a short business session be held for the reading of Report of the Committee on Resolutions, and other matters that needed to be considered before the final closing of the Conference. He then announced officially that the Conference would close on Sunday night after the reading of the appointments.

The evening session closed with the benediction by W. M. Shultz.

XI. COMMITTEE REPORTS

Resolutions concerning the Ministers Reserve Pension Fund:

1. We are deeply interested in this matter and we desire to express our grateful appreciation of the efforts of the Board of Pensions and Relief to fulfill the task assigned it by the General Conference of 1924, of investigating, preparing and presenting to the Church a Reserve Pension Plan based on contributions, accumulations and compound interest.

2. We recognize that there are deficiencies in the present plan and hope that then we plan now proposed may prove the solution of the great problem of caring for the claimants in the West Virginia Conference and all others.

3. We feel, however, that we are unable in the haste of a conference session to familiarize ourselves with all the points of this new plan so as to give it our immediate and unconditional approval. We particularly desire a clearer understanding of the way in which the old system is to be changed into the new one and of the method of providing for the Claimants under the present plan while the new plan is getting into operation. We will be very grateful for further information and light upon these matters.

4. We pledge ourselves as a conference to renewed and increased devotion to the cause of the Conference Claimants and to the building up of the Fund which may help us in the adjustment of circumstances when the new plan shall have been adopted by the Church.

ARCHIBALD MOORE,
Chairman Permanent Fund Commission

FRANK S. TOWNSEND,
Secretary Permanent Fund Commission

STATE OF THE CHURCH

Your committee on the State of the Church reports:

1. Our steadily growing membership leads us to believe that Methodism genius for evangelism is not abating. Methods of soul winning and membership recruiting change, but their spirit and fervor remain steadily the same. The Home Visitation method of soul winning is rapidly gaining in favor. It is proving its usefulness beyond reasonable doubt. It is apostolic, even Christly as a method. In 1924 it accounted with results in one city for two percent of the world-wide increase in our membership. It is the spirit of Christ, however, which gives this or any other method power to win.

2. While our ministers and lay leaders have a constructively critical attitude toward our institutions and polity, loyal devotion is everywhere apparent to them. Methodist polity gives to her ministers the largest possible liberty of thought and freedom from worry, and to her churches sure growth and development. Our polity has secured for us leadership of the highest type to be found anywhere, and to that leadership our church is loyal.

3. While several of our honored sister denominations are troubled by devastating controversy, even threatened by ruinous splits by so called Modernists and Fundamentalists, far-sighted leadership, a large degree of freedom in thought and conviction, together with a commendable spirit of tolerance, are saving our church from these evils. Union, not division, is our watchword.

4. Our conference gives promise of union with that splendid company of believers in World Service which, in moving forward, challenges the whole church to move forward. There are indications that stagnation between ebbtide and springtide is about past, and that a forward movement is beginning throughout the church.

5. Methodists have always recognized the values and obligations of citizenship. Lincoln honored our fathers for loyal support of the Union. The solid stand taken by our ministry and laity for national sobriety and honor in the prohibition of the manufacture, transportation and sale of intoxicants is well known. The leadership of our church deserves all honor for the splendid way in which we and the nation have been awakened and inspired by them in this manner. And now, when our national need is for law enforcement rather than for law enactments, we are glad to report that both our leadership and people are to be trusted—nor is ultimate victory less assured. It is cause for congratulation to the whole nation that the president of this session of the West Virginia conference is so closely connected with this cause, and we pledge him our unhesitating and enthusiastic following.

Signed,
J. E. WAGNER, Chairman.

FOREIGN MISSIONS

We, your Committee on Foreign Missions, submit the following report: First, We look with admiration upon the courageous manner in which our Board of Foreign Missions is facing the great problems of the missionary debt, and rejoice in the prospect of the early liquidation of this obligation, and we therefore urge upon the members of our Conference, that they be constantly on the alert for people of means who might be induced to help us hasten the day when the church may be relieved of this burden.

Second; We urge upon the District Superintendents and pastors the importance of keeping constantly before the people the great needs in the foreign field.

Third; We deplore the fact that doors once opened, and fields once occupied, are because of the lack of funds, now being abandoned.

Fourth; We rejoice in the word of cheer that has come to us in recent months, indicating an upward tendency in the Benevolences of the church, and we pledge ourselves as a Conference to make a determined effort to place the West Virginia Conference in the advancing column.

Signed
J. B. WORKMAN, Chairman
JOHN BEDDOW, Secretary

COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION

The action of the last General Conference in unifying the various Educational Departments and Activities of the Church is known to you all. We are glad to report that since the last session of our Conference this work of organization and unification has been completed and that this larger Board is now functioning in harmony with said action. The different departments of the Board of Education at Chicago stand ready to assist us at all times and in every possible way, and we urge our pastors to avail themselves of this proffered assistance as opportunity may afford.

STUDENT LOAN FUND

We are delighted to report to you that the Student Loan Fund has again been increased in a large way by the gifts and offerings which have come to it. This Fund is of unmeasured value to the youth of our Church in assisting them to secure the educational training for their work. We urge anew the importance of the observance of Children's Day and the Collection for this fund.

SUMMER SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Your Committee has sensed the very deep satisfaction of the Conference in the continued success of the Pittsburgh Area Summer School, of Theology, which is conducted each summer within the bounds of our own Conference at Mt. Lake Parke, Md. We congratulate those in authority upon the character of the work which has been done, and pledge our hearty cooperation and support in every possible way. We feel that the action of this Conference in requiring the attendance of fits undergraduates at this school is wise and recommend that no man be excused from such attendance except for reasons absolutely beyond his control.

THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS

We have three outstanding Theological Seminaries in our great Church, Boston, Drew, and Garrett, each of which is splendidly manned by efficient men. We earnestly urge that all men whom God has called to preach knock first at the door of one of our Theological Schools before seeking admission to this or any other Annual Conference. We believe that such preparation is essential to the highest success of the ministry.

WEST VIRGINIA WESLEYAN COLLEGE

The year 1924-25 was one of distinct progress in Wesleyan College. The number of students in all departments of the College was practically unchanged from the year before, the total enrollment being 579. Progress consisted in further strengthening the standards of scholarship, in fostering a spirit of cooperation in the student body and in the faculty, designed to promote healthy growth in numbers of students as well as in the intellectual and spiritual interests of the College.

Under the leadership of President E. Guy Cutshall, a successful campaign was carried forward to pay off the accumulated debt of the College. This accomplishment enabled the College to receive a pro-rated pledge from the Rockefeller Foundation amounting to $49,000, and with other collected pledges increased the endowment for the year by $78,000. The productive endowment now is $450,000.

A College class of 67, the largest in the history of the institution, was graduated in June. Reports this fall indicate an increase of about 25 in the Freshman Class, other classes remaining practically unchanged. This will make a like increase in the total enrollment.

We desire to express our appreciation of the administration of Dr. E. Guy Cutshall, for two years President of Wesleyan College, and wish him abundant success in his new field as President of Iliff School of Theology.

For the fifth time Dean Thos. W. Haught has been called upon to assume the duties of acting-President of West Virginia Wesleyan College. So efficiently had he managed the affairs of the institution on former occasions that when a vacancy in the office of President occurred on July 1st, on the 9th of the same month the Executive Committee designated Dean Haught as Acting-President until a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the College could be called. Under his wise leadership the College opened as usual on the 15th of September and is already well organized for the coming year and is doing effective work.

We recommend as Trustees for the term of four years the following: Revs. J. B. Workman, Roy McCuskey, Messrs. A. S. Thomas, P. J. Berry, C. W. Lynch, John Raine, James M. Scott, Olandus West, H. Roy Waugh, A. G. Hughes.

For the unexpired term of George H. Trainer, resigned, (one year) F. L. Fenton.

For the unexpired term of G. W. Atkinson, deceased, (three years) W. H. Newcomb.

For the unexpired term of D. L. Ash, deceased, (three years) D. C. Pickens.

For the unexpired term of S. P. Crummitt, deceased, (one year) R. G. Backus.

As visitors to the College, Revs. Paul L. Flanagan and J. H. Anderson.

WESLEY FOUNDATION AT WEST VIRGINIA UNIVERSITY

We wish to express our approval of the action of the Conference in assuming responsibility for that very important work, the Wesley Foundation at West Virginia University.

We recommend as Trustees of the Wesley Foundation the following:

For two years—W. E. Lowther, C. F. Anderson, D. C. Pickens, Robert A. Armstrong, W. E. Arnett, C. W. Evans.

For four years—C. E. Goodwin, W. E. Craig, G. G. Stater, L. C. Shingleton, W. E. Stone, W. T. Williamson.

For six years—Wm. M. Shultz, C. R. Havighurst, Ellis A. Yost.

We further recommend that the Director of the Wesley Foundation be the ex-officio Secretary of the Board of Trustees.

C. R. HAVIGHURST, Chairman
D. C. PICKENS, Secretary

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CHURCH SCHOOLS AND CONFERENCE RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The Committee on Church Schools and Religious Education submit the following report:

Throughout the various Districts of the West Virginia Conference during the yast Conference year there has been unusual activity in our Religious Education work. Much advancement has been made along every line. The Church Schools have been strengthened, and much has been done to encourage the local Church Schools to utilize the facilities offered for leadership training. To the Conference Board of Church School has been reported the organization of many Teacher Training Classes, and the approximate enrollment would reach more than two hundred.

Much help has been received by the Conference Board of Church Schools from the Department of the Church Schools of the General Board of Education in Chicago. Through their kindly interest Dr. Bert Edward Smith was present at the West Virginia Council of Religious Education's Convention at Huntington, and again he was sent to West Virginia to address our Conference on the subject of Religious Education. Dr. John E. Bentley of the American University of Washington, D. C., was sent by the Board to West Virginia for the West Virginia Wesleyan College Standard Cooperative Training School at Buckhannon. These representatives have done splendid work. It is also to be noted that Dr. W. S. Bovard, General Secretary of the Board of Education, visited Wheeling and made notable addresses on the subject of Religious Education.

The Conference Board of Church Schools and Religious Education is planning for larger usefulness during the coming year. Already Standard Training Schools have been arranged for Huntington and Wheeling District at the Moundsville Camp Grounds. The Board will cooperate fully with the State Council of Religious Education in a series of Standard Training Schools to be held in various centers of the Conference during the winter months. Last year three such schools were held with eminent success, and the West Virginia Wesleyan School was one of momentous interest to all Methodists of West Virginia. Next year, through the courtesy of Dean Thos. W. Haught, the school becomes part of the Summer term of Wesleyan College, and the facilities of the College have been extended the Conference Board of Church Schools for the last week of the Summer term.

Your Board of Church Schools and Religious Education wishes to call attention to the excellent progress made by the West Virginia Council of Religious Education under the direction of Dr. E. W. Halpenny, a member of this Conference. We also wish to remind the Conference that we are represented on the council of Religious Education by four members, and that the members of the Conference Board are active in carrying out the program of the Council. We recommend a vote of confidence to Dr. Halpenny, and that our Conference cooperate as fully as possible in the regular work of the Council, and especially in the program of leadership training being planned for the coming winter.

W. C. STROHMEYER, Chairman
S. C. JONES, Secretary

COMMITTEE ON RESPECTS

We, your Committee on Respects, beg to submit the following report: First; To our fellow brethren in the ministry who are going out from among us by transfer to resume their most useful ministry in other conferences, viz: C. E. Allen, E. N. Rogers, W. S. Boyd, E. B. Moore, O. D. King, E. G. Cutshall, E. P. Frye, Alfred Backus, N. C. Cochran, Amos Thornburg, G. M. Conner.

Second; That we hereby respectfully extend to our brethren in the ministry, coming to us from other conferences, viz: J. E. Wagner, J. R. Cheuvront, J. H. Anderson and Myron S. Collins, our hearty welcome and extend to them our glad hand of fellowship while among us.

Third; Resolved that we recognize with profound respect the brethren who have at this conference, been placed in the retired relation, or in any relation that takes them from the effective ranks of the ministry, and that our love and prayers go with them, and attend them through their in-auspicious ministry to its close.

Fourth; To the ministers coming to us from other churches we offer the hearty welcome of the entire membership of the Conference and trust that they may have a happy ministry with us.

R. D. HALL, Chairman
A. J. RENICK, Secretary

COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE

Submits the following: In view of the fact that our denomination was a pioneer in the field of temperance reform, early taking a bold stand against the evils of intemperance, and believing that we had no small part in the passage of the Eighteenth Amendment, and that its adequate enforcement means much to the Kingdom of God and the progress of civilization; we, as Methodists find in the present lawless conditions that confront us, with reference to enforcement, a challenge that calls for our best effort.

The Supreme Court of the United States has decided that beer is intoxicating and therefore we cannot have it under the Eighteenth Amendment. Prohibition enforcement must be obtained at whatever cost. The question to be settled is, not whether we are going to have Prohibition, but whether the sovereignty of our nation shall be maintained or destroyed, by the active minority that will not yield to the often expressed will of the American people.

Many battles have been lost by over-confidence and by under-estimating the strength of the opposing forces. The wine and "beer advocates" and "nullificationists" are arrayed against us with some thirty-six organizations, supported by the wet press, the politicians of a given type, and the unfaithful office-holders; and these are backed by millions of money. These forces are active in West Virginia now, according to press reports, circulating petitions, taking subscriptions, setting up organizations and selecting candidates for modification of the Volstead Law.

In as much as we were disappointed by the action of the recent Legislature in cutting the appropriation for Prohibition Enforcement and failing to pass the necessary legislation advocated by the Churches, Therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED, First, That we urge the re-enactment of the Law requiring the teaching of the ill effects of Alcohol and Narcotics upon the human system, to the end that a citizenry may be reared which will respect and obey the Volstead Law, and help maintain orderly Constitutional Government;

Second, That, in the Sunday Schools and Public Worship greater emphasis be placed upon the evils of intemperance, and the importance of Law enforcement;

Third, That we use our best endeavors in a strictly non-partisan way to secure the election or appointment of such men, to make, interpret, and enforce our Law, who will faithfully and effectively function as officers;

Fourth, Urge that the Department of Prohibition be retained and adequately financed.

Fifth, We request all our Pastors and Sunday School Superintendents to read this report at one preaching service and Sunday School session in each congregation the coming year.

Sixth, We appreciate the effective services rendered by Rev. O. M. Pullen, Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, and hereby express our confidence in his leadership, pledging him and the League our full and hearty cooperation.

Seventh, Heartily commend the West Virginia Anti-Saloon League, W. C. T. U., and all other contributing agencies and organizations for their untiring efforts and effective work, and we pledge them our full cooperation, moral and financial support.

Eighth, We heartily commend the Hon. W. G. Brown, State Commissioner of Prohibition, for his faithful, efficient service, in suppressing the beverage liquor traffic in our state, and every other faithful officer, whether state or national, who has given aid in prohibition enforcement.

Ninth, We were well pleased with the hearty support given the cause of Temperance by Ex-Governor Morgan, and believe that in his successor, the Hon. Howard M. Gore, we shall have the same kindly, vigorous cooperation.

J. C. BUCKLEY, Chairman
W. L. CHEUVRONT, Secretary

NEGRO EDUCATION

Your Committee on the Board of Negro Education desire to report that—in as much as the Negro education is under the control of the General Board of Education, there is no special need of particular word for it, as it is a part of the general educational work, and as such will be included in the educational report. However, there are certain special facts that need careful consideration upon the work of this part of our General Board, and should be of concern to every one of us. While the Negro problem has been until lately confined to the South, so that all our schools for the colored people were in the states south of the Mason and Dixon line; now conditions have changed, it is estimated that 200,000 negroes have migrated from the land of their birth and best adaptation, and have congregated in the great cities of the north; many of them are practically unchurched and unhomed, they are docile and tractable when properly directed, but without Christian supervision, will easily become a menace to society; this constitutes the immediate and urgent problem of our negro work.

Your Committee would recommend that this report shall be construed by the conference as a call to every preacher to set before the people the needs of the negro race, and its adoption regarded as an earnest appeal for loyal support of our great World Service problems, of which this is a part.

EPISCOPAL FUND

Whereas; the Bishop of our church are our chief pastors, and whereas; the experts of them the most strenuous and exact efficient service, and whereas we deplore the fact that some of the charges failed to raise their apportionment in full for the Episcopal Fund, and whereas that censure may rest upon none of our congregations anywhere;

We, your Committee, recommend that the congregations where the collections for the Episcopal Fund fall short of the apportionment, be carefully instructed on the office and the work of our Bishops, that the people comprising these congregations, may learn to appreciate them and their work to the extent that when the collection is taken for that part of ministerial support, it will be raised in full.

M. L. DEARIEN, Chairman
T. M. McCARTY, Secretary

PARSONAGES AND FURNITURE

Your Committee on Parsonages and Furniture submit the following report: Parsonages are essential to permanence in the ministerial work: We recommend that all charges having no home for their ministers, proceed this conference year to secure them.

We recommend that all parsonages needing repairs, be cared for in this respect by those who are given charge of such work; We commend all pastors and their wives who have taken care of their homes during the past year, and request that they do their part toward the upkeep.

We recommend that each parsonage be supplied with such furniture as may be convenient for use by the minister's family, and that said furniture receive the care necessary for its upkeep.

We recommend that a greater interest be taken in the parsonage property on the part of the Committees and Trustees.

It is the Committee's firm conviction that District homes should be provided for the District Superintendents, we realize the great expense of our superintendents in the payment of high rents, etc. We recommend that each district in its District Conference, discuss and plan for the erection of said homes.

EPWORTH LEAGUE REPORT

The officers of the Epworth League wish to call your attention to the achievements of the young people of this conference. The Epworth League, during the past year, has taken many forward steps in the advancement of League work and in training the young people to assume the responsibilities of Church Leadership.

Win-My-Chum Campaign

This feature of the League Work has proven to be of great importance in the spiritual lives of our young people. This campaign is held every year, usually, in the month of November, and during the past year every district has had a large number of Chapters observing this service. Quite a number of conversions have been reported throughout the State and the spiritual lives of the young people greatly strengthened.

Epworth Heralds

The Epworth Herald is the young people's paper. Dr. Gatz is the editor of this paper and through his capable leadership much help has been given the young people, and since they have learned that help can be gotten from this paper, a large increase in subscriptions have been noted.

Mid-Year Institute

We are glad to report that the Mid-Year Institutes have increased in number and that every district has observed these meetings, either as a district affair, or as a local chapter. Our young people have derived great benefits from the training they have received at these meetings and I am sure they have enjoyed the social gatherings. This is a great benefit to many young people who are unable to attend the General Conference Institute later in the year.

Summer Institute

We wishto report that the Ninth Annual Epworth League Institute was held at Wesleyan College, Buckhannon, West Virginia, August 3rd to 10th, 1925. There were two hundred and seventy (270) present, which was an increase over last year. Every section of the Conference was well represented and it was a grand and glorious assembly. Our faculty this year was composed of our own West Virginia talent, and no better teachers could have been found for the training of our young people. Our faculty was composed of the following:

Dr. Claude E. Goodwin, Dean, Huntington, West Virginia.

Miss Romonna Rowley, Assistant Dean of Girls, Clarksburg, West Virginia.

Rev. Thomas Zumbrunnen, Manager, Charleston, West Virginia.

I trust that each and every one will put forth a special effort to have a large representation at Institute next year that we may continue to inspire our young people to grater efforts in the Kingdom work.

Junior Leagues

Under the leadership of Miss Romanna Rowley the Junior Leagues have been carrying on a wonderful work in training our young people to become successful Senior Leaguers. We realize the importance of our Junior League Chapters and trust the pastors will make a special effort to have a Junior League chapter in his church.

District Rallys

Practically every district has had one or two rallys during the past year, which is very helpful in stimulating the interest of the young people. At periods in the year when they are inclined to drop away, and have lost interest these rallys have helped to create new interest, ideas and visions in the League Work.

General Department Work

Under the plan of the Epworth League the four departments have done some very effective and efficient work in each chapter in prompting the first department work, which is spiritual; the second department work, which is missions; the third department work, which includes social service and many phases of constructive work, and the fourth department work, which administers to the young people in the recreational and cultural part of their lives.

We wish to report that during the coming year we are anticipating a visit from Dr. Blaine E. Kirkpatrick, our General Secretary, who will cover every district in the State. We also wish to present the following aims, which we hope to attain:

Aims

1. Fifty Per Cent Morning Watch.
2. Each Chapter in District observing Win-My-Chum Week.
3. As many Junior Chapters as Senior Chapters in the District.
4. Twenty-five Per Cent Active Stewarts.
5. Mid-Year Institute in the District of the Local Chapters.
6. Fifty per cent in District and one hundred per cent in Chapters, subscribers twenty-four hour Day Leaguers.
7. A minimum of ten per cent of membership of Chapter attending Conference Institute.
8. Two Study classes in each Chapter per year.
9. Fifty per cent of families of Epworth League subscribers to Epworth Herald.
10. Booth Festival.
11. State Dues (Every Chapter paid up)—Three cents per member.
12. A field Secretary to be on the field by September, 1926.

We also wish to submit for approval by the Conference, the names of the officers and their respective duties during the coming year:

REPORT OF THE WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY TO THE WEST VIRGINIA ANNUAL CONFERENCE

September 26, 1925.

Since our own World's Meeting for Methodism held in Springfield, Mass., May, 1924, we have the following paragraph in our Methodist Book of Discipline: "There shall be an organization known as The Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, for the purpose of enlisting and organizing the efforts of Christian women and young people in behalf of all native and foreign groups, needy childhood, and community welfare throughout our Country, and to cooperate in other societies and agencies in Educational, Missionary and Deaconess work."

Within the bounds of our West Virginia Conference we have been loyally endeavoring to carry out the principles of the above paragraph.

Conference Work

(1) Minnie Nay Settlement Work: The outgrowth of the Mary Kacmar Mission for Foreign peoples of Wheeling and vicinity, located in upper Benwood, has had a steady growth and prosperous year. The new and enlarged building which was dedicated last November, has made it possible to do a greater and more far reaching work, through the direction of Miss Claribel Winchester, Superintendent, and her assistants.

(2) Engle Settlement: This institution, located in Fairmont, continues to minister to the needs for which it was established, under the direction of Miss Kinison and Miss Trumbull, in a most efficient and successful way. We are happy to announce that this building is free from debt.

(3) Scott's Run Settlement, located near Morgantown, in one of the unchurched communities, has had a most remarkable year. The Superintendent, Miss Lakey, and her assistants, have planned a large program, necessary to make that work a success. Last July fire destroyed the building in which this work was located and the complete equipment was lost. A modest settlement building here is an absolute necessity, if the work is to be continued. An appropriation of $18,000.00, which is to be raised by our own Society and which has been approved by W. H. M. S. National Trustees is to be applied for this purpose.

(4) Vacation Bible Schools of high merit have been conducted in each of these Settlements.

(5) Holloway Deaconess' Home continues its ministrations of mercy and help under the guidance of the Superintendent, Miss Reeves, and the seven Deaconesses who are with her in the Home.

The Mountain Lake Park Summer School of Missions

This school is of special importance because of its peculiar benefit to our Young Peoples' Work.

The Secretary of Supplies, Mrs. Jessie McAdam, 113 Fifteenth St., Wheeling, W. Va., has responded promptly and is always ready to meet the needs of her Department.

In addition to the work done within the W. Va. Conference our Society also reaches out to help in all parts of our great nation. In Alaska, Hawaiian Islands, Porto Rico, the Spanish speaking peoples of the Southwest, the Japanese and Chinese of the Pacific Coast, the Negroes of the Southland, the Mountaineers, the Indians at our Immigrant Stations, the Leper Colony, Carville, La., a our Foreign Peoples' Centers, National Training Schools, Hospitals and Orphanages the good work of our Society is carried on.

Mrs. Walter Furbee, Treasurer, reports all pledges paid and our total annual receipts are $33,428.35, a gain of $1,091.43.

The work accomplished has been made possible through the faithful work of 7563 members, which number includes a gain of 1341 new members. The Young People's Department reports the largest net gain of 305 new members.

We are indebted to Miss Cartez Swartz and Mrs. Collins Brock, National Field Secretaries, for their untiring work and help among us.

It is with deepest sadness we mention the death of Mrs. D. B. Street, our friend and the friend of the W. Va. Conference W. H. M. S. She always stood ready to counsel, help, sympathize and with us promote all of the interests of our splendid organization.

As we move forward into this another year's work may we keep before us these words "Not I, but Christ," praying that we may lift up Jesus Christ to these whom we call not Aliens but Friends, thus helping to make and keep America for Christ."

MRS. R. B. NAY, President
MRS. S. K. ARBUTHNOT, Secretary

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY

Throughout the year the West Virginia Conference has felt much like the old lady who said "Cheer up, the worst is yet to come." We did not see how we could sustain the loss of our former Secretary, Mrs. C. Fred Anderson, carry along the new Secretary and reach our goal, too, but the worst has come, and it could still be worse. To the enthusiasm of Mrs. F. I. Johnson and her call for prayer throughout the Conference, it due the fact that we have as much to rejoice over as we have.

Our receipts for the year are $27,377.08. Of course, last year we reached the Twenty-nine Thousand mark, but that was due to a death which caused an annuity to be paid. This year we are grateful that death has not come our way. The $27,000.00 of this year is equal to the twenty-nine thousand of last year, taking into consideration the depressed conditions financially and the labor troubles of our State. It gives us a good margin over our goal of $26,000.00, and also the consciousness that we have done our very best.

I wonder if in stating that amount we realize how much heroic effort and devotion to the cause has made it possible.

To our Conference Treasurer special mention is due for her splendid work. She is promptness and efficiency itself, and we are proud to have her as one of the band of eleven thousand treasurers of our Society who as Mrs. F. I. Johnson expresses it "has never had one Dome to blow off the Tea Pot."

We are grateful to Miss Mary I. Scott for generously assisting Mrs. Spragg, during her absence, with the work of the Wheeling District. Many of our members received new enthusiasm through the Summer School of Missions at Bethesda and Mt. Lake Park.

We are indebted to Miss Ellen Lawson, Dr. Ida Betow, Mrs. Rosetts Beck, Mrs. F. I. Johnson and Miss Alice Finley for their visits to us, their inspiring talks and enthusiasm for the work has done much to help us.

Miss Jessie Marker gave a splendid address at our Conference Anniversary, that was much appreciated.

Not only has the regular work, the special work, the hospital supplies and missionary boxes all been cared for, but also five missionaries have been supported in our conference. Those honors go to First Church, Clarksburg, for caring for Miss Bugby; to First Church, Morgantown, for Miss Williamson; to First Church, Fairmont, for Miss Burdeshaw; to Huntington District for Miss Forsythe, and to all the Conference for Miss Helm of Mexico.

To every Conference, District and Auxiliary officer we are grateful for their untiring efforts and zeal for the work and to everyone of the 5,387 members, man, woman and child, who has made our work a success we give thanks, but just in proportion to that effort and work has their Heavenly Father doubly blessed them, so to him should they give thanks for the great privilege of carrying Christ's message of salvation to "those who know Him not."

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. LEN B. HARR,
Conference Secretary.

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY OF THE WEST VIRGINIA
CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS' PERMANENT TRUST FUND
ASSOCIATION FOR CONFERENCE YEAR 1924-5

The year has been a busy one. I have not had steady assistance in the office work, though it has been necessary at times to employ a helper when I was out in the field or when there was a rush of work.

I have preached on 26 Sundays of the year and have attended 9 district or group meetings. In this part of my work I have delivered 59 sermons or formal addresses and have participated in over 50 miscellaneous services. I have travelled nearly 8000 miles. The churches visited have extended from some of the largest of the Conference to some on circuits far from railroads. I have tried to advance the interests of the Permanent Fund, to encourage payments of the annual dues for Conference Claimants and also to contribute something to the spiritual life of the churches.

The financial items of this report are corrected to the date of September 30, 1925. I present first a statement for the Districts which will show what progress has been made in well toward two years of the effort to build up the Permanent Fund.

Districts	Apportioned	Subscribed	Paid
Buckhannon	$ 56,028.00	$ 13,868.09	$ 3,517.59
Charleston	45,875.00	13,344.86	3,027.04
Elkins	39,260.00	8,693.84	2,102.56
Huntington	39,543.00	13,985.53	3,637.20
Morgantown	78,182.00	22,561.86	8,974.69
Parkersburg	59,450.00	23,385.52	6,957.87
Wheeling	81,779.00	48,694.35	15,063.20
Total	$400,117.00	$144,534.05	$43,280.15

Last year I reported 18 charges which had pledged their full Apportionment for the Permanent Fund. I regret that I cannot increase this list now and must even diminish it by one. Logan was included in the list last year by a series of very singular mistakes. In reality its contribution to the Fund bids fair to be a very small one. But considerable progress has been made in increasing the total of the subscriptions to the Fund. On September 16, 1924, the total was $117,883.11. On this date the total is 5144,534.05, which gives an increase of $26,650.94 for the Conference Year. I hoped for much more at the beginning of the year but am thankful for so much of an advance. The financial conditions have been unfavorable for such work, as the pastors know only too well.

I think, however, that during the coming year a considerable number of churches ought to give this cause generous consideration.

The cash received during the year is as follows:

Balance on October 1, 1924	$ 921.89
Subscriptions paid October 1, 1924, to September 30, 1925	20,830.55
Miscellaneous Receipts	117.73
Total	$21,870.17

Subscription Paid by note	130.00
The payments have been:
For Investment	$18,000.00
Salary	3,000.00
Travel	236.02
Office Help	134.25
Postage	129.94
Stationery and Printing	71.25
Protested Checks	29.13
Miscellaneous	7.08
Total	$21,607.67
Note Passed to Treasurer	130.00
Total Cash paid to Secretary	$21,870.17
Total Paid out	21,607.67
Balance September 30, 1925	$ 262.50

I appreciate the loyalty of many pastors to the cause and I am grateful for their personal kindness to me. But I feel that there are some in the conference who should show more interest in this matter. There are still effective members of the conference who have not yet made a personal subscription to the Fund and there are some who do not seem anxious to have a campaign on their charges. I am giving my best efforts to the cause but it is obvious that I cannot succeed in the work unless I have the loyal support of pastors and people. I plead for their sympathy and help as I pledge myself to my best efforts for the cause during the coming year.

FRANK S. TOWNSEND, Secretary.

CONFERENCE EVANGELISTS REPORTS

H. T. Heironimus

This year's evangelism has given me meetings in the states of Virginia, West Virginia, Kentucky, Iowa and Pennsylvania. Have conducted fifteen revival campaigns, in tent or church, resulting in 1200 professions of pardon, reclamation or purity.

Have travelled 10,000 miles, 3,000 during the Christmas holidays, and during the whole year have not met one drunken man—so much for prohibition. Received $1600 above travelling expenses, and aside from the support of other evangelistic helpers.

Have had a great year with the Lord, and one of the best in results. Have seen some old time cases of salvation, and believe the great need of the hour is the old time Holy Power. Revivalism and the real spiritualism of our Methodism is woefully hindered these days by Formalism, Russellism, Tongueism and Modernism. Good speed the day of a great general, mighty Wesleyan Scriptural revival of full salvation.

Your faithful servant in Christ,

H. T. HEIRONIMUS.

Sept. 23, 1925.

Edward D. Fellers

This has been a busy year in the Lord's work as an Evangelist. I have given to the Conference all the time requested.

This conference year I have held fifteen revival meetings, with right at sixteen hundred people at the altars of the church.

For this year's work the congregations have given me in thank offerings the sum of $3127.00.

EDWARD D. FELLERS,
Youngstown, Ohio

V. A. Nanna

I am glad to report that I have been busy all the past year; I helped in twelve meetings, some conversions in every meeting, and many reclaimed.

Funerals, 16; baptized adults and children, quite a number of both, and they are reported through the pastors whom I helped. I preached 109 times for the Anti-Saloon League. From all sources I have received over $1200 support. I feel that I am ready to tighten up the harness and pull into another year for victory.

V. A. NANNA,
Moundsville, W. Va.

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

We, the Committee on Resolutions, beg to submit the following report:

1. That we extend to the pastor, or esteemed brother, Dr. C. G. Stater, pastor of the First M. E. Church of Clarksburg, the Conference Church, his faithful membership, and the five associated M. E. Churches of the city and their faithful pastors and membership, our heartfelt thanks and appreciations for the fine high-hearted way in which they have received and entertained this Annual Conference.

2. The Bishop Thomas Nicholson, D.D., LL.D., S. T. D., for his brotherly and efficient presidency of the sessions of our Annual Conference, also for his helpful and inspiring devotional addresses and also for that most helpful and inspiring sermon on Sunday morning. We shall be indeed glad for a return visit of Bishop Nicholson at any time in the future.

3. We offer our thanks to all the churches of this city for their hospitality, especially to the Presbyterian brethren for the use of their church edifices.

4. We are very grateful to the press of the city and elsewhere for their very generous use of their columns and for the exceptional accuracy of their reports.

5. To C. C. O'Neill, Conference Secretary; H. E. Crowder, Statistician; Joseph Vansickls, Treasurer; Gregory Bleakley, Auditor, and their able staff of assistants, for their efficient work for the Conference.

6. To the splendid Choir of the Conference Church for the splendid and inspiring music throughout the sessions of the Conference.

7. To the various representatives of the Church Boards for their timely deliverances and also to the special speakers who brought to the Conference from time to time very interesting and instructive addresses in the interests of the Church and Christianity.

8. We extend to the faithful janitor of this Church for his courteous treatment of all persons in attendance of the Conference and for the faithful performance of the duties pertaining to his office.

We are all deeply sensitive of the many blessings of Almighty God upon us, which must inevitably lead us all to a fuller sense of obligation, duty and responsibility in the wonderful ministry to which a gracious and wise God has called us.

W. H. GILMORE, Chairman.

CONFERENCE MINUTES

We, your Committee, offer the following report:

In view of the fact that the cost of publishing Conference minutes is constantly increasing and that advertising space is difficult to sell, we urge that all pastors be prompt in paying to this fund any amount that may be recommended by the Conference.

Therefore, we recommend that each effective preacher in full connection be asked to contribute $2.50 annually to this fund, and that each Probationer and Supply in charge of a circuit or church, be required to contribute $2.00 annually to this fund.

These amounts to be payable in advance at the seat of the Annual Conference, and if not paid at this time the proportionate number of minutes to be sent to each pastor thus failing, accompanied by bill for same.

Respectfully,

F. V. ARNETT, Chairman
O. R. SNODGRASS, Secretary

VETERANS BANQUET

On Saturday evening at the Waldo Hotel a banquet was given to the veterans of the Conference by Dr. C. B. Graham. In this meeting the following resolution was offered by L. A. McNemar and adopted:

Only ministers of the Gospel and veterans of the Conference can have a full conception of the joy that this event brings to our hearts. Yet our happiness is mingled with a degree of sadness on the account of the departure of so many of our comrades in the Grand Army of the Redeemed. Since the last conference Brother D. L. Ash, who gave us the banquet one year ago; D. C. Hedrick, C. B. Meredith, W. R. Hennen, R. A. Lemaster, J. S. Wickline, S. P. Crummitt, J. S. Jenkins and J. H. Cuppett have answered the roll call above. How lonely we feel without them. Indeed, it is hard for us to become reconciled to our loss.

We, therefore, Resolve that their holy lives, God-given characters and blessed influences will ever be sacredly cherished and remembered by their brother veterans of this Conference, and that our tenderest sympathies are extended to their bereaved families and loved ones.

AUDITOR'S REPORT

To West Virginia Conference Methodist Episcopal Church

We, your Committee appointed to audit the accounts of the Conference, beg to submit the following report:

We find the financial interests of the Conference being kept in an up to date manner.

We have examined the accounts of F. S. Townsend, Secretary of the Conference Claimants Fund, and find these correct with a balance on hand September 16, 1925, of $1,102.07.

The account of Claude Goodwin of the Board of Stewards was found correct, with a balance of $477.56.

The Conference Treasurer Jos. Vansickle, submitted his account which was found correct, showing a balance of $379.27 on interest.

The missionary accounts of the District Superintendents were carefully audited and found correct.

The account of E. A. Trenor on District Superintendent Salaries, shows that the District Superintendents received $4,925.00 each on their claim of $5,000.00, leaving a balance on hand of twenty-seven cents.

Respectfully submitted,

GREGORY BLEAKLY, Chairman
IRVING S. MIDDLEAUGH, Secretary

XV. IN MEMORIAM

REV. SIMON P. CRUMMETT, D. D.

Simon P. Crummett was born March 3, 1857, in Ritchie county, Virginia (now West Virginia), and went to his coronation March 27, 1925, from Washington City, D. C. He was one of four children. His sister, Mrs. Maggie Morton, and two brothers, George F. and Martin, survive their preacher brother. The mother preceded him to Glory in April, 1924, being in her ninetieth year.

In 1882, he was married to Laura Douglass, who journeyed with him to the end of his day. To them were given two sons, Aubrey, of Charleston, W. Va., and Paul, at whose home the closing days of the father's life were spent.

Brother Crummett was converted in early manhood, but did not enter the ministry until 1887. Coming out of Morgantown University, he was better prepared than most candidates of that day. He rose rapidly in his grade of appointments; from a country circuit with $147 salary for the first year to city churches and district work he won his way. He was consecrated as deacon in 1889 at Point Pleasant, W. Va., by Bishop Isaac W. Joyce, and as alder at Fourth Street Church, Wheeling, in 1891, by Bishop H. W. Warren.

He early identified himself with all the activities of the Church and Conference. Few if any of our number have taken a greater interest than he in the school at Buckhannon. For a quarter of a century his name has appeared in the list of trustees. For four years he was with the Anti-Saloon League work in the state and contributed greatly to the victory of putting West Virginia in the column of dry states long before the Eighteenth Amendment was passed. For years he served on the various Boards of the Conference. At the last Conference time he was named as chairman of the Board of Examiners. The West Virginia Wesleyan College conferred on him the degree of doctor of divinity which he justified by the ability of a well ordered, effective ministry. He was a member of the General Conference of 1904.

The following shows the path to conquest: Volcano charge, Elizabeth, West Union, Belleville, Guyandotte, Kingwood, Wesley Church, Wheeling, Buckhannon district, Parkersburg district, Terra Alta, four years in temperance work, Middlebourne, West Union, Lawrence Church, Charleston, Zane Street, Wheeling. On his assignment to Wheeling, he seemed in his usual robust health, but soon after moving he became unable to work and after some weeks was taken to his son Paul's home in Washington, D. C., where he gradually slipped out from among us.

The funeral was held from Lawrence Church, Charleston, Sunday, March 29, at 2:30 p. m. Daniel Westfall, in charge, was assisted by the pastor, T. M. Zumbrunnen, C. R. Havighurst of First Church, Charleston; C. B. Graham and President Elmer Guy Cutshall of West Virginia Wesleyan College. His resting place is in the capital city of his state. To the wife, his widow, and immediate family, his large circle of friends extend their prayers and sympathies. One of our most stalwart men has fallen, but we shall find him in the morning.

REV. DAVID L. ASH, D. D.

The Rev. David L. Ash was born in Harrison county, near Clarksburg, W. Va., October 21, 1855, and departed this life at Huntington, February 9, 1925. He seemed to be coming to a beautiful and healthy old age, when a fatal disease took him and carried him away. He leaves to mourn his loss, his wife, who was formerly Miss Dora B. Hammond, of Moundsville; a daughter, Mrs. M. P. Wiswell, of Huntington; two sisters, Mrs. Louisa Swiger and Mrs. Martha Allen, of Clarksburg, and a brother, P. W. Ash, of Penn Run, Pa.

Doctor Ash united with the Church quite early in his life, and in 1878, at the age of twenty-three, began his work as a preacher in the Methodist Episcopal Church, where he served for more than forty years. During these years he was the pastor of some of the important churches of the West Virginia Conference, among which were: First Church, Moundsville; First Church, Huntington; New Martinsville, and Williamstown. He also served Wilsonburg, Marshall, Fulton, Bridgeport, Grantsville, Pruntytown, Weston, Wesley Church, Wheeling and Sistersville. He served two terms as district superintendent—on Morgantown and Clarksburg districts. He took high rank in the councils of the Church. He served on important committees and commissions and was a delegate to one session of the General Conference. He graced the Board of Trustees of Allegheny College for a period of years, and the Board of our own Wesleyan College for twenty-five years, which place he held at the time of his death. In 1898-1899 he was secretary of the Conference.

Doctor Ash retired from the active ministry about five years ago and came to Huntington to make his home. He became a member of the quarterly conference of First Church, which he had served as pastor in the other day. His relation to the church was most beautiful and helpful. He rendered the pastor a most helpful service. The membership of the church loved him. He was ready at all times to serve as teacher in the Sunday School or the leader of prayer meeting. The last sermon preached by him was on the occasion of the Home-Coming event of First Church, last November.

Doctor Ash never seemed to grow old. His outlook upon life was that of a young man. As he went in and out among us he impressed us all with the genuineness of his Christian experience and as he lay upon his couch with the crossing of the river just a few hours away, he expressed a clear hope of the immortal life with God, and seemed to say with Browning:

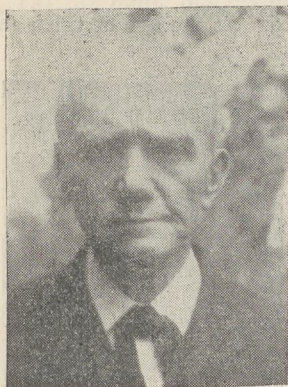

"I go to prove my soul;
I see my way as birds their trackless way.
I shall rise! What time, what circuit first
I ask not; but unless God sends his hail
Or blinding fire balls, sleet or stifling snow,
In good time, His good time, I shall arrive.
He guides me and the bird in His good time."

Funeral services were conducted in the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Huntington, by the pastor, who was assisted by several Methodist ministers of the city and some visiting brethren of the Conference.

REV. C. E. GOODWIN, D. D.

REV. J. S. WICKLINE

Another of the pioneer preachers in the mountains of Virginia and West Virginia has dismounted his horse, laid aside his saddlebags, and sailed away in God's chariot to occupy his appointment in the Church Triumphant.

The Rev. J. S. Wickline was born August 10, 1843, and passed on to his reward April 26, 1925, at the ripe age of almost eighty-one years. On December 15, 1870, he was married to Miss Sarah C. Whiting. This happy union continued for more than fifty-four years.

In the days of '61 to '65, Brother Wickline served as a soldier in the Confederate army, was captured and spent some time in a Federal prison in New York. He had become a Christian and a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church in early life and during his war days was known by his comrades as a faithful Christian worker.

In 1866, at the age of twenty-three, he was licensed to preach. The following year he was appointed by the presiding elder to the Fincastle circuit in the Baltimore Conference. In March, 1868, he was received in to the Conference on trial and appointed to the Highland circuit, where he served for two years. The Virginia Conference, having been formed, met in Richmond, Va., March 2, 1870. At this Conference Brother Wickline was ordained deacon and elder under the Missionary Rule, and was appointed to the Monroe circuit. He then served the following charges: 1871-74, Greenbrier circuit; 1874-76, Lewisburg circuit; 1876-78, Pocahontas circuit; 1878-82, presiding elder of Rockingham district, the name of the district being changed to Greenbrier during his term; 1882-83, Edray circuit; 1883-86, Leesburg and Hillsboro; 1886-90, Falls Church; 1890-91, again at Hillsboro. In 1891 he was transferred to the Wilmington Conference and served there as follows: 1891-84, Nassau; 1894-95, Bridgeville; 1895-99, Frankford; 1899-1901, Denton. In 1901, he took the supernumerary relation and later the retired relation. He was transferred to the West Virginia Conference in 1908, was made effective in 1910 and appointed to Denmar, where he served for seven years, retiring in 1918. He was a member of the General Conference of 1880.

During his years of retirement, he did much preaching, using every opportunity and readily responding to every call for help from ministers of all denominations. Truly one of God's heroes has fallen. Fallen? No, no, risen upon the wings of a victorious faith to take up once again an active relation under the Great Bishop of Souls.

Funeral services were held near Renick, Greenbrier county, W. Va., in which vicinity he had spent his last years on earth in happy fellowship with his faithful and now widowed wife. The Rev. J. D. Pope, an honored minister in the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and a nephew by marriage to Brother Wickline, conducted the service and preached the funeral sermon from Psalm 37:37. He was assisted by the Rev. Nelson S. Hill, pastor at Edray.

"Servant of God, well done."

REV. J. E. WELLS, D. D.

REV. RICHARD A. LE MASTER, Ph.D.

Richard A. Le Master was born in Xenia, Ohio, June 25, 1841, and died in Charleston, W. Va., May 2, 1925. At the age of thirteen years he was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. He was educated at the Ohio Wesleyan University, and later received the degree of Ph.D. from Illinois Wesleyan University.

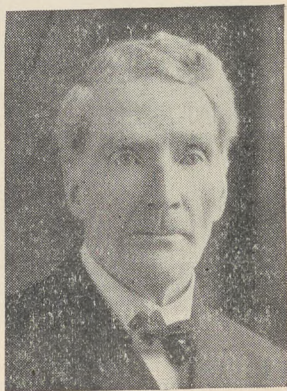

In 1967 he was received into the Indiana Conference. His first presiding elder, the Rev. James Lathrop, is still living at Greensboro, Ind., at the ripe old age of ninety-nine years. Later he transferred to the Ohio Conference where he served many pastorates for more than twenty-five years. He spent some time teaching in our Southern school. In later years he became a member of the West Virginia Conference, and spent his last days in retirement at Charleston.

The children surviving him are: Grace D. and Daisy B. Le Master, both teachers in the Charleston public schools, and Erle A. Le Master, of Chicago.

Doctor Le Master was a great student and thorough theologian. He had unflinching hold on the everlasting verities of the universe.

The funeral services were held in First Church, Charleston, and were conducted by the writer, assisted by the Revs. W. B. King, T. M. Zumbrunnen and N. L. Casey.

C. R. HAVIGHURST, D. D.

REV. DANIEL CLARK HEDRICK

Rev. Daniel Clark Hedrick was born July 26, 1846, at Fort Spring, W. Va., and departed for his coronation at Buckhannon, this state, on October 31, 1924, being 78 years, three months and seven days of age. He leaves to mourn their loss (not his loss; his is gain) a wife, one sister, Mrs. Ruth Irwin, of Fairfax, Mo., a number of nephews and nieces and a host of friends. He was married to Miss Mary M. Donnally on May 16, 1878, and for more than forty-six years were so perfectly devoted to each other all these years, that life apart will seem exceedingly strange. For more than forty years he watched over and cared for his delicate wife as a tender mother would care for a helpless babe; but, for the latter part of their many years, it seemed that the Lord must have added what seems to be almost supernatural strength to her delicate body, as his former robust strength waned, that she might care for him in his declining years, upon whom he was so dependent as he sauntered towards the Western sunset so quietly and unexpectedly that the end came in much the same way as they had lived—when they two were alone in the hospital room, thus enabling her to do the very last acts of tenderness, gently closing the earthly windows as he marched out of the house to enter the new home of the soul. When asked a few moments before passing, by her who had been his life-long companion, if he wanted anything, he replied with emphasis: "I want you!" His next words were spoken to those who awaited him on the other side—awaiting him to bid him welcome into the city of God. The writer of these few words thinks he can see him in his imagination, as he goes up and down those gold-paved streets with the blood-washed throng greeting the vast number of his loved ones who have preceded him—of course, having met his Saviour first of all, who welcomed him into that fair land. Brother Hedrick gave his heart to God while yet in his teens; was licensed to preach in Topeka, Kansas; he joined the Virginia Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church in 1876, and began his pastorates on one of the smallest charges of the Conference, where he was met by bitter antagonism; but, like many other pioneers, he faced his foes in the spirit of the Christ and won his way to among the best charges of his Conference; serving a full term in the presiding eldership, as it was then called. When the Virginia Conference was dissolved and added to adjoining Conferences, he went to the West Virginia Conference with his section in which he then lived. On account of failing health, he was under the painful necessity of retiring many years before his death. But he was always found in the services of his local church, as long as he was able to attend, being especially active in the class meeting. This writer received his first appointment under this man of God as did many other young ministers in whom he always interested himself. He became a spiritual father to several young men who entered the ministry under his leadership.

WILLIAM M. DYE.

C. B. MEREDITH

Reverend Clinton Buckner Meredith, one of the veterans of the West Virginia Conference, "Fell Asleep in Jesus," January 14, 1925, at his home in Morgantown, West Virginia.

He was born at Fairmont, West Virginia, September 6, 1850, and was united in marriage to Marion Maxwell, of Harrison county, who, with the following twelve children, survives him: A. W. and C. C., of Fairmont; Mrs. C. L. Corder, of Elkins; Mrs. H. B. Squires, of Morgantown; Mrs. F. P. Albright, of Valparaiso, Ind.; W. A., of Shinnston; S. S., of Kingwood; M. B., at home; C. E., of Salem; Mrs. S. H. White, of Kingwood; Kate and Cora, at home. He is also survived by four brothers and one sister: Judge W. S. Meredith and the Reverend T.

G. Meredith, of Fairmont; Wait Meredith, of Parkersburg; Melvin C. Meredith, of Pittsburgh, and Mrs. Frances M. Davis, of Clarksburg.

He joined the Conference at Huntington in 1880, and for forty-four years he travelled through the valleys and over the hills and mountains of this state, giving his whole time, strength and energy to the winning of souls and building up the Master's kingdom.

He was a strong and vigorous man, and his zeal for the Church knew no bounds. Dark nights, muddy roads and great distances were no hindrance in his warfare for righteousness. When his physical strength was declining, his zeal for souls and his devotion to God and the church were really increasing, and his retirement from pastoral service was a source of real grief to him. He was truly a gospel preacher of great power, and his sons and daughters in the Lord are numbered by the thousands. His field of labor extended from the Ohio Valley to the top of the Alleghenies, and wherever he has gone, there yet remain a multitude of friends who sacredly cherish his memory. And when he was stricken down he was on his way to a former charge to preach the funeral of an old friend. So he departed in the service of the blessed Master.

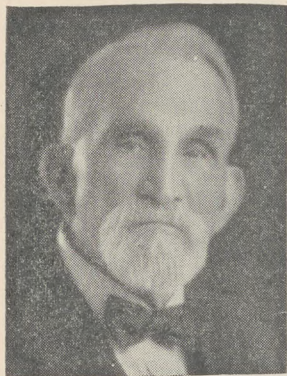

Funeral services were held in the First Church, Morgantown, with ten of his brother ministers present. Appropriate eulogies were given by the Rev. W. M. Shultz, Superintendent of Morgantown District; Dr. O. D. King, of Kingwood, and the pastor of the church, Dr. W. E. Lowther, after which, his body was borne to its last resting place in Woodlawn Cemetery, Fairmont.

L. A. McNEMAR.

REV. J. S. JENKINS

Rév. J. S. Jenkins, born May 1, 1835—Died July 6, 1925.

He was born in Appomatox County, Virginia, the son of Thomas and Martha B. Jenkins. He was seven years old when the family moved to West Virginia. He was educated in the local schools, and later at Gallipolis, Ohio, where he was under the instruction of Prof. Siears for three years. In 1859 he became a minister in the Methodist Episcopal Church. He spent his ministry in Kentucky and West Virginia. His first marriage was to Sarah A. Humphreys, who died in 1887; after several years he married Mrs. Mary Morgan who died in 1906, and he later married Mrs. Emily C. Guthrie, who died in 1921.

Rev. Jenkins was a faithful and loyal minister of Christ. The last years of his life were spent in retirement in the home of his piece, Mrs. Phil A. Stalnaker, of Charleston, W. Va.

He leaves one son, George Jenkins, of Ashland, Kentucky, and a host of relatives and friends. He was widely and favorably known.

He held his Quarterly Conference relation with the Central Methodist Episcopal Church in Charleston, where he was loved and honored by all. He was a benediction to the people as he sat inside of the altar of the church Sunday mornings, so that he might hear at least some of the sermon, for he had been quite deaf for several years. He made frequent visits to the parsonage, and his conversation was always about Heaven, and the Glory of the Good Life just Beyond. He died pronouncing the benediction upon an imaginary congregation, and his sun went down like the Morning star, to meet the Glory of a New Day.

His funeral was held in the Central church, which was entirely filled with sympathetic friends who loved him in life and honored him in death; the service was in charge of his pastor, Wm. B. King, assisted by Rev. C. R. Havighurst, pastor of First Church; Reverends C. B. Graham and J. M. Grose, retired ministers of the conference, and Rev. Pat B. Withrow, General Superintendent of the Union Mission.

A good minister of Jesus Christ has gone from Labor to Reward, and the great good that he has done will go on for all time, passing on through the lives he has touched in his faithful ministry.

WILLIAM B. KING.

REV. W. R. HENNEN

The Rev. W. R. Hennen was born April 18, 1851, at Jollytown, Greene county Pa., and died April 21, 1925.

He was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church at thirteen years of age. He was married August 24, 1871, to Martha E. Wise, of Wadestown, W. Va. To this union were born seven children, five of whom are still living.

He joined the West Virginia Conference in October, 1882, and served many pastorates in the Conference. While travelling the East Buckhannon circuit, he suffered a nervous breakdown and retired, but in time he regained his strength somewhat and supplied several small charges.

He attended the revival at Central Church, Charleston, in February and March and did some special work. He frequently opened the services in the men's Bible class with prayer. He was highly respected and always useful.

The founeral services were held in Central Church and were in charge of the writer, assisted by District Superintendent E. J. Westfall, Pat. Withrow, T. M. Zumbrunnen, Arthur Lazenby, J. M. Grose and A. S. Wolfe. He was buried in Spring Hill Cemetery, Charleston.

"Servant of God, well done!
Thy glorious warfare's past;
The battle's fought, the race is won,
And thou art crowned at last."

REV. W. B. KING.

MINISTERS WIVES

MRS. C. D. JOHNSON

Mrs. Emma L. Steyer Johnson, daughter of John Steyer, of Steyer, Maryland, and wife of Clark D. Johnson, was born near Morgantown, West Virginia; was a resident of Maryland during early life. She was converted at the early age of nine and has been a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church since that time.

She had an unusual Christian experience, and because of that fact, she has been able to win many souls for Christ.

United in marriage to Clark D. Johnson May 1, 1922; departed this life December 1, 1924; age 40 years, 3 months, 21 days.

She made many friends along life's pathway.

MRS. MELISSA PEARLE SLEETH

Melissa Pearle (Kirkpatrick) Sleeth was born in Wetzel county, W. Va., April 18, 1889, and departed this life August 28, 1925, following an operation for appendicitis in the Ohio Valley Hospital, Wheeling.

She was converted at eleven years of age at Peniel, W. Va., and united with the Methodist Episcopal church and remained a loyal member until called to join the Church Triumphant.

She was united in marriage with Rev. John C. Sleeth, June 20, 1909, to which union was born six children, who, with the husband, are broken hearted at her going.

Mrs. Sleeth was possessed of a very winning personality and made friends readily wherever their work was. She was a home-maker in the finest sense of the term, tho the last five years of her life were ones of suffering, yet she was patient to the end.

Funeral services were conducted from Pleasant Hill church at Sherrard by Dr. H. C. Howard, Superintendent of Wheeling District, assisted by several pastors of Wheeling and Moundsville.

The body was laid to rest in the "silent city" by loving hands, there to await the final appointment of the Great Bishop of our souls.

After the delegates were seated by districts a collection was taken up for the defraying of expenses connected with this conference, including cost of credential blanks and printing of minutes with the minutes of the annual conference. This collection amounted to $76.00.

It appearing that a quorum of duly accredited delegates and reserves was present, the conference board formed a temporary organization by electing J. M. Jacobs, of Fairmont, temporary chairman, and Roy Reger, of Charleston, temporary secretary. On motion the temporary organization was made permanent.

It was ordered, on motion, that any elected delegate or reserve who was present, and whose credentials had not been sent in nor delivered to him, should be seated as such delegate or reserve, provided no other duly elected representative from his charge was present with regular credentials.

Dr. C. R. Havighurst, of Charleston, representing the annual conference, presented an invitation to all lay delegates to attend an executive session of the annual conference set for 1:30 P. M. this day, for the purpose of considering the proposed consolidation of West Virginia Wesleyan and Morris Harvey colleges, and removal of same to Charleston.

A motion was made to approve the amendment to the constitution submitted by the General Conference providing for lay representation in the annual conferences. After discussion of the proposed amendment by several members of the conference, the motion was carried by a unanimous favorable vote of one hundred sixty (160).

The question of unification with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, coming before the conference for consideration, a motion to approve such unification on the plan proposed by the General Conference was carried by a unanimous favorable vote of one hundred sixty-one (161).

A motion was made and carried that this conference go on record as being opposed to any change in the Volstead law which would in any way weaken such law.

A further motion was made and carried that this conference shall also go on record as urging that greater care be exercised in the election of law-making and law-enforcing officers, so that only those in sympathy with prohibition shall be elected, and pledging the members of the conference to give the strongest possible support to all officers in their efforts to enforce the prohibition, as well as all other laws.

On motion A. S. Thomas of Charleston, U. G. Young of Buckhannon, and M. L. Tustin of Wheeling, were appointed a committee to draft suitable resolutions expressing the sense of the two preceding motions, with instructions to report such resolutions at the afternoon session.

On motion the conference adjourned to meet again after the adjournment of the executive session of the annual conference.

Afternoon Session

The conference re-convened at 5:30 P. M., pursuant to adjournment of the morning session.

The committee on resolutions presented the following resolutions, which were adopted:

Resolved: First; That this lay electoral conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church go on record as emphatically endorsing our prohibition laws and their vigorous enforcement, and we pledge to the officers of the law our most loyal support in the enforcement not only of the prohibition laws, but of all criminal laws.

Second: That we oppose most vigorously any change in the Volstead law which will permit the manufacture or sale of light wines and beer, and that our representatives in Congress be requested and urged to use their influence and to vote against any amendment to said law that will permit the use of light wines and beer.

A. S. THOMAS,
U. G. YOUNG,
M. L. TUSTIN,
Committee.

It was ordered, on motion, that copies of these resolutions be sent to all United States senators and representatives from this state. On motion, the conference adjourned.

ROY REGER, Secretary.

At the request of the Secretary, the following memorials were prepared, and in accordance with usual custom are printed in connection with the above minutes of the Lay Electoral Conference:

GEORGE WESLEY ATKINSON

By Wm. Burdette Mathews

A boy was born in the country, on Elk river, five miles from Charleston, with no greater advantages than other country boys, but he was so obsessed with the idea of Christian higher education, and so persistent in it, that he acquired in course the degrees of A.B., A.M., Ph.D. and LL.B., and the honorary degrees of LL.D. and D.C.L., attained membership on the Boards of Trustees of Howard University, Ohio Wesleyan University and West Virginia Wesleyan College, and aided financially, in large measure, these and other institutions of higher learning.

That boy was George Wesley Atkinson, who was born June 29, 1845. As indicated by his name, his parents were Methodists, and he attended that church and its Sunday Schools and regular prayer service from early boyhood, and was intensely loyal to the same throughout his long life, of nearly 80 years. It was not until he went to the Ohio Wesleyan University as a student, however, that he was converted. He joined the Methodist Episcopal Church at Charleston in 1866.

After returning from College, the Quarterly Conference of old Asbury Chapel, the predecessor of State Street Church, Charleston, voted him a license as a local preacher, and for many years he exhorted, preached and lectured on temperance and religion. He was appointed a member of the Board of Trustees of State Street Church, on March 3, 1870, and served in that office for a period of fifty-five years, although he transferred his membership to Fourth Street Church, Wheeling, when he removed to that city in the spring of 1876, where it remained for twenty years. While connected with the latter church, he was the teacher of a Bible Class for fifteen years, and the Superintendent of the Sunday School five years. During a long residence in Washington, he regularly attended Foundry Methodist Episcopal Church.

His activity in the church of his choice, and his consistent Christian life, were such that he had wide influence in her councils, being secretary of the lay electoral conference in 1872 and 1876, and chairman in 1883. He twice was a delegate to the General Conference in 1876 and 1888. In early life he compiled and published a volume of sermons by ministers of the West Virginia Conference.

Throughout his life, he liberally supported all the benevolent enterprises of the church, and for many years had contributed more than a tithe of his income for Christian purposes. His greatest regret was that after his active life his continued illness lessened his personal participation in church work for as he once said, "I am now a superannuate in everything, but I am keeping the faith." Yet he always was in his accustomed place, and attended and participated in the prayer meeting held three days before his death.

Mr. Atkinson's early ambition was the profession of the law. He was admitted to the bar in 1875, but later rounded out his legal preparation by taking the prescribed course at Howard University Law School, from which institution he received the degree of LL.B.

He also received the honorary degree of LL.D. from five different institutions of learning. His early practice gave promise of great success, but he soon became interested in public affairs, for which he was particularly adapted. He was a most effective campaign speaker. When only sixteen he acted as Deputy Sheriff of Kanawha County, under his father, who was sheriff. At seventeen, he became a clerk in the Quartermaster's Department, at Charleston. From 1869 to 1871 he was a member of the Board of Education and Postmaster of Charleston from 1870 to 1876. From 1876 to 1880 he was an U. S. Internal Revenue Agent. In 1881 he was appointed U. S. Marshal for the District of West Virginia, and served a full term of four years. In 1888, he was elected to the Fifty-first Congress from the First District, and ably served one term in that office. As Governor of the State from 1897 to 1901, he showed marked ability, and was one of the most popular executives who ever held that high office. Shortly after the expiration of his term, Governor Atkinson was appointed U. S. District Attorney for the Southern District of West Virginia, which position he resigned, upon his appointment on April 15, 1905, as a Justice of the U. S. Court of Claims. His many written opinions on that tribunal, attest his judicial temperament and acumen. After eleven years of service, he voluntarily retired from the bench on April 17, 1916. Thus, Judge Atkinson long served the people in all three departments of the government, legislative, executive and judicial, not only without a breath of scandal, but with the highest honor to himself; satisfaction to his constituents, and pride to his hosts of personal friends. At one time it was said that he could call more people of the State by name than any other man, either in public or private life.

Judge Atkinson was particularly interested in Masonry, and held numerous positions of trust in that fraternity.

In early life he was a newspaper and editorial writer, and was the author of ten books, including a volume of poems. He always was a close student of letters, men and affairs, and was endowed with a practical philosophy of life that made for high ideals and enduring success. Long will live the good influence of this upstanding and outstanding sturdy American, whom thousands of his fellow men followed and loved. On April 4, 1925, in the fulness of labors and honors and years, he entered the Life More Abundant.

HON. GEORGE COOKMAN STURGISS

Hon. George Cookman Sturgiss, who departed this life on February 26, 1925, had a long useful and distinguished career. He was born at Poland, Ohio, August 16, 1842, the son of Rev. Alfred Gallatin Sturgiss. He became a resident of Morgantown, Va., in 1859 and spent the remainder of his long and active life in that place. He attended the Monongalia Academy under the instruction of Rev. J. R. Moore; studied law in the office of the Hon. W. T. Willey, a college classmate of his father; was admitted to the bar in 1863, and was connected with the courts of West Virginia as judge or attorney for over sixty years.

Mr. Sturgiss had a useful and distinguished public career in business, in state, in school and in the church. He was county superintendent of schools of Monongalia county for two terms, and was connected with the governing board of the State University during many years of its growth and development. County attorney for eight years, member of the state legislature for three terms, U. S. attorney of West Virginia four years, a member of the Sixtieth and Sixty-first Congresses, Judge of the Circuit Court of the 23rd Judicial Circuit, serving eight years, till 1920.

Mr. Sturgiss was associated through the years with many movements for the upbuilding of Morgantown. Indeed there have been few enterprises for bettering the material, civic, educational or religious conditions of the town in a third of a century, that have not found in him a generous and enthusiastic leader and supporter.

He was twice married: to Sabra J. Vance in 1863, and to Charlotte C. Kent in 1908. To this latter union were born three daughters, Helen, Roberta, and Elizabeth.

All his life Judge Sturgiss was a prominent member of the M. E. Church, and died a member of the First Church, Morgantown. He was always active in the affairs of the church, being a steward of a trustee for half a century. He was a lay delegate to the General Conference in 1896, a trustee of the American University at Washington and of West Virginia Wesleyan at Buckhannon.

A career so varied and aggressive could not fail to excite antagonisms, but time always softens such asperities and there remain only the memories of the finer qualities and nobler work—and of these there is a rich heritage from the life of George Cookman Sturgiss.

Mt. LAKE CAMP MEETING

MOUNTAIN LAKE PARK, MD.

July 1-11, 1926

Mountain Lake Park Holiness Camp Meeting is the great event of the Season. It is growing better and larger each year. Overflow Crowds, Conversions and Sanctifications were common last year. Next year will be better.

ENTERTAINMENT

The Association has arranged to room and board 50-100 preachers to be selected from Maryland, Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia, free of cost during their stay for the Camp Meeting. Applications should reach us early. Send requests to Daniel Westfall.

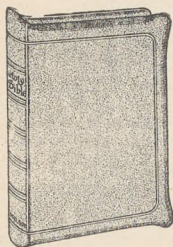

SPEAKERS and WORKERS

To name our staff for 1926 is to assure a strong program. The workers are: Dr. John Owens, Dr. John Paul, Dr. C. M. Dunaway, "Andy" Dolbow, Rev. W. H. Orlip and Minnie Shay. Kenneth and Mrs. Wells will lead the singing.

Address C. M. Hood, President, Moundsville, W. Va., or Daniel Westfall, Secretary, 524 Penn Ave., Pittsburgh, Pa.

Bishop McDowell calls it the "Most Satisfactory Version"

"I do not hesitate to say that I regard it (the American Standard Version of the Bible) as altogether the most satisfactory version of the scriptures in existence."

THE CHURCH'S PROGRAM FOR YOUNG PEOPLE

By HERBERT CARLETON MAYER
Head of the Department of Secondary Education and Young People's Work
Boston University

A much needed book in religious education that offers a scientific study of adolescent leadership programs. "Prof. Mayer is contributing an academic voice to Young People's work. With a rich background of field experience he interprets the principles of adolescent religious education and its methodology with practical understanding. His book will be a valuable text for academic instruction and a manual of insight into the problems of the Young People's Superintendent and Teacher. The use of this book will mean much in the intelligent standardization of adolescent religious education."—John L. Alexander, Director, American Youth Foundation.

A CURRICULUM OF WORSHIP FOR THE JUNIOR CHURCH SCHOOL

By EDNA M. CRANDALL
With an introduction by LUTHER A. WEIGLE

A book of delightful and suggestive programs that have stood the test of repeated use and solve the church school's most difficult problems. "I have read A Curriculum of Worship for the Junior Church School with keen pleasure. The carefulness of the preparation, the reverence on the author's part, and the solidity of the materials all make their strong appeal. To me the most distinguishing feature and the most valuable for Juniors is the presentation of memory materials from the Bible. Those who carry out these programs will see with enjoyment the personal and reverent participation of the Juniors."—Rev. Gerrit Verkuyl, Board of Christian Education of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.

THE MOODY BIBLE INSTITUTE OF CHICAGO

REV. JAMES M. GRAY, D. D., President

D. L. Moody in 1886

TRAINING FREE

The object of the Institute is expressed in the services rendered by its students in all parts of the world, who are pastors, pastors' assistants, evangelists, missionaries, teachers, directors of religious education, gospel singers, Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. secretaries, rescue mission superintendents, deaconesses and workers in Sunday schools and boys' and girls' clubs.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT

This is divided into a Day School, Evening School and Correspondence School. The General Course of the Day School is covered in two years. Its enrollment last year was 1160. Five other courses are Missionary, Pastors, Religious Education, Jewish Missions and Swedish-English. Advanced work is taken in these courses covering longer periods of time.

The Evening School permits students to take work equivalent to the Day School, making them eligible to the same diploma, though it necessarily covers a longer period of time. A shorter course is possible, however, leading to a certificate. The enrollment last year was 1089.

The Correspondence School is for those who cannot attend the Institute in person. Ten courses are offered covering different methods of Bible Study, Practical Christian Work, Evangelism, Christian Evidences, Fundamentals of the Faith and Missions. The last two have been added recently. For these a limited fee is charged. The enrollment last year was 2,674, which made a total active membership of 9,807.

EXTENSION DEPARTMENT

This supplies Bible Teachers, Evangelists and Gospel Singers for Church and Mission work, and also conducts Bible conferences, music classes and evangelistic meetings wherever called for.

MOODY BIBLE INSTITUTE MONTHLY

This is a periodical devoted to Bible knowledge and interpretation; news and methods of world-wide Christian work; editorial comment on current events and conditions; inspirational verse and selected miscellany. It is catholic in spirit and outlook; evangelical and evangelistic. Issued monthly, $2.00 a year, to any address. Rev. James M. Gray, D. D., editor.

Catalog of the Day and Evening Schools, and Prospectus of the Correspondence School mailed free. Sample copies of the Monthly mailed free. Address

.... How One Brotherhood Served

THE BROTHERHOOD Organization of the First Evangelical Lutheran Church, Ottumwa, Iowa, has a record of accomplishment that should prove an inspiration to similar organizations in other churches. This Brotherhood undertook the raising of funds for a set of Deagan Tower Chimes about which the Pastor, Rev. P. O. Bersell, wrote us as follows:

First Evangelical Lutheran Church,
Ottumwa, Iowa

"In raising funds the easiest task we had was to gather money for the Chimes. The Brotherhood organization undertook this work and in a very short time they gathered so much for this purpose that there was enough left over to decorate the church auditorium very beautifully. I have never seen men enthuse so spontaneously over any project before.

We play the Chimes at noon each day for fifteen minutes and also at six o'clock Saturday night. On Sundays and festival days they are played for fifteen minutes before each service. At funerals the low E tone is tolled slowly as the cortege is approaching and departing from the church. The tone is deeper, sweeter, and more mellow than that of any bell I have heard.

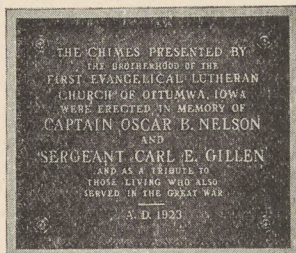

All are delighted with our new church, but that which is most commented upon is the set of Deagan Tower Chimes. They have captivated the entire congregation just as, during the last six months, they have won a place in the very life of this community of 25,000 people, so that they are already considered a valuable community asset.

In the impressive ritual of our Lutheran Church we also use the Chimes. When the congregation reads the Lord's prayer in unison the Chimes are tolled by the organist for each of the seven petitions. This is a revival of the beautiful old-country custom to give the sick and the shut-ins of the parish an opportunity to join simultaneously in the prayers of the assembled congregation. Our services close with the singing of the three-fold Amen by the congregation after the benediction. The congregation then stands in silent prayer, while the notes of the three-fold Amen are echoed on the Chimes. It is exceedingly impressive and reverent.

If our congregation were offered double the amount of money paid for the chimes, and they could not be replaced, I am very confident that by a large majority, such an offer would be turned down."

When building or remodeling your church make sure that belfry is correctly designed. Let us cooperate with you in this important matter so that when chimes are offered as a memorial they can be readily and satisfactorily installed.

Standard Sets $6,000 and up.

A WORD OF EXPLANATION

To meet the Disciplinary requirements on Publication of the Conference Minutes, the Secretary has tried to conform to the Plan Adopted at the last General Conference, as shown in paragraph 567 of the 1924 Discipline. This has caused some rearrangement in the Conference Minutes of this year.

We trust that the Brethren will pardon the secretary for this change in the make-up of the minutes—and will carefully consult the Table of Contents and the Index where each item will be found in its proper place.

TRANSFERS ANNOUNCED—Bishop McConnell announced the transfer of Dr. Homer E. Wark, President of West Virginia Wesleyan College, from the Vermont Conference to the West Virginia Conference.

RESOLUTION CONCERNING ADMISSION TO THE WEST VIRGINIA CONFERENCE—J. B. Workman presented a resolution setting forth certain educational requirements for admission into the West Virginia Conference. An amendment concerning the age limit was offered by J. E. Wagner and by vote of the Conference the following amended resolution was adopted:

Resolution from the Conference Board of Examiners.

The Conference Board of Examiners, as no other body, comes face to face with the literary qualifications and mental habits of the men who from time to time are being recommended for membership in the Annual Conference; and we are anxious, as is also our great Church, to help every man who is now in the Conference Course of Study.

Summer Schools of Theology have been organized and are being maintained throughout the Church for the help and benefit of the men who are taking the course of study required by our discipline, and through the generosity of our laymen and others, much of the expense of such schools has been provided for, so that with a minimum of expenditure our men can have the benefits of the School of Theology held at Mt. Lake Park each summer for the men who are in the course of study of the Pittsburgh area.

Standards of qualification in all lines of life work are being constantly advanced, and opportunities for preparation are greater than ever before. High school privileges are now within the possible reach of practically every young man. The demands for a well trained ministry were never so great as at this present moment, owing to the increased average intelligence of the laity. Therefore; Resolved,

First: No student in the course of study shall be admitted to examination who has not attended that year the summer school of Theology, unless he shall be able to satisfy the Conference Board of Examiners that such attendance was utterly beyond the range of reasonable possibility.

Second: That no man, except in very exceptional cases, be accepted for membership on trial in the West Virginia Conference after this year who does not meet the literary requirements of the discipline; namely, a high school education or its equivalent.

Third: We instruct our District Superintendents and District Conferences that they do not recommend for admission to the Conference men who do not meet this standard, and who are more than 40 years of age.

We call upon the Conference to concur in these resolutions.

J. B. WORKMAN
C. R. HAVIGHURST
ARCHIBALD MOORE

CORRECTION IN THE MINUTES—G. D. Smith presented the following resolution which was upon his motion adopted:

WHEREAS, The Rev. Winfield C. Snodgrass was admitted on trial in this Conference in 1868, and into full connection in 1870, and was transferred from this Conference to the South Kansas in April, 1884,

And Whereas, by some oversight, no mention of his transfer was made in the Minutes of 1884, therefore,

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Conference be requested to insert in the records of 1884 a notice of the Transfer, as above.

REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION—R. B. Nay, treasurer of the Conference Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, read his report for the year and by vote of the Conference it was adopted. (See Reports).

VI. REPORTS OF COMMITTEES AND BOARDS

REPORT NO. 1—STATE OF THE CHURCH

Your committee on the state of the church, being delegated the task of general suggestion concerning the outstanding needs of the church and the Country, desires to call attention to the need of a reawakened interest upon the part of our people everywhere in those elements of worship that must forever be the foundation of the development of the highest character. Nothing can take the place of true worship.

In the present trend toward applied Christianity we reemphasize the absolute need of more sincere and general worship on the Sabbath day upon the part of our people.

We observe with gratification the development of both our Mid-week and Sunday schools of religion. An intelligent understanding faith is as essential to healthy piety as is a knowledge of hygiene to physical health.

That faith, not put into practice, brings moral hurt, is a truism. It follows therefore, that education in religion should lead to the personal worship of God.

We regret that in some quarters schools of religion fail to coordinate with the worship services of the church, and that children and youth fail to express in worship what they learn in Sunday school. We can not but believe this a basic fault of childhood and youth and urge upon our educational leaders larger attention to the value of public worship and the acceptance of the obligation to lead to its practice those whom they teach.

We appreciate the increasing interest which our Religious Educational leaders are creating in a higher standard of music in our Sunday schools, and heartily endorse the movement recently inaugurated by the National and State Associated Music Clubs looking toward this important end.

As Methodists, along with the other denominations, we are deeply concerned with the interests of our country. A prevalent spirit of lawlessness warns us of the need of greater reverence for law, higher regard for authority, and more pronounced respect for those elements of virtue that are essential to the preservation of the sacred interests of our Republic.

We recommend most cordial cooperation with every proper agency for the promotion of international justice and good will, for the outlawry of war, and for the establishment of universal peace. We thoroughly endorse the pointed utterance of the "Message" of the twenty-eight communions of the Churches of America, to the effect that "War is a colossal calamity and the scourge of modern life. It is not inevitable. Its futility is beyond question. Its continuance is the suicide of civilization. Economics and industry, social welfare and progressive civilization, morality and religion, all demand a new international order in which righteousness and justice between nations shall prevail and in which nation shall fear nation no longer, and prepare for war no more."

We highly commend the utterances of President Calvin Coolidge that "Peace and security are more likely to result from fair and honorable dealings than by any attempt at competition in squadrons and battalions," and "Our country has definitely relinquished the old standards of dealing with other countries by terror and force and is definitely committed to the new standard of dealing with them through friendship and understanding," and "that we should demobilize intellectually as well as in the military sense."

We desire to call attention to the action of the General Conference, to be found on page 600 of the Journal, and would ask every church to act in accord with the resolution, and at the same time would ask our District Superintendents to call the matter to the attention of the Quarterly Conferences.

The Resolution is as follows:

Resolved, That every Quarterly Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church is requested to select a committee of 3 or 5 (with the pastor as an ex-officio member) on International Justice and Good Will, this committee to be chosen in the same way as the other disciplinary standing committees of the Quarterly Conference. The committee shall be elected at the first Quarterly Conference after the General Conference of 1924 and regularly thereafter at the Fourth Quarterly Conference each year. This committee shall be a working committee representing the youth, womanhood and manhood of the Church. It shall cooperate with the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America and with all constituted agencies of the Methodist Episcopal Church on International Justice and Good Will in promoting world peace and brotherhood. It shall further seek to interest the Church, Sunday School and Epworth League in the above subjects."

REPORT NO. 2—COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN MISSIONS

We, your Committee on Foreign Missions, report as follows:

(1) We deeply regret that we cannot report this year a substantial increase in giving for World Service; but when the Industrial depression throughout West Virginia is taken into consideration, we feel that the ministers can be congratulated that they were able to keep the decrease from being more serious.

(2) We are glad to note a feeling of optimism for better times in the coming year, and we urge upon the District Superintendents and pastors to make special effort to take advantage of this confidence, to present the causes of our World Service Program, and secure a more generous giving for it.

(3) We recommend that every Sunday school be organized as a Missionary Society; and that Missionary Study Classes be established in every church during this new church year; the excellent Missionary Literature prepared by the Board of Foreign Missions should be freely and wisely used in every church; and we call the attention of the pastors to the rich fund of sermon material that can be found in this printed matter, that can be secured without cost.

(4) We as a conference pledge again our loyalty to the Missionary Program of our beloved Church; and we will do our utmost to make this new year richer and better in its support of the World-Wide efforts of Methodist, to obey the command of our Lord to "Go into all the world and disciple all nations."

REPORT NO. 3—COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION

Your Committee on Education desires to submit the following report:

Student Loan Fund

The Student Loan Fund has been of unmeasured value to many of the youth of our church in assisting them to secure proper educational training for their life work. We urge, therefore, the importance of the observance of Children's Day, that there may be a larger and more liberal contribution to this cause.

Theological Schools

The three theological seminaries of our church within easy access to the students of our conference, Boston, Drew, and Garrett, are doing unexcelled work in their field of endeavor. We recommend these schools to our young men preparing for the ministry. that they may receive the equipment which we believe to be essential to the highest measure of success in th ministry.

West Virginia Wesleyan College

We desire to recognize the splendid service rendered by West Virginia Wesleyan College to this conference and to the whole state. The college is our best recruiting ground for new ministers, and our hope for a more efficient ministry in the future centers in this institution. It continues to send out many trained teachers for the schools in the state. Many of our alumni are filling important places in the schools of the state and influential positions in business and government. We have every reason to be proud of the product of this institution.

We understand from the president of the college that there is good prospect that Wesleyan will this year secure full recognition from the North Central Association, and thus take its place among the fully accredited and universally recognized standard colleges of our section of the country. We rejoice in this prospect and urge both the officials of the college and the trustees to use every effort to bring this to pass.

We are justly proud of the faculty of the college and believe that we have a group of men and women seriously concerned with the problems of our young people and who desire to throw about our students those influences which make for the noblest character.

We believe that the aim in Wesleyan should be to build up and maintain an high grade smaller Christian college. It should maintain high standards of scholarship as well as a distinctive religious atmosphere.

We extend a most hearty welcome to Dr. Homer E. Wark, our new president. We are sure that he brings to us the training and experience that will mean much for the success of our college. We rejoice in the bright prospect for a long and prosperous administration. And we pledge Dr. Wark our hearty and enthusiastic support.

Wesley Foundation

The Wesley Foundation at West Virginia University has had a year of marked accomplishment. At the last conference session it was unanimously voted to make the Wesley Foundation a project of the West Virginia Conference, and fifteen trustees were elected by the conference to have direction of the Foundation.

These trustees have incorporated it and have made definite plans for the development of this work of religious education and training of our Methodist young people in attendance upon the university.

We desire to commend the work of Rev. Myron S. Collins, Director of the Foundation and University Pastor, for the excellent work he has done and is doing, and we pledge him our hearty cooperation and support.

Educational Offering

In view of the fact that our college at Buckhannon and the Wesley Foundation at the State university are both greatly handicapped by inadequate annual support, each year operating under a large deficit, we wish to recommend:

First, that an educational committee be elected by the conference to be composed of the President of West Virginia Wesleyan College, the Director of the Wesley Foundation, and three members to be nominated by the conference Committee on Education, which committee shall canvass the needs of these institutions, inform the churches of the conference of their needs, and annually take a collection under a united educational appeal and disburse these funds according to the following ratio: 80% to West Virginia Wesleyan and 20% to the Wesley Foundation. We further recommend that each district superintendent appoint three members of the conference from his district to act as a district educational committee in carrying forward the above mentioned educational plan in his district, that the first quarterly conference of each charge appoint a person to represent this educational work within that charge, working with the district and conference committees in raising the fund.

We further recommend that the Sunday preceding Lincoln's birthday be observed in the West Virginia Conference as Educational Sunday and that the cause of education within our conference be presented and an offering be taken to support this work each year; and that the amounts paid each year by each charge to this United Educational Fund be reported in a separate column in our treasurer's report in the conference minutes. Such collections will be forwarded by the pastors to the treasurer of this special committee who will make a monthly division and distribution of such moneys received to the proper institution. We nominate as the Special Committee Dr. H. E. Wark, Mason S. Collins, C. W. Evans, E. E. Stoeffel, and C. G. Stater.

College Trustees

We recommend as trustees for the term of four years the following: Rev. S. K. Arbuthnot, Rev. C. Fred Anderson, Rev. J. W. Engle, Rev. R. G. Backus, H. W. Harmer, John A. Barnes, C. D. Howard, W. T. Williamson, F. L. Fenton.

C. R. HAVIGHURST, Chairman
DENVER C. PICKENS, Secretary

REPORT NO. 4—COMMITTEE ON SUNDAY SCHOOLS AND RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

We, your committee, beg to submit the following report:

We are glad to note the progress made by the West Virginia Council of Religious Education and also the election of a member of our conference, Samuel Charles Jones, to the position of general superintendent of the council. We heartily wish him Godspeed in this important work.

The Methodist Episcopal Church is one of thirteen cooperating denominations assisting in the work of the West Virginia Council of Religious Education. And on the executive committee strong representation is needed and we therefore nominate as members of the executive committee, Heber D. Ketchen, Aaron H. Rapking, W. C. Strohmeyer, R. O. Phillips, members of the conference and the following laymen: A. S. Thomas, W. T. Williamson, John Raine and J. M. Scott.

We desire to express our appreciation of the work of A. Coleman Brown as Director of Religious Education on the Huntington District and express the hope that this work will be the harbinger of a conference-wide work under a Conference Director of Religious Education with a district worker on each district.

We urge our pastors and Sunday school superintendents in their plans for increasing the efficiency of our Sunday schools, to avail themselves of the opportunities afforded by the annual observance of Rally Day; by the growing willingness on the part of our state school authorities to cooperate with us in organizing week-day schools of Religious Education and High School classes in Bible study with High School credit; by arranging to hold Daily Vacation Bible Schools wherever possible; by introducing as quickly as possible the graded system of lessons and by the conscientious use of our own Sunday School Literature.

We cannot speak too highly of the work being done under the direction of Dr. Roger Albright, of the General Board of Education in organizing Standard Schools for Leadership Training and we trust that our pastors will cooperate with him and his staff in organizing such schools for intensive training in leadership in every district.

We suggest the closer cooperation of the work of this committee with the Committee on Education and the Committee on Epworth league along the line of the action of the last General Conference by coordinating the work of the committee on Sunday Schools and Religious Education with that of the committee on Epworth League and the Committee on Education under the Conference Board of Education.

We further suggest that the members of the West Virginia Annual Conference endorse and will encourage our Church Schools to take part in the National Hymn Contest sponsored by the National Federation of Music.

REPORT NO. 5—EPWORTH LEAGUE

Your Committee on Epworth Leagues reports as follows:

An increased interest on the part of the young people of our Conference in the field of Religious Education and particularly as it relates to their own organization—the Epworth League. During the year it has taken many forward steps in the achievement of league work and in training the young people to assume the responsibilities of church leadership.

We note therefore with pleasure the advance in almost every field of endeavor. We hereby declare our abiding faith in the young people of today and cannot subscribe to the theory of some "That they are no longer interested in the things of the Kingdom." More cooperation and less criticism is recommended.

The report of the representative of the young people themselves, Mr. Arthur Beckett, Conference President, is hereby made a part of the committee report.

It is as follows:

Epworth League Report

The officers of the Epworth League wish to call your attention to the fact that the young people have accomplished much during the past year. The Epworth League, under the direction of Dr. Blaine E. Kirkpatrick, is making much progress in promoting the spiritual work of our young people and in carrying out the work of the departments. If Dr. Kirkpatrick's plans for the coming year are properly carried out young people will be trained to take the leadership of the Church when the years demand that they give their attention to the carrying on of church duties.

Win-My-Chum Campaign

This feature of League work has proven to be a great help to the Spiritual life of our young people. This campaign is held every year, usually in the month of November, and during the past year every district observed this service. It is impossible at this time to enumerate the great good that has been accomplished but numerous conversions have been reported and we feel that through these meetings the spiritual lives of the young people have been greatly strengthened.

Epworth Herald

Another year with Dr. Gratts as editor has proven to the young people that the Epworth Herald is indispensable in carrying on the League programs and the League work in general. There has been a considerable increase in subscriptions during the year.

District Rallies

There has been District Rallies held over the State during the year which has stimulated the interest of the young people and helped greatly in planning definite work and the carrying on of same throughout the Districts. During the coming year we are planning immediately to arrange District Rallies for work hereinafter referred to.

General Department Work

The Epworth League program is to develop the Four-Fold life among our young people, the work in the First Department—Spiritual; the Second Department—Missions; the Third Department—Social Service, and the Fourth Department—Recreation and Culture. We feel that as the year closes the young people all over the State have been benefited, due to the fact that the real gospel of the Bible has reached them through these Four Departments as it could not otherwise have done.

Mid-Year Institute

Every district reports that a Mid-Year Institute has been held in some cases as individual chapters but mostly as district affairs. The purpose of this institute is to bring to those at home the training in Departmental Work, the Bible, Missions, etc., the same as that given at our General Conference Institute only on a smaller scale. This is a splendid way in which the young people can enjoy a week together in their district. It increases the social life and also helps to train them to more efficiently carry on the work of their church.

Summer Institute

We wish to report that the Tenth Annual Epworth League Institute was held at Buckhannon August 9th to 16th. Dr. Claude E. Goodwin, Dean; Miss Romanna Rowley, Dean of Women; T. M. Zumbunnen, Manager, and E. Vernon Smith, Registrar. The summer session of the Conference Epworth League was well represented with an increase in attendance over last year. A great week was enjoyed by the young people.

The faculty this year was composed of West Virginia talent, but we feel that no better teachers could have been found for the training of our young people. We were very fortunate in having with us Dr. Blaine E. Kirkpatrick, General Secretary, who taught a class in Epworth League Methods.

We are sorry to report that Dr. Claude E. Goodwin, Dean, declines to act as Dean for the coming year. We wish to express here the loss we feel and regret that Dr. Goodwin cannot continue as our Dean. He has served as Dean for the past six years and under his leadership the West Virginia Conference Epworth League has proven of value to the life of the young people. He has a personality that fastens itself upon us and we feel sure that his smiling face will remain long in our memories.

We wish to report that at the close of the Institute the Conference Board elected for the Conference Approval, the following to carry on the work of the Institute:

Rev. Denver C. Pickens, Dean
Miss Romanna Rowley, Dean of Women
Rev. T. M. Zumbrunnen, Manager

We feel sure that we are very fortunate in that Rev. Denver C. Pickens has consented to be Dean. Rev. Pickens has given much time and thought to the work of the League and we could not have a man more capable.

Miss Romanna Rowley so successfully and efficiently cared for the girls at Institute this year—that we think the Board used good judgment in electing her.

Rev. T. M. Zumbrunnen, our Manager, had many duties, but each and every one were so successfully discharged that we feel sure we need have no concern as to the management of the coming Institute.

I trust that the Pastors of this Conference will do everything in their power to influence the young people of their respective churches to attend Institute next year. We noted with pleasure the presence of a number of our pastors and trust that large numbers shall come.

Junior Leagues

Miss Romanna Rowley, our Junior League Superintendent, reports that the Junior Leagues have accomplished quite a bit during the year and we feel the responsibility of the Junior League is great since they will soon be called on to continue the work of the Senior Leagues.

Aims

Sometime ago Dr. Kirkpatrick published in the Epworth Herald a year's program of activities in outline form which the Conference hopes to adopt at their next meeting, with the addition of certain points to be given for the carrying out of this work and a Banner will be awarded at the end of the year to the Chapter receiving the highest average. We expect to adopt this program in the next few weeks at the meeting of our Conference Board and will say that the prospects for the coming year are the brightest ever.

We also submit for the approval of the Conference the names of the officers and their respective duties during the coming year:

Arthur E. Beckett	Huntington, W. Va.	President
Mr. Wyland Tucker	Morgantown, W. Va.	First Vice-President
Rev. Jos. Hoffman	Rainelle, W. Va.	Second Vice-President
Miss Margaret Muldrew	Clator, W. Va.	Third Vice-President

Signed: ARTHUR E. BECKETT,

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT NO. 6—BOOKS AND PERIODICALS

Your Committee on Books and Periodicals submit the following for your consideration:

Never was good reading so much in demand as today. Our people are reading more than ever before, but we fear they are not reading as much worthwhile literature as in the yesterdays. World conditions are dependent on the Christian church. The Church is dependent on the understanding of world conditions. Our periodical literature is the best medium for wide-spread information as they come from the news centers each week. We perish in the degree of our limitations of church life, vision and program.

We congratulate our Conference in that it has led all the others of our territory in new subscriptions for this Conference year. Buckhannon and Morgantown Districts have sent about as many new subscriptions as the greatest Conference of our territory.

Whereas with all of our fine record we only have one Advocate to every five families and whereas we believe our official literature should have first place in all Methodist homes as it is indispensable to our greatest service at home and abroad,—be it therefore Resolved:—

1st. That we heartily endorse the Manager's slogan for 1927—"45,000 subscriptions," which will require one subscription for every nine members, or one paper to every three Methodist families of our churches.

2nd. That as Superintendents and Pastors we pledge ourselves to faithfully endeavor to reach the goal.

3rd. That we commend our Editor, Dr. J. J. Wallace, for all the superior editorials and wise direction of our family Advocate.

4th. That we rejoice in the management given by our own Dr. Daniel Westfall which has made our Advocate the pride of the whole church. We recognize our debt to the Manager for the two Historical issues of our Conference and commend such a plan as it brings to us a storehouse of information and conserves our Conference history for those who come after us.

5th. That we continue to keep the standard of "one Advocate for every family" before our people as the final objective worthy of our great Church.

Respectfully,

WESLEY WOODRUFF, Chairman
W. W. SUTTON, Secretary

REPORT NO. 7—CONFERENCE MINUTES

We, your committee on Conference Minutes, offer the following report:

In view of the fact that the cost of publishing our Conference Minutes is continually increasing and that advertising space is becoming more difficult to sell, we urge that all pastors be prompt in paying to the fund any amount that may be recommended by the Conference.

Therefore, Be it resolved, that each effective preacher in full connection be requested to contribute $2.50 annually to this fund and that each probationer and supply in charge of a work be requested to contribute $2.00 annually to this fund, said amounts to be payable in advance at the seat of the annual conference and if not paid at that time the Secretary shall send to each one their proportionate amount of Conference Minutes, with statement for same.

Respectfully submitted,

F. V. ARNETT, Chairman
F. C. SOPER, Secretary

REPORT NO. 8—COMMITTEE OF BIBLE CAUSE

The American Bible Society is in a special sense a part of the organized benevolence of the Methodist Episcopal Church for more than eighty years. It has been recognized as our agency for Bible Work. To it all our churches contribute in their World Service offerings, a percentage of which is devoted to this cause.

The Bible is the source from which we derive the doctrines of our faith. The work of Bible distribution is the basis of one of the most important of the great international societies engaged in this foundation work. It is constantly occupied with the work of new translation and revision. Already it has made the Bible accessible in more than 175 languages.

Last year more than nine million volumes were circulated from the various depositories, and by 375 colporters at home and in fifty foreign lands. Of these over four million were distributed in China where in spite of disorders and the growth of anti-foreign and anti-Christian sentiments the demand for the Gospel of our Lord increases, and in that we believe is the hope of the world.

If we are to have an intelligent and a Christ-like Church there must be a return to the Bible reading custom of our fathers. If we hope to exemplify the teaching of the Savior we must know His teaching by patient loving continuance in His Words.

We commend this Society, and pray God's blessing upon its work: We urge upon pastors and people alike a deeper study of the Sacred volume. We call attention to new and unmined riches yet in the Book to be brought to light as they have been uncovered in the morning addresses of Bishop McConnell—by those who earnestly seek for them.

J. H. FUNK, Chairman

W. D. WINTERS, Secretary

REPORT NO. 9—COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE

Earnestly calling for the hearty and active cooperation of all our Methodist Churches, Sunday Schools, Epworth Leagues and all other organizations and societies in favor of prohibition and civic righteousness, we your committee on Temperance make the following recommendations:

Inasmuch as the association against prohibition with its allies has opened headquarters in five of our largest cities of West Virginia, sending out both men and women workers against dry candidates.

And as the State Prohibition Department pays into the state and local treasuries two dollars for every one dollar the department itself costs and disregarding more than five hundred petitions representing tens of thousands of our citizens, the Legislature of 1925 greatly reduced the appropriation thereby crippling the enforcement instead of strengthening our laws and making them more effective.

And as the wet forces have made much false propaganda of the hearing of the Wine and Beer bills and the investigations of Senator Jim Reed's committee concerning campaign expenditure, Resolved, First, That we request our next Legislature to restore the law requiring the teaching of the evil effects of alcohol and narcotics upon the human system.

Resolved, Second, That we urge our legislature to increase the fine for drunkenness and in every possible way strengthen our dry law.

Resolved, Third, That we declare it to be our firm conviction that the Prohibition Department should be retained and adequately financed; and that we strongly protest against any change in our definition of Liquor than that enacted by the legislature of 1868.

Resolved, Fourth, That in this prohibition crisis we call upon the people of our denomination to give all possible aid to secure the election of candidates who regardless of party affiliations will loyally support the whole constitution and all of our laws in every possible way assist in making these laws more effective.

Resolved, Fifth, That we express our appreciation of the loyal and faithful and effective work of Hon. W. G. Brown, the retiring State Commissioner of Prohibition and our confidence in his successor, The Hon. Ross Wells and pledge him our hearty support for efficient prohibition enforcement.

Resolved, Sixth, That we express our appreciation of those who are active in the ranks of the great work in West Virginia, many of whom are listed among the inferior officers, who are serving in a sacrificial way.

Resolved, Seventh, That we commend the courage of Dr. J. E. Wagner, one of our brothers who accepted the challenge of Ben. L. Rosenbloom, a declared wet candidate and the general of the wet forces in the Panhandle, and express to Dr. Wagner our hearty approval of his method of procedure in giving a finishing touch to that well known gentleman.

Resolved, Eighth, That we commend the West Virginia Anti-Saloon League and the Women's Christian Temperance Union for their vigorous campaign which eliminated all wet candidates for congress, in the late primary election as well as many other candidates for lesser offices.

Resolved, Ninth, That we approve of the faithful and efficient work of our own O. M. Pullen as Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League and pledge him and the League our hearty support and request Bishop McConnell to reappoint him to the same position for another year.

Resolved, Tenth, That we request the conference to re-elect J. W. Engle and S. K. Arbuthnot as trustees of the Anti-Saloon League.

REPORT NO. 10—OBSERVANCE OF THE SABBATH

"Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy.

Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work;

But the seventh day is the sabbath of the Lord thy God; in it thou shalt not do any work, thou nor thy son, nor thy daughter, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates;

For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day; wherefore the Lord blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it." Ex. 20:8-11.

This is God's eternal truth, given for our present and eternal good, therefore cannot be violated without disaster to ourselves and our posterity.

A. CRABTREE, Secretary

REPORT NO. 11—PARSONAGE AND FURNITURE

We, your committee on Parsonages, submit the following report:

We are glad that some progress and interest has been manifested in the homes of our pastors. Your committee believes that a word of commendation is due the wives of our pastors for their care and upkeep of the houses in which they live. We extend to them a vote of thanks and ask them to continue their interest.

All charges in need of parsonages are urged to secure them this year.

Wherever a parsonage is not conveniently located, we recommend that they be re-located.

In regard to parsonage furnishings we recommend that all heavy furniture be bought and installed by the charges.

Your committee is particularly interested in securing parsonages in the towns of the coal fields of our State. We realize that very little permanence can be obtained unless the church owns its property. Our religious progress in the coal region is greatly hindered because the church owns so little property there, and experiences some difficulty in obtaining such.

We are glad and thankful to the coal owners for their liberal contributions to our mission work, but we believe there can be little permanence in the work unless the open door policy is adopted by all our coal owners, and the church given opportunity to purchase ground and houses of worship and residence. Your committee believes that if parsonages can be secured either by purchasing or building, and such property owned by the church, a gratifying degree of permanence in church work will result.

We recommend that all our pastors and officials who work in these regions insist upon the owners of coal towns showing more confidence in our church than hitherto shown by allowing us to purchase and own church property.

Respectfully submitted,

JESSE R. JONES,
C. S. DeBARR,
JOHN BEDDOW,
Committee.

REPORT NO. 12—EPISCOPAL FUND

Your committee on Episcopal Fund wishes to submit the following report:

In view of the fact that in many instances the apportionment to the Episcopal Fund is partially paid and in others wholly ignored, we recommend that the district superintendents call attention of this fact to the Quarterly Conferences where it needs to be done, and that the pastors inform their respective congregations as to the office and work of our General Superintendents, to the end that this item of ministerial support be proportionately paid in full.

T. E. MANESS, Chairman

F. H. HUGHES, Secretary

REPORT NO. 13—COMMITTEE ON RESPECTS AND RESOLUTIONS

A very pleasing custom has grown up within our Conference during the past several years whereby we pause a moment to note the changes of relations among our members which the changing years and circumstances produce. To those who sever their Conference ties by transfer and to those either enter the retired relation or pursue any calling which takes them out of the active list we bid God-speed and peace.

Those Who Go Out

This year we are called upon to say goodbye to Morris Husted, who transfers to the Pittsburgh Conference; E. W. Halpenny, who leaves the secretaryship of the West Virginia Council of Religious Education and goes to the Michigan Conference, and A. G. Cox, transferred to the Kentucky Conference. For each of these brethren we offer a sincere prayer and extend our best wishes for their highest and truest success.

For whatever reason or reasons may be the inducing cause it is always a solemn moment when a brother minister is compelled to change from the active to the retired relation in the Conference. We assure Brothers A. J. L. Curtis, J. C. Strader, C. E. Leatherby, H. C. Rush, B. F. Hill, A. L. Ireland and T. G. Meredith of our deepest respect and pray God's richest blessings to surround them as they take their positions upon the side lines and cheer on their comrades engaged in the good warfare to advance the Kingdom of our Lord Jesus Christ.

To the One Who Comes In

But one transfer into our Conference was announced at this session, but that constitutes a post. We welcome into our Conference membership and to the head of West Virginia Wesleyan College and to vital leadership among Homer Etha Wark.

Already his presence among us inspires us with increasing hope for the greater Wesleyan that is yet to be. We pledge to him our active assistance and brother love in aiding to work out our Conference educational problems.

Our Conference could never have moved so smoothly or carried on so successfully were it not for the thought, patience, good judgment and skill of those who planned and wrought both before and during our Conference session.

The President of the Conference, Bishop F. J. McConnell, has made a real contribution to our Spiritual life and development by his devotional talks from morning to morning. In the chair he has always been patient, fair and helpful in every way. After an interval of a year we are genuinely glad he is back again as our presiding Bishop.

We thank Dr. James W. Engle and his official members and all who have labored for our comfort and welfare, for the pains they have put forth and for the very successful manner in which they have extended the hospitality of their homes and this church. We also express our thanks to the sister churches which have been opened for committee work and for places of assembly.

Secretary C. C. O'Neill, Statistician H. E. Crowder and Treasurer Joseph Vansickle with their corps of assistants have rendered a worth-while service.

The excellent church choir with their well chosen hymns and special selections greatly enriched the evening sessions and furnished us with a real musical treat.

The necessary work of giving us heat, ventilation and a clean, sanitary place for our meetings has been done and well done by the janitorial force to whom also we say thank you.

We hope and pray that upon this church wherein we have carried on our meetings from day to day and upon every home which has been opened to receive the ministers and delegates, may fall showers of blessings and that the God of all comfort and grace may continually be in their midst.

S. K. ARBUTHNOT, President

M. F. PRITCHARD, Secretary

REPORT NO. 14—PERMANENT FUND INVESTMENT COMMISSION

Resolutions on Permanent Fund Matters

1. We wish to record our appreciation of the efficient and untiring efforts of the Secretary of the Permanent Fund, Dr. Frank S. Townsend.

2. We are glad to know that this year has brought an increase both in the total amount subscribed and in the actual payments and investments for the Permanent Fund. Yet we realize that our entire assets are more than $100,000 below the half million which is our goal and a sum even larger than this may be required for the commuting of claims if the proposed new plan is adopted. We therefore urge the secretary to continue his efforts and ask for him all possible assistance and gifts from the members of the conference and from the laity.

3. The Secretary of the Permanent Fund is to be considered an official of the conference and all pastors are expected to open their pulpits to him for the presentation of this cause—the precise arrangements of dates, etc., to be adjusted to the conditions of the work in each pastoral charge. We renew the request that every effective member of the conference who has not yet done so shall make a personal subscription to the Permanent Fund.

4. We believe that there are a considerable number of pastoral charges in the conference which have not yet done justice to this cause and we urge all such to put on campaigns for it as early as possible in the coming year. We also believe that there are many good men and women in the laity who are able to make large contributions to the Permanent Fund not only by direct gifts but by payments on the annuity plan and by legacies in their wills. We request all such persons to give this matter their kind and generous consideration and we earnestly hope that the secretary may be successful in discovering those whose hearts have been prepared to give this cause their most practical and liberal assistance.

REPORT NO. 18—FIRST ANNUAL REPORT

of the

COMMITTEE ON METHODIST HISTORY

of the

WEST VIRGINIA CONFERENCE OF THE M. E. CHURCH

The recent organization of the Association of Methodist Historical Societies and the publication of the centennial anniversary number of the New York Christian Advocate, and repeated West Virginia numbers of our own Pittsburgh Advocate, should be enough to start a renaissance as to historic values. These publications rescue many wholesome facts from oblivion in such special form as to insure their preservation. The best time, however, to preserve history is in the making. It is unfortunate that the reports of the district superintendents are no longer published in the official minutes of the Conference. If such reports could not be printed in full, a condensation might be edited so that a concise resume of actual facts and figures could be published. Such documents are of peculiar value to the future historian.

Local Methodist History

Considerable interest in local Methodist history has been aroused in the various districts as a result of the appointment at your last annual session of a Committee on Methodist History within the Conference, consisting of one member from each district. As soon as the Committee learned of its appointment through the published minutes, it forwarded to each member of the Conference, a communication requesting each pastor to appoint a local "historian" for his charge, or if a circuit, for each appointment therein. These "historians" were to compile the history of the charge and collect objects and data of historical interest and forward to the member of the committee representing their respective districts. Retired members were requested to write their own personal history and recollections. The ultimate depository of the collection is Wesleyan College, and the custodian Prof. G. L. Glauner, of the Department of History of that institution, who extended his hearty cooperation.

District Organizations

The Parkersburg District, due to the joint interest of Superintendent McCuskey and District Committeeman J. W. Dawson, carried into effect this plan throughout the entire district, and no doubt successful results will follow.

Miss Mary I. Scott, of the Wheeling District, has promoted a similar organization in a portion of that district, and has a considerable collection of pictures, disciplines, hymn books and other volumes for the custodian.

Committeeman Jos. C. Hoffman, of the Elkins District, has made a valuable find of a portrait of Bishop Asbury in a hand-made frame of wood from Rehobeth Church, earliest of all our churches in this territory. It is in the hands of Rev. W. R. Eskew of Staunton, who will turn it over to our custodian.

Dean Haight, representing the Buckhannon District, has located a complete file of our minutes, and being in close touch with our custodian will be able to render valuable cooperation.

The work has been in charge of Dr. Bird in the Huntington District, and of Mr. Frank M. Murdoch in the Morgantown District, but to date not many results have been reported.

Charleston District is partially organized and historical data has been collected and is ready to be filed. The Methodist section in the State Department of Archives and History is quite extensive and is growing.

Pastoral Succession

The first historical step a charge should take is to compile its pastoral succession, duly engross and preserve it by framing, and display the same upon the walls of the church. This committee is in a position to assist in such compilations, as the early minutes from 1773 to 1845 are in its possession.

First Charges in West Virginia Territory

Date	Charges
1778	Berkeley Circuit (South Branch in 1782)
1783	Allegheny Circuit (Greenbrier Valley)
1784	Redstone Circuit (Western Wilderness)
1787	Greenbrier Circuit (from Allegheny Circuit)
1787	Ohio Circuit (Ohio Valley portion of Redstone)
1787	Clarksburg Circuit (from Redstone Circuit)
1790	Randolph Circuit (Discontinued in 1793 from Clarksb'g Ct.)
1790	Kanawha Circuit (no report and dropped)
1794	Pendleton Circuit (from Allegheny Circuit)
1799	Little Kanawha Ct. (Little Kanawha Valley)
1804	Guyandotte Circuit (Guyandotte and Ohio Valleys)
1805	Monroe Circuit (from Greenbrier Circuit)
1806	Monongalia Circuit (from Clarksburg Circuit)
1808	New River Circuit (from Greenbrier and Monroe Circuits)
1810	East Wheeling Ct. (from Ohio Circuit)
1810	Big Sandy River Ct. (Big Sandy Valley)
1813	Hampshire Circuit (Central South Branch Valley)
1816	Harrison Circuit (from Clarksburg Circuit)
1819	South Branch Ct. (Lower South Branch Valley)
1819	Preston Circuit (Region of Preston County)
1819	Short Creek Circuit (from Ohio Circuit)
1820	Big Kanawha Ct. (from Guyandotte Circuit)
1820	Jefferson Circuit (from Berkeley Circuit)
1820	Middle Island Ct. (Middle Island Creek region)
1821	Lewis Circuit (from Harrison Circuit)
1823	Nicholas Circuit (Region of Nicholas County)
1823	Wheeling Station (from East Wheeling Circuit)
1825	Logan Circuit (Upper Guyandotte Valley)
1825	Charleston Circuit (from Big Kanawha Circuit)

Investigation Promotes Accuracy

point from which it should be an easy task accurately to trace from the official minutes the pastoral successions.

Charges established at more recent dates may have been appointments in different circuits at different times, and the early pastors of such appointments will not be apparent from the minutes. They should be determined by careful inquiry of persons whose recollections are certain.

For example, it took considerable investigation to determine the early pastors of the class which has developed into the promising new church, Asbury Methodist Episcopal Church of Charleston. It was organized about forty years ago. The first four years it was in East Charleston Circuit, the next eight in Danaville charge, the next eight in Riverside charge, and for the last twenty years it has been called Lawrence Church. The line of succession is as follows:

Asbury M. E. Church, Charleston

Years	Pastors
1886	Joseph S. Jenkins
1887	Thomas P. Ryan (murdered same year)
1888-9	Robert E. Hughes
1892	L. D. Haines-R. E. Hughes
1893	S. J. Miller
1894	L. E. Leslie
1895	H. C. Howard
1896	E. A. Davis
1897	J. M. Grose
1898	C. B. Mottics
1899	W. K. Young-W. E. Craig
1900	C. C. Lanham
1901-4	B. F. King
1905-6	Richard Aspinall
1907	S. E. Jones
1908	P. W. Matheny
1909-13	W. A. Byus
1914	B. H. Shadduck
1915-18	W. A. Byus
1919-20	E. O. Jones
1921-3	S. P. Crummett
1924-5	T. M. Zumbrunnen

The pastors of any other charge may be determined and listed in like manner

Our Present Objective

The Committee has been asked what data it wants. Anything and everything of historical interest. We are making no immediate attempt to compile a work for publication, but are desirous of collecting all possible original sources of history for preservation in the permanent depository which has been designated, to that the youth of Methodism and the student of history may have ready access thereto. Furthermore, we think that all who delve into the thrilling story of the heroic sacrifices of our pioneers in the West Virginia Conference will be inspired to attempt and accomplish more for the extension of the Kingdom in our fair valleys and over our beautiful hills than ever before. In short, the more they know of our history the more and better history they will make in Christian service at home and throughout the world, as the years come and go.

Fraternally submitted,

COMMITTEE ON METHODIST HISTORY,

By Wm. Burdette Mathews, Chairman
J. W. Dawson, Secretary

REPORT NO. 19—WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY WEST VIRGINIA CONFERENCE

It is said West Virginia has enough coal to heat the world, enough gas to light it, enough oil to grease it and enough brains to run it. I wish I might add and enough Christians to Christianize it. We doubtless have, but most of them seemingly are not working very hard; but there are a favored few that certainly are doing their best.

The work of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society this year has been done under peculiar stress and strain owing to the financially depressed conditions, so that we feel very much elated at the results gained by loyal district secretaries, officers and members generally.

To six Institutes held in October with Miss Illingworth as our inspirational speaker we attribute much of our success. An early understanding of the plans and methods for the year was decidedly helpful. We are also grateful to Miss Illingworth, Miss Leonora Seeds and Miss Muriel Robinson as district workers and Thank Offering speakers.

To Miss Ruth Johnson of Morgantown we owe most gratitude for making the greatest contribution to the work as she goes out this fall to Malaysia as our missionary.

A slight decrease in subscribers perhaps accounts for a slight decrease in adult membership. In both cases it must be forestalled as quickly as possible. But we are glad to report an increase in Standard Bearer and children's memberships.

To Mrs. B. F. Robinson and Mrs. Harvey Harmer of Clarksburg and their loyal co-workers, we are indebted for the entertainment of the Branch Meeting this fall. Through their hospitality the Conference hopes to be greatly benefitted.

As a very great concession to us, Dr. Homer E. Wark, President of West Virginia Wesleyan College, though overburdened with his own duties, kindly consented to give our Anniversary address. It was one of the most helpful and inspirational that we have ever had and we thank him accordingly.

A gradual increase in members of the King's Highway doubtless explains an increase financially. They say money talks. If so, ours speaks two thousand dollars louder than last year.

But what seems to me even better than to have increased our funds so materially is to have wiped out entirely our Inter Church debt. We have not only released ourselves from the loadstone of that but done that much to lighten the burden of the Parent Board. Wheeling, Morgantown and Huntington districts paid their Inter Church debt in full.

The West Virginia Woman's Foreign Missionary Conference advanced the funds sufficiently to wipe out the debt for the other four districts so that we might all be free.

All things considered we are more than glad that we men, women and children were able to give a gift to our Heavenly Father to the amount of $29,386.36.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. L. B. HARR

Conference Secretary, W. F. M. S.

REPORT NO. 20—EVANGELIST G. D. SAMPSON

Buckhannon, W. Va., October 1, 1926

To the Bishop and Brethren of the West Virginia Conference:

We have conducted fifteen revivals this year all in the bounds of the West Virginia Conference, mostly the small, struggling rural churches. Have conducted four rural tent meeting campaigns with good results, adding about three hundred to the membership of our church. Have received as compensation for my labors this year $1,123.00. Have had a year of hard work and many blessings from the Lord. Have found a fine brotherhood among both preachers and laymen to labor with.

G. D. SAMPSON,
Conference Evangelist.

REPORT NO. 21—EVANGELIST H. T. HEIRONIMUS

This year, I report over 300 days spent in revival work, preaching almost every day from one to three times in 17 revival campaigns held in 5 states, travelling over 8000 miles, resulting in 700 conversions and 90 sanctifications, receiving $1200.00 salary—a great year of blessed experiences.

This good year enters me upon my 60th of life, 46th in the Kingdom of God, 36th in the ministry, 30th in the experience of Christian perfection, 20th as a member of Conference, and 15 enjoyed as Conference evangelist—conducting 212 revival campaigns, resulting in the salvation of more than 1000 souls a year.

In all these years we have never taken a month's vacation, nor lost a month out of active service by sickness, nor failed to meet an evangelistic engagement because of ill health. And as a result of our humble labors, through the assistance of a consecrated wife and other efficient helpers and capable pastors, the Lord has allowed us the privilege of seeing about 18,000 souls pray through at an altar of prayer to some religious experience of saving grace; at least 5000 enter into Church fellowship, and over 100 into the ministry of Christ.

"Oh, the goodness and mercy of God, and his wonderful works to the children of men." To him be all praise and honor!

Yours, and His only, we are,

H. T. HEIRONIMUS,
West Virginia Conference Evangelist.

Sept. 30, 1926.

REPORT NO. 22—EVANGELIST V. A. HANNA

To the eightieth session of the West Virginia Conference I beg to submit my 35th report for the year ending September 27, 1926. I have been employed all the year in holding meetings of different kinds for the promotion of our Church, the Government and the homes of our people, and the souls of men. I am sure we have succeeded for the evidence that has been given. First, from the righteous praises, and from the wicked cursings and threatening us from all lines, but with Paul none of the things move us. "I can do all things through Him who strengtheneth us." We are in the fight to win. The discipline provides that we shall get enough for a liberal support, and this has been provided in the remunerations. About the same as last year, but nothing could be picked up in the baskets.

I assisted in twelve meetings, and the remainder of my time was given to the Anti-Saloon League and the law enforcement work. For our health and strength we give God the praise through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Respectfully submitted,

V. A. NANNA.

REPORT NO. 25—REPORT OF THE SECRETARY OF THE WEST VIRGINIA CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS'
PERMANENT TRUST FUND ASSOCIATION
FOR CONFERENCE YEAR 1925-26

In looking up the various items for my report to the Conference I found that there was much resemblance between last year and this one, though there were minor variations with regard to almost every item.

In a general way the field work has been rather less this year, while the fact that the expense for stationery and postage was about $40.00 larger than it was last year would seem to indicate that the office work had been heavier this year.

On 25 Sundays of this Conference year I have preached, delivering from one to four sermons on each of these days. I have also visited a number of churches on week-days and have attended ten District or Group meetings. On these various occasions I have delivered 64 sermons or formal addresses and taken some part in 21 miscellaneous services. I have tried to make my preaching helpful to the general work of the church as well as to the Permanent Fund.

I have had no regular help in the office work but have found it necessary to have some assistance during my absences from home and in times of especially hard work. Every subscriber who did not make a payment on his subscription before he was asked for it has received from one to three suggestions that he do something in this line and a considerable number have taken the hint. As quite a number of subscribers who had paid comparatively small subscriptions in full had said they would perhaps repeat their gifts a letter was sent to such cases and several hundred dollars were received in response.

During the three years since the present effort was begun the list of subscriptions recorded has amounted to $150,290.42. Perhaps two or three per cent of this has come from the renewal or transfer of old subscriptions and the rest has been from absolutely new pledges.

The difference between the total of a year ago and the present total shows that there has been an increase of $5,766.37 during the present year.

On the other hand I have thought it best to make a report of the cases where subscriptions have been cancelled for various reasons, either good or bad. The sums dropped for this reason amount to $1,928.25 and the deduction of this leaves on the list a net total of $148,362.17, either paid or still due.

The cash account for this year is as follows—the report being as of Sept. 30, 1926, though the actual account is carried to the close of this conference session.

Receipts

Balance from last year	$ 262.50
Subscriptions paid during year	21,668.52
Miscellaneous Receipts	113.56
Total	$22,044.58

Payments in Year

For Investment	$18,000.00
Salary	3,000.00
Travel	227.00
Postage	150.76
Office Help	95.10
Stationery and Printing	88.30
Protested Checks	19.50
Miscellaneous	2.35

Total $21,583.01

Total Receipts	$22,044.58
Total Payments	21,583.01

Balance for new year $ 461.57

This shows a total of $64,948.67 paid for regular subscriptions during the past three years, adding the payments of the first and second years to the present.

Deducting this amount and the cancellations from the total subscriptions there is left on my ledger the sum of $83,413.50. The greater part of this should be paid during the next two years but of course there will be a shrinkage, though I cannot now give any estimate of its amount. It is obvious that the secretary should make every proper effort to collect these subscriptions and that pastors and District Superintendents should aid him in all possible ways.

I now present a statement of the total assets of the Permanent Fund:

Stated by Treasurer in his Report.....	$285,408.17
Received by Treasurer afterwards.....	3,000.00
Unpaid Subscriptions on Secretary's Ledger....	83,413.50
Secretary's Cash Balance.....	461.57
Grand Total	$372,283.24

I am glad that some progress has been made in this work and deeply regret that the results have not been larger. I think perhaps the secretary should make more efforts with individuals who have the power, if they had the will, to do much for the Fund by gifts, annuities and legacies.

I return grateful thanks for the loyal help and personal kindness received from so many of my brother preachers. I feel that every member of the conference should be sympathetic and helpful in this work. I will also say that any member of the conference who has not made a subscription to the Fund should do so at once and I promise him a cordial reception!

I call once more for the sympathy and aid of my brethren as I pledge myself anew to this work.

FRANK S. TOWNSEND.

REPORT NO. 27—REPORT OF AUDITOR

The Auditing Committee desire to submit the following report:

We your committee have examined the missionary accounts of the seven district superintendents and find these correct.

Mr. E. A. Trenor, treasurer of the District Superintendent's fund, submitted his account which shows that each district superintendent received $5,000 and there remains in the fund a balance of $92.85.

Dr. F. S. Townsend, secretary of the Permanent Fund, submits the following report: In treasurer's hands, $285,408.17, with unpaid subscription on ledger of $83,463.50, making a grand total of assets of $368,871.67.

The treasurer of the Annual Conference, Rev. Joseph Vansickle, shows in his accounts a balance on hand of $380.31.

The Board of Stewards through their treasurer, Dr. Claude E. Goodwin, presented an accurate account of money received and expended in favor of conference claimants.

Respectfully submitted,

IRVING S. MIDDLEAUGH, Secretary
G. BLEAKLY, Chairman

VII. MEMOIRS

REV. SIMON J. BYRD

Simon J. Byrd, a member of the West Virginia Conference, died September 24, 1925, at Simon, W. Va., where funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Shelton, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, assisted by local ministers of other churches.

Brother Byrd was born January 3, 1897, converted and united with the Church when sixteen years of age, and was licensed to preach when sixteen years old. He served the Pineville charge in 1916; Brandonville, 1917-1920, and while a student in West Virginia Wesleyan he served Tenmile circuit for two years. It was while serving here and carrying his Junior year in college that he developed tuberculosis, in the summer of 1922. He was graduated from the Conference Course of Study in 1923 and elected to elder's orders, but was not able to attend Conference and was not ordained. He was married to Miss Gladys Walls, of Simon, W. Va., August 5, 1916, and to this union one child was born, which lived only a few hours.

Brother Byrd was a strong preacher, very evangelistic in his message, living a life of prayer and faith. His suffering was very great during the years of his illness, but his patience was marvelous. He left a good testimony and now rests from his labors.

Again we stand face to face with one of the mysteries of providence—a young man, consecrated to the work, qualifying himself for large usefulness, has gone from us. But God knows best; we shall see him yonder.

J. B. WORKMAN, D. D.

REV. JOHN WESLEY CLAYPOOL

The Rev. John Wesley Claypool, one of God's noblemen, passed from labor to reward on June 22, 1926. He was born in Greenbrier county, W. Va., in 1854, and was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1887.

On August 18, 1884, he was married to Miss Jennie M. Shepherd, who survives him.

Brother Claypool was received into the West Virginia Conference at Charleston in 1894, and served the Church actively for nineteen years, when on account of failing health he took the retired relation.

He was never a very strong man physically, but he was a faithful and able preacher of the Word of God. Few men had a better understanding of the Scriptures or a better grip upon God and truth.

During the years of his retirement, he lived in the Crosslanes, a Baptist community, and taught the Bible class in the Baptist Sunday school, and it is the testimony of the members of the class that he was the best teacher of Bible they ever had.

Brother Claypool's was one of those very quiet lives that is always productive of great good in the community where he lived, and he will therefore be greatly missed.

He was a graduate of the State Normal School at Athens, W. Va., from which he held a state certificate as a teacher. He spent a few years of his busy life in the teaching profession before entering the ministry.

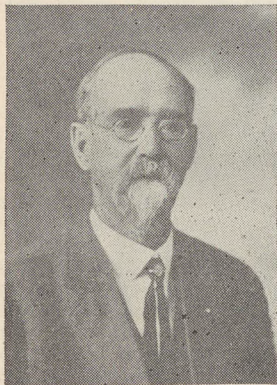

The esteem in which he was held by the people of Nicholas county, in which he chose to spend the closing years of his life, was attested by the large crowd of people who came to pay tribute to his memory on June 23, when his body was quietly laid to rest in the Zoar cemetery. Funeral services were conducted by his pastor, the Rev. S. M. Miller, and the Rev. J. E. Brown of the Baptist church, and the writer of this tribute spoke words of appreciation of the life of this good man of God.

So closes the life of one of God's elect, but no doubt he could say with Paul: "I have fought a good fight, I have finished the course, I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give to me at that day."

REV. W. T. W. SLEETH.

REV. HENRY E. FRIEND

Henry E. Friend was born at Sang Run, Garrett county, Md., December 31, 1835, and was the son of Israel and Dorcas Friend, pioneers of Garrett county. On December 27, 1860, he was married to Sarah E. Blackburn by the Rev. B. Strickley. To this union, fourteen children were born, ten of whom survive. He died of arteriosclerosis at his home in Mountain Lake Park, Friday, February 5, 1926, after an illness of four years, during the greater portion of which time he was bedfast, but was very patient in all his suffering.

For more than seventy-five years, Brother Friend was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and for fifty-five years was a preacher of the Church. It was on February 7, 1871, at Hoyaes, that the Rev. E. C. Woodruff gave him an exhorter's license. In the same year he was licensed to preach by the Rev. J. W. Webb. He was ordained deacon by Bishop Ames at Grafton, 1877, and elder by Bishop Mallalieu at Morgantown, September 26, 1886. He served the following charges in the West Virginia Conference: Cranesville, 1883-4 and 1900-2; Deer Park, 1885; Hambleton, 1886; Grantsville, 1887; Brandonville, 1889, 1892-3; Hannahsville, 1890; Parsons, 1894-7; Albright, 1898-9; Mountain Lake Park, 1903. At the Conference of 1904 he was superannuated, but served as a supply after that time.

Brother Friend held as sacred his home, his country and his Church, and these he served with conscientious devotion. He enlisted in the Union Army on August 12, 1862, and served until the close of hostilities, being attached to the Army of the Potomac, in Company D, Third Maryland Regiment. As a pastor his one desire was to lead others to the higher life in Christ Jesus. Many are the victories he won for the Master, and referred with joy to the day when, on March 8, 1897, he wrote the exhorter's license of William M. Shultz, now superintendent of Morgantown district. These two have been as father and son in the Lord.

It was a benediction to visit him, and an inspiration to hear him testify to the goodness of God. On his nintieth birthday he joined with a number of us in service at his bedside and sang "How firm a foundation." His testimony on that day was, "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day; and not to me only, but to all them also that love his appearing."

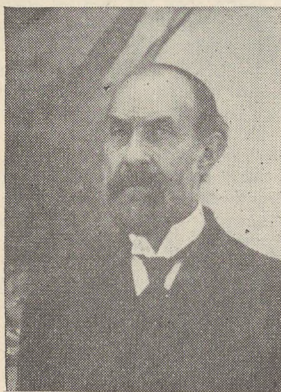

A short, impressive funeral service was held at his home, Sunday morning, February 7. Dr. Archibald Moore, of Oakland, Dr. W. M. Shultz, and the writer, being charge, after which the body was laid to rest at Hoyes, Md.

"For all the saints who from their labors rest,
Who Thee by faith before the world confessed,
Thy name, O Jesus, be forever blessed. Hallelujah, Hallelujah."

REV. ROWLAND ASPINAL.

REV. D. A. FRIEND

David A. Friend was born near Friendsville, Md., March 18, 1847, and died at his home in Friendsville, April 8, 1926. On March 30, 1873, he was united in marriage to Phoebe M. Rush, and to this union three children were born: Mrs. Frank Fowler, of Rochester, N. Y.; Gilbert H., of Hagerstown, Md., and Lloyd L., of Morgantown, W. Va.

Brother Friend, at the age of sixteen enlisted in the Union Army, and served in Company K, Third Maryland Regiment. He continued to be a member of this regiment until the war came to an end. He served his country well.

When he was but nine years old he felt convinced of sin, bowed at the altar of repentance, and gave himself to God at a revival meeting held at the Blooming Rose Church, at which time he also joined the Methodist Episcopal Church.

In 1882, Brother Friend entered the West Virginia Conference and was that year appointed to the Cranesville charge. His appointments thereafter were as follows: 1883-85, Albright; 1886-89, Evansville; 1890-91, Pruntytown; 1892-95, Monongalia; 1896-97, Farmington; 1898-99, Glenville; 1900-03, Friendsville; 1904-06, Brandonville; 1907, Cranesville; 1908-09, Grantsville. In 1910, on account of failing health and the weight of years, he asked to be retired, and that relation, which he had earned so well by a faithful ministry, was granted him.

Truly one of God's noblemen has fallen; no, no, not fallen, but has outrun us in the race of life, and has entered into the reward of the faithful. He has received his crown of righteousness, of which Paul wrote.

Brother Friend's zeal for the Church knew no bounds; he wrought to a full measure of his strength, and often he wrought beyond his physical strength. His highest ambition was to see souls saved, and he was privileged to lead many to the Christ he loved.

As a preacher, he was of the old type. He believed in the doctrines of his Church—conviction, conversion, consecration, full salvation. He not only believed but experienced the blessing of perfect love.

He was a good companion, a good father, a good Churchman, a good soldier, a good preacher and was beloved by all who knew him.

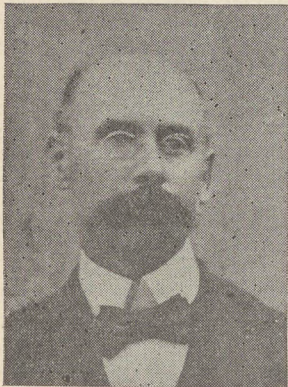

Funeral services were conducted by his pastor, P. W. Arbogast. His body was placed in the Blooming Rose Cemetery, by the side of his wife, who preceded him to the better world a few years ago.

"Servant of God, well done."

REV. W. M. SHULTZ, D. D.

REV. ORLANDO C. PHILLIPS

Rev. Orlando C. Phillips, son of George W. and Christiana Phillips, was born in Washingtonville, Ohio, April 26, 1856, and died in Fairmont, W. Va., July 17, 1926. His boyhood life was spent in Ohio on the farm, where he received his education in the public schools, and where he found Christ that had much to do in his entering the Christian ministry later in life.

He was married to Isabella Horne in New York City January 25, 1883, to which union four sons were born, Charles Herbert and Russell Wilbur, deceased, and George Allen and Earl N., both of Fairmont. Besides the immediate family, one brother, Chas. Phillips, of Salem, Ohio, and five grandchildren are among the surviving relatives.

Brother Phillips decided to enter the ministry early in life and did much active Christian work before he entered the active ministry, but did not join the West Virginia Conference until the year 1891. After his admission into the active itinerancy he served most faithfully the following charges: Cottageville. Pleasant Valley, Triadelphia, Mason City, Spencer, Jollytown, Meadowdale, and Bellevue. Something like twenty years ago he took the retired relation, not being physically able to do the work assigned him by the conference, taking up his residence on the farm where he has lived for the past several years and where he has conducted a most lucrative business. But while he was blessed and made prosperous on the farm, he never relaxed his hold on the church and ministry. He was never happier than when engaged in some kind of Christian work, ready to supply for his brethren, ready to visit the sick and comfort the dying, ready to bury the dead, most faithful to this local church where he has been a regular attendant for many years. Few men will be missed more than Brother Phillips here, frequently in the Men's Bible Class, always in his pew every Sunday morning, unless prevented by sickness. It was nothing unusual to find him in the prayer meeting, and he was most at home in the revival services. He had a rich Christian experience, made a most helpful and touching prayer, was most liberal in his contributions to every cause of the Church and best of all, lived his life so that his own wife and boys whom he loved so dearly will never have a question as to the past, present or future. He has fought a good fight, he has finished his course, he has kept the faith, he has entered into his reward.

Funeral services were conducted in the Diamond Street Church, Tuesday afternoon, July 20, in the presence of a congregation that filled the church. Beautiful tributes were paid the deceased by District Superintendent W. M. Shultz, and Pastor J. B. Workman of Mannington. Others taking part in the service were H. D. Ketcham, S. C. Dotson, T. G. Meredith and W. F. McCain. A. D. Craig, pastor of the church, had charge of the service and read this tribute. Burial was in Maple Grove cemetery, Fairmont.

REV. A. D. CRAIG.

DAVID LEROY REID

The Rev. David Leroy Reid passed into Life Thursday evening, March 4th, 1926, from the Robert Packer Hospital, Sayre, Pa., where he had been a patient since last November.

David Leroy Reid was born in Greenbrier County, West Virginia, October 31st, 1858; the son of James Reid and Sarah Frances Humphrey Reid, both being consecrated Christians, his father being a Presbyterian and his mother a Methodist. From the time of his birth it was his mother's hope and prayer that he should become a minister of the Gospel of Christ. Until his eighteenth year he favored the Calvinist Doctrines, but when he was converted during an old time Camp Meeting he was also thoroughly converted to the Doctrines of Wesley. He studied at Vanderbilt University and preached his first sermon at twenty years of age.

His first appointment was from the Baltimore Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, to Roncevert, W. Va.; near his old home. All of his early ministry was spent in The Valley of Virginia, and it was there that he became closely associated with two great men—Sam Jones and George R. Stuart.

In 1887 he was united in marriage with Miss Etta Boyd of Front Royal, Virginia. To them were born five children, four of whom survive: Edgar Humphrey, 8841 Monica, Detroit, Mich.; Mrs. C. B. W. Chapman, 5806 York Road, Baltimore, Md.; Leroy King, 10210 Second Blvd., Detroit, Mich., and Milton Wilie, Box 27, Salome, Arizona. Nell Linden went to Heaven, November 2, 1906. Mrs. Reid was promoted to the Life Beyond, March 30th, 1915.

He joined the West Virginia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1908, continuing in active work until after the death of his beloved Companion, when he felt that he must have a change of scene. For a year he travelled through the Golden West.

The year of 1917 was a momentous one for him, together with many others. It brought him the great pleasure of being one of the Committee of One Thousand, chosen to present the plan to Congress which became the Eighteenth Amendment; he having espoused the cause of Temperance, fighting many spirited battles, from the time of his early ministry. He offered his services to the Government and to the . M. C. A., during the wartime and was stationed at Grand Rapids, Mich., doing supply work for Pastor-Chaplains. He was ever proud of the fact that his three splendid sons had volunteered before the Draft became a law and that his lovely daughter was also doing her "bit" to make the world "safe for Democracy."

In 1918 he was called to Arizona to take charge of a Mission Circuit there, the Grand Canyon being one of its appointments. While on his way to attend Conference in October he called at The Mary J. Platt School for Mexican Girls, in Tucson, where he met Miss Elizabeth Lyons of Athens, Pa., one of the Missionaries stationed there. One year later, October 24th, 1919, their wedding took place at the School, Mrs. Reid being Superintendent. Three children were born to them: Laura Elizabeth, Frances Virginia and Helen Lyons, all of whom survive.

Willing to go to any extreme, he obeyed the call to Deer Lodge, Montana, in 1920, where he had charge of remodeling an old church building into a modern and useful one.

The lure of the desert kept calling him so strongly that he returned to Tucson the next year to become the State Superintendent of The Arizona Childrens Home Association, in which capacity he served until his physical heart broke under the strain of constantly traveling in such high altitudes. Even then, against the advice of his Doctors, he stayed with his work for a whole year, only giving up when his condition had become so serious that there was no possible earthly help for him.

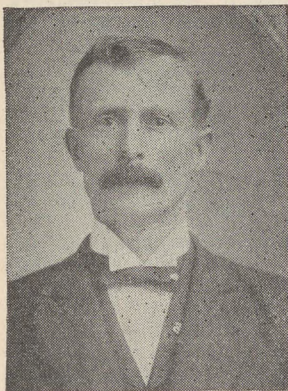

As soon as he was able to travel, he came to Athens, Pa., where his wife and little ones were staying with Mrs. Reid's aged father. Upon his arrival there he became very ill, much to the surprise of his doctors; his condition improved so well during the warm summer days that he thought he was able to preach, which he did several times. He enjoyed it so much that his courage ran high and he thought that he would be able to take a charge in the fall, but he had over-estimated his strength for he began to grow worse the latter part of August. From then he suffered greatly, enduring many afflictions until the angels swooped down and bore his spirit home to its Maker.

The funeral services were held in the Sayre, Pa., M. E. Church, March 9th, with the Rev. A. D. Finch, Pastor of the Athens Church in charge, assisted by the Rev. W. I. Andrews, Union, N. Y.; the Rev. J. S. Crompton, Waverly, N. Y.; the Rev. F. W. Connell, Sayre, Pa., and the Rev. C. W. Hardy, Athens Baptist Church. From the opening Scripture Lesson, through the prayers, songs, and sermon, preached from Phil. 1-21 "For me to live is Christ, and to die is gain," to the closing prayer it seemed as if the very Gates of Heaven were opened unto us, that we who remained might catch a glimpse of his triumphal entry into The Greater Life. His favorite songs, "Face to Face" and "Open the Gates of the Temple" were beautifully sung by Mrs. F. H. Smith, a long time friend of Mrs. Reid's. While the gray casket containing the mortal remains was being carried out from the presence of the Lighted Cross, which shone above the altar, the organist played softly, "Lead Kindly Light." In the procession, the Ministers were the Honorary Bearers, followed by a Guard of Honor from the K. K. K. who served as Flower Bearers, and the Pall-bearers were from The Oxford Bible Class of the Athens Church. The flowers were numerous and beautiful. The burial took place in Tioga Point Cemetery, Athens, Pa.

Recalling his forty-five years of service to the Church and Humanity, no more fitting thing could be written, than the words of Paul: "For me to live is Christ and to die is gain."

REV. CHARLES W. STEPHAN

Charles Wesley Stephan, son of George F. and Mary A. Stephan, was born in Belmont County, Ohio, February 22, 1858. While still in his infancy, his parents moved to Gracey, Ohio, and there he grew to young manhood. He was converted March 14, 1872, and joined the Pine Ridge Methodist Episcopal Church. He was united in marriage to Miss Sarah Margaret Bush, November 24, 1880. Five sons and two daughters were born to this union.

In 1892 he was admitted on trial into the West Virginia Conference, and in 1894 was received into full membership and ordained elder by Bishop Goodsell. Prior to entering the traveling ministry he served some years as a local preacher.

Charles Stephan was truly a good minister of Jesus Christ, and perhaps no one was more devotedly loyal to the church and to the charges assigned, than was he. He was a good man, possessing those traits of Christian character that leave a benediction in their path. As a preacher, he studied to show himself approved unto God, and rightly divided the word of truth. Being a close student of the Bible, he grew in the knowledge of the truth, and thus became a "discerner of the deep things of God."

How faithfully he labored, but his ministry terminated all too soon. His health began to fail, and in the fall of 1919, he, together with his wife, went to Florida in the hope that the warmer climate might prove beneficial. They remained there some time, and upon returning to West Virginia, he resumed his work in the Conference. His last charge was Rosby Rock, near Moundsville. While serving this charge he suffered a relapse, and early in the fall of 1925 again went south and located at Newhail, Florida. The trip was too taxing on his weakened vitality, and he continued to grow weaker until near midnight, Tuesday, November 24, 1925, the forty-fifth anniversary of his marriage, he peacefully fell asleep in Jesus.

His faith was firm to the last; many times he said, "tho he slay me, yet will I trust him." Again and again he repeated that beautiful line, "Sweet peace, the gift of God's love."

How anxious he was to continue his work for the Master, but when he realized that this could not be expressed a longing to "depart and be with Christ which is far better." A calm and settled peace pervaded his very being as he neared the crossing, for there was truly no moaning of the bar when he put out to sea.

On Sunday morning prior to his going away, he dictated the following message to his daughter, Myrtle, and asked her to send it to the brethren of the West Virginia Conference. This, brethren, is his last message to us. "Brethren of the West Virginia Conference: I must pass this ordeal. The suffering has been intense, such as I know not why. Battles are being fought and victories won through faith in Jesus' blood and righteousness. I am clinging, clinging to the cross."

Brother Stephan is survived by his devoted wife, the companion of the years, five sons, two daughters, seven brothers and four sisters. His body reposes in the sunny pine lands near Newhall, Florida.

Thus has ended another beautiful and useful life, but his influence will go on throughout the years.

P. Y. DeBOLT.

JOHN HAMILTON HOWARD

Rev. John H. Howard was born December 17, 1861. Married Mary L. Hoagland, April 3, 1883, who preceded him January 26, 1926.

He was received into the Virginia Conference of the M. E. Church in 1881. Two years later he transferred to the Welmington Conference where he served ten years. Then he transferred to the Newark Conference where he served thirteen years, thence to Baltimore Conference and after four years he came to the West Virginia Conference and remained in active service nine years, retiring in the fall of 1921.

He was appointed to Kingwood in 1917 and served that church two years, and in 1919 he came to Rowlesburg and was pastor of the church here one year. His last year of service was at Salem.

About two months ago he went to Virginia to visit his sister and soon after, received a second stroke. On Sunday, September 19th, he had the third stroke and departed this life September 20, 1926. His interment was in the family cemetery of that place on the 22nd.

MRS. J. H. HOWARD

Mary L. Howard, wife of the Rev. J. H. Howard, of the West Virginia Conference, was born December 12, 1863, at New Brunswick, N. J., and was married May 3, 1883, at Portsmouth, Va. A son and the only daughter died in infancy, and three sons—Dr. F. C. Howard, of Rowlesburg, W. Va.; Dr. L. H. Howard, of Tucson, Ariz., and W. M. Howard, of Portsmouth, Va., with the husband, survive.

She was forty years in the work of the ministry with her husband, always faithful to her home and her church life, and because of her quiet, consecrated life she endeared herself to all who knew her. She was a great sufferer over a long period of time but bore her affliction with great Christian fortitude and was never heard to complain.

About nine months ago, she and her husband went to Rowlesburg to receive treatment from her son. She brought her church letter and deposited it at Rowlesburg, though not able to attend the services there.

She spent her last days in the home of Dr. F. C. Howard and received the tenderest care and attention.

On January 26, only a few minutes after asserting her trust in the Lord Jesus Christ, she passed on before, to be with Him.

The funeral services in the church were in charge of her pastor, the Rev. W. C. Strohmeier, District Superintendent W. M. Shultz making the address. The interment was in the River View Cemetery.

REV. W. C. STROHMEYER.

MRS. HARRY C. HOWARD

Mrs. Harriet Earnest Howard, wife of Dr. Harry C. Howard, District Superintendent of the Wheeling District of the West Virginia Conference, was called to her reward Thursday, October 15, 1925, from her home in Wheeling.

Mrs. Howard's girlhood home was in Ravenswood, where she was a very active Christian. All of her married life she was a very faithful and helpful co-worker with her husband in the work of the church. She was for years a teacher in the Sunday School, prominent in the local, district and state work of the Woman's Missionary Societies; in fact, there was no work in the local church nor in the district in which she was not greatly interested.

The following is quoted from a tribute paid Mrs. Howard by the women of the Foreign Missionary Society of First Church, Parkersburg: "Her whole life was invested in the progress of God's Kingdom on earth and surely she has much treasure laid up in Heaven. We know that in her last hours she heard the voice of the King saying unto her 'Come, ye blessed of My Father, inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.'"

Funeral services were conducted on Sunday afternoon in Wheeling, October 18th, and also at her old home in Ravenswood on the following Monday.

Those taking part in the services were: Brothers Hess, Wagner, Beddow, G. D. Smith, McCuskey, Anderson, Hart, A. D. Craig, Goodwin, Riffe, and the writer.

REV. WM. E. CRAIG.

MRS. L. M. HANNAH

Mrs. L. M. Hannah died at the home of her son, Paul Hannah, in Hinton, W. Va., Wednesday evening, September 1st, 1926, at 7:30 o'clock, of a complication of diseases, aged 66 years. Mrs. Hannah had been a devoted member of the Methodist Episcopal Church for the past 40 years. Her husband, the Rev. Geo. P. Hannah, preceded her to the grave 26 years ago. She was a loving and self-sacrificing mother and leaves to mourn her loss, five children, viz: Mrs. W. E. Lewis, of Huntington; Mrs. W. G. Foster, and three sons, S. E., G. P. and B. M. Hannah, of Hinton. Also by seventeen grandchildren. The funeral was conducted on Friday, September 3rd, in the Little Wolf Creek Church, at 2 o'clock, by Revs. C. M. Neff and H. P. Mackney. The burial followed, in the Huffman cemetery.

REV. C. M. NEFF.

MRS. ELLA MICK

Mrs. Ella Mick, wife of Rev. Asbury Mick, for many years an honored and successful member of this Conference. Mrs. Mick was prior to her marriage, a very efficient school teacher in Charleston. In early life she united with the M. E. Church and like her illustrious brother, George Wesley Atkinson, a former Governor of his native state, who was for many years a great leader in church and college.

Mrs. Mick departed this life in her native city March 31, 1926. Funeral services were conducted in the First M. E. Church by Rev. C. B. Graham, a life long friend of the deceased and the pastor of the church, Rev C. H. Havinghurst.

REV. C. B. GRAHAM, D. D.

DISCIPLINE CONCERNING SUPERNUMERARY MINISTERS

¶ 187. A Supernumerary Minister is one who, because of impaired health, or other equally sufficient reason, is temporarily unable to perform full work. This relation shall not be granted for more than five years in succession except by a two-thirds vote of the Conference, upon recommendation of the Committee on Conference Relations, and a statement of the reasons for such recommendation. He may receive an appointment, or be left without one, according to the judgment of the Annual Conference of which he is a Member; and he shall be subject to all the limitations of the Discipline in respect to reappointment and continuance in the same Charge that apply to Effective Ministers. In case he has no Pastoral Charge he shall have a seat in the Quarterly Conference, and all the privileges of membership, in the place where he resides. He shall report to the fourth Quarterly Conference and to the Pastor all Marriages solemnized and all Baptisms administered. Should he reside beyond the bounds of his Annual Conference, he shall forward to it annually a certificate similar to that required of a Retired Minister, and in case of failure to do so the Annual Conference may locate him without his consent. He shall have no claim on the Conference funds except by vote of the Conference; such claim to be paid out of the necessitous fund.

Church Architecture

A mistake in planning, with which you must live for the life of the building or remodel at enormous costs, may be avoided by a careful study of your Church and Sunday School requirements.

Each Church and school is an individual problem; no two are alike any more than two communities are alike.

Architect's fees are small and pay larger dividends than any other money which goes into your building.

Each Department of the Sunday School bears an approximate relation (percentage of pupils) to the total enrollment of the School. They are:

Department	Age	Percent- age	Sq. Ft. Class Room per Pupil
Beginners.....	4 & 5	8	12
Primary	6, 7 & 8	12	12
Junior	9, 10 & 11	14	9
Intermediate	12, 13 & 14	10	9
Senior.....	15, 16 & 17	12	6
Young People.....	18 to 25	15 to 20	6
Adult	25 up	25 to 30	6

DENOMINATIONAL MEDIUM:

13 LEADING DENOMINATIONS CO-OPERATE IN MAKING THE WEST VIRGINIA COUNCIL. 36 DENOMINATIONS CO-OPERATE IN MAKING THE INTERNATIONAL COUNCIL. THE COUNCIL IS THOROUGHLY DEMOCRATIC, CO-OPERATIVE AND RELIGIOUS.

ACHIEVEMENTS:

The Council succeeds the old West Virginia Sunday School Association. It has therefore served West Virginia for almost fifty years. It has introduced to our people the Cradle Roll and Home Department, the Organized Class movement, the Teacher Training and Leadership Training schools, Negro Protestant Religious Education, The Graded Lessons, Vacation Church Schools and Week Day Schools of Religion, High School Courses in Bible for Credit. A circulating Library for Church School workers. It is co-operating fully with the State Board of Education for better conditions for West Virginia children, and the Council has led in many other phases of work in Religious Education.

INFORMATION GLADLY GIVEN:

Our TRAINED STAFF is ready at all times to help any Minister or Layman. When in Charleston you are welcome to visit the office.

A World Without Telephones

Without the telephone questions now answered in minutes would take hours; streets and office buildings will be choked with an army of scurrying messengers; mails would be glutted with impatient correspondence; railroads, roads, and steamships would be scenes of frenzied activity in their efforts to keep up the pace of modern-day communication.

Quietly, efficiently and unceasingly, the telephone carries the voices of a nation over the throbbing wires.

"CHARITY" or "LOVE?"

The thirteenth chapter of First Corinthians gives us one of the outstanding examples of the vast superiority of the American Standard version over all others, for what a wealth of the Christ spirit there is in the "Love" of that chapter so translated in the American Standard Bible, as compared with the "Charity" of former versions! And what a baptism of new meaning there is in thousands of other references in the

NELSON AMERICAN STANDARD BIBLE

(Edited by the American Revision Committee)

as compared with any other version!

Because of these supremely accurate translations: The American Standard Bible text has been adopted by all leading Colleges, Theological Seminaries, Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., and Bible Schools throughout the United States and is used by over 13,000,000 scholars from which to study the International, graded, or other Bible lessons.

Mt. Lake Camp Meeting

MOUNTAIN LAKE PARK, MD.

July 3-17, 1927

Mountain Lake Park Holiness Camp Meeting is the great event of the Season. It is growing better and larger each year. Overflow Crowds, Conversions and Sanctifications were common last year. Next year will be better.

ENTERTAINMENT

The Association has arranged to room and board 50-100 pastors to be selected from Maryland, Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia, free of cost during their stay for the Camp Meeting. Applications should reach us early. Send requests to Daniel Westfall.

SPEAKERS and WORKERS

To name our staff for 1926 is to assure a strong program. The workers are: Dr. H. C. Morrison, Dr. Chas. Babcock, Dr. John Owens, Dr. C. M. Dunaway, "Andy" Dolbow, Rev. W. H. Orlip and Minnie Shay. Kenneth and Mrs. Wells will lead the singing.

Address C. M. Hood, President, Moundsville, W. Va., or Daniel Westfall, Secretary, 524 Penn Ave., Pittsburgh, Pa.

.... How One Brotherhood Served

THE BROTHERHOOD Organization of the First Evangelical Lutheran Church, Ottumwa, Iowa, has a record of accomplishment that should prove an inspiration to similar organizations in other churches. This Brotherhood undertook the raising of funds for a set of Deagan Tower Chimes about which the Pastor, Rev. P. O. Bersell, wrote us as follows:

First Evangelical Lutheran Church,
Ottumwa, Iowa

"In raising funds the easiest task we had was to gather money for the Chimes. The Brotherhood organization undertook this work and in a very short time they gathered so much for this purpose that there was enough left over to decorate the church auditorium very beautifully. I have never seen men enthuse so spontaneously over any project before.

We play the Chimes at noon each day for fifteen minutes and also at six o'clock Saturday night. On Sundays and festival days they are played for fifteen minutes before each service. At funerals the low E tone is tolled slowly as the cortege is approaching and departing from the church. The tone is deeper, sweeter, and more mellow than that of any bell I have heard.

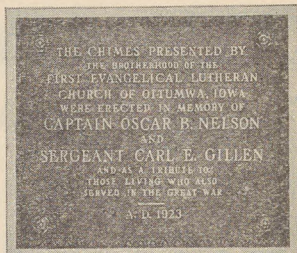

All are delighted with our new church, but that which is most commented upon is the set of Deagan Tower Chimes. They have captivated the entire congregation just as, during the last six months, they have won a place in the very life of this community of 25,000 people, so that they are already considered a valuable community asset.

In the impressive ritual of our Lutheran Church we also use the Chimes. When the congregation reads the Lord's prayer in unison the Chimes are tolled by the organist for each of the seven petitions. This is a revival of the beautiful old-country custom to give the sick and the shut-ins of the parish an opportunity to join simultaneously in the prayers of the assembled congregation. Our services close with the singing of the three-fold Amen by the congregation after the benediction. The congregation then stands in silent prayer, while the notes of the three-fold Amen are echoed on the Chimes. It is exceedingly impressive and reverent.

If our congregation were offered double the amount of money paid for the chimes, and they could not be replaced, I am very confident that by a large majority, such an offer would be turned down."

When building or remodeling your church make sure that belfry is correctly designed. Let us co-operate with you in this important matter so that when chimes are offered as a memorial they can be readily and satisfactorily installed.

FRANCIS J. McCONNELL, D.D., LL.D.
Resident Bishop

Francis J. McConnell was born in Trinway, Ohio, August 18, 1871. He received his A. B. degree from Ohio Wesleyan University in 1894; his S. T. B. from Boston University in 1879; his Ph. D. from Boston University in 1899; Doctor of Divinity from Ohio Wesleyan in 1905; LL.D. from Hanover College and Wesleyan University in 1909.

He entered the Methodist ministry in 1894. He has served the following pastorates: West Chelmsford, Mass., 1894-97; Newton Upper Falls, Mass., 1897-99; Ipswich, Mass., 1899-1902; Harvard Street, Cambridge, Mass., 1903-09. He was elected president of DePauw University in 1909, and served this institution until May, 1912, when he was elected as Bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church. He is now completing his second quadrennium as resident bishop of the Pittsburgh area.

Bishop McConnell is the author of the following books: The Diviner Immanence, 1906; Religious Certainty, 1910; Christian Focus, 1911; Preacher and the People, 1922; Is God Limited? 1924; and among his more recent works are, The Christlike God, Living Together, and the Just Weight.

WILLIAM P. THIRKIELD, D.D., LL.D.

Presiding Bishop

Wilbur P. Thirkield was born in Franklin, Ohio, September 25, 1854. He was educated at Ohio Wesleyan University, receiving his A.B. in 1876 and his A. M. in 1879. Going to Boston University of Theology, he received his degree of S. T. B. in 1881, although he had already begun his career as a minister of the Gospel in 1878. In later years he received the degree of D.D. from both Ohio Wesleyan and Emory Universities, and LL.D. from Ohio Wesleyan.

When Gammon Theological Seminary was founded in Atlanta, Georgia, he was elected its first president, and served in that capacity from 1883 to 1899. Following that he served as General Secretary of the Epworth League, and also as General Secretary of the Freedman's Aid and Southern Education Society. From 1906 to 1912 he was president of Howard University. In 1912 he was elected Bishop, has superintended the New Orleans and New Mexico Areas, and at present is assigned to Chattanooga.

He is a member of Beta Theta Pi, of Phi Beta Kappa, and of the Masonic fraternity. He is also well known as an author of devotional and religious literature, and is prominent as a member of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America.

Prayer.

Congregational Prayer for the Conference Session:

"O Lord of Heaven and earth, who has promised to reveal Thy glory by Jesus Christ among all nations; we beseech Thee, Thy Holy Church throughout the world. Especially do Thou send now Thy blessing upon this Conference assembled in Thy name. Grant unto Thy servants the spirit of power, and of love, and of sound mind, that we may be wise in council and diligent in service, faithful stewards of the things belonging to Thy Kingdom, and worthy successors of the Apostles whom our Lord sent forth to testify of Him. Direct and govern us by Thy Holy Spirit, preserving us from hasty judgment and vain dispute, inspiring us with hearty love and true devotion, and guiding us both to devise and do those things which shall be for the glory of Christ's name, for the welfare of His Church, for the peace of all believers, for the spread of the Gospel, and for the good of the whole world. Amen."

Hymn 197—"Spirit of God, descend upon my heart."

Wagner then presented the resolution relating to the plan as submitted by the Board of Pensions and Relief. His remarks were followed by much discussion from members of the Conference, and on motion of H. D. Ketcham, the following amended resolution was adopted:

RESOLUTION

TO THE GENERAL CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, TO BE HELD AT KANSAS CITY, MO., MAY, 1928:

Dear Fathers and Brethren:

WHEREAS, There has been presented to the West Virginia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church the "Complete Text of the Plan of the Ministers' Reserve Pension Fund," of the Methodist Episcopal Church as approved by the Board of Pensions and Relief; therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED, (1) That we hereby approve the principle of providing adequate reserve funds to protect and stabilize the payment of pension and other benefits to the retired and disabled ministers of the Methodist Episcopal Church and to the widows and orphans of Methodist preachers.

(2) That we commend to the next General Conference the adjustment of the pension program of the Church in such manner as to make the progressive funding of pensions for "New Entrants" a certainty, and at the same time make provision for the guaranty of all pensions based on services rendered by "Previous Entrants";

(3) We urge the General Conference to direct that steps be taken to promote a general effort throughout the Church to secure the requisite reserve so as to make possible at an early day the reserve funding of all accrued pensions;

(4) That we approve the general principles embodied in the 'Complete Text of the Plan of the Ministers' Reserve Pension Fund,' prepared and approved by the Board of Pensions and Relief, as furnishing a progressive program that will gradually stabilize the pension system of Methodism on a reserve basis, without disturbing meanwhile, pension operations under the "Original Pension System of 1908; and respectfully memorialize the General Conference to adopt the Plan of the Ministers' Reserve Fund and incorporate it into the legislation of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

(Provision)

Providing, that the interests of those who are now members of the Conference, and who shall be before January 1, 1929, shall be fully safeguarded, as well as the interests of these returned new entrants.

REPORTS—Arthur Lazenby read the report of the Committee on Education, and on motion, it was adopted, carrying with it the election of Trustees for the West Virginia Wesleyan College and the Wesleyan foundation.

H. B. Workman read the report of the Board of Stewards which, upon motion, was adopted.

L. E. Ressegger presented the report of the Committee on Resolutions and Respects, which was adopted.

William Coleman, Chairman of the Committee on Memorials to the General Conference, presented the following report, which on motion, was adopted:

1. We, the committee, recommend the adoption of the "Kansas Plan" for the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the Methodist Episcopal Church Discipline of 1924.

2. That the Memorial from the Dakota Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, October 9, 1926, "Protest Against the Use of Cigarettes," be adopted by the West Virginia Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Signed by the Chairman of the Committee

VI. REPORTS, BOARDS, COMMISSIONS AND COMMITTEES

COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN MISSIONS

We, your committee on Foreign Missions report as follows

1. We deply regret that there has been in the past few years a falling off on the giving for World Service. But when we come to consider the condition industrially in the state, we are not surprised at the decrease.

2. We are glad to note a feeling of optimism for better times in the coming year, and we urge upon the district superintendents and pastors to make a special effort to take advantage of this confidence to present the couse of our World Service program and if possible to secure a more generous giving to it.

3. We recommend that every Sunday school be organized as a missionary society and that missionary study classes be established in every church during the coming conference year; the excellent missionary literature prepared by the Board of Foreign Missions should be freely and widely used in every church; and that we should call attention of the pastors to the richfund of sermon material that can be found in the printed matter sentoutby the Mission Board without cost.

4. We as a Conference pledge again our loyalty to the missionary program of our beloved church; and we will do our utmost to make this new year richer ad better in ittssupport of the world-wide effort of Methodism, to obey the command of our Lord to go into all the world and disciple all nations.

Committee Chairman WM. B. KING,
Secretary F. V. ARNETT,

COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION

Your committee on Education begs to submit the following report:

STUDENT LOAN FUND

We would urge our pastors to bring more definitely before our people the value and purpose of this fund—the accrued result of Children's Day offerings. Let careful explanation of the fund be made prior to the observance of Children's Day that our young people who need such assistance as this fund makes possible may know of it.

THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS

We recognize the increasing necessity of thorough training and equipment for every young man entering the ministry, and should keep before prospective candidates for the ministry such schools as Garrett Biblical School, Boston School of Theology and Drew Seminary, all highest grade schools.

WESLEY FOUNDATION

We desire to stress the importance of the heartiest cooperation on the part of all our pastors with the trustees of Wesley Foundation and with the able director, Myron S. Collins. Wesley Foundation, in its activities during this last year has been the Spiritual Alma Mater to over nine hundred students at the State University at Morgantown. This is its reason for being and its aim. These students prepare themselves to become lawyers, doctors, teachers and business men in our state and elsewhere and it is our duty to give to them the best surroundings and spiritual influences at our command during their stay at the University. We need adequate housing for this work, such housing as will be an accomplished fact when the campaign already decided upon is brought to a successful end. We would call upon every member of the Conference to leave no stone unturned in his efforts to make that campaign a glorious success.

We recommend as trustees of Wesley Foundation for the term of six years:

W. E.: Lowther, C. F. Anderson, D. C. Pickens, R. A. Armstrong, W. E. Arnett, C. W. Evans.

CONFERENCE BOARD OF EDUCATION

We recommend as members of the Board of Education for a term of three years:

B. T. Trevy, D. C. Pickens, C. E. Goodwin, R. B. Nay, U. G. Young, H. W. Harmer.

WEST VIRGINIA WESLEYAN COLLEGE

We are pleased to learn that the present year opens very auspiciously with a finer spirit of cooperation among trustees, faculty and constituency than ever before; with a more decided spirit of optimism among students and friends of the college and with an enrollment that is in excess of last year's high total.

We would speak a word of appreciation of the excellent record made during his first year as president, by Dr. Hober E. Wark. Very much of the credit for the present high standing of the college is due to his very able administration. Through his efforts to a large degree is due the fact that West Virginia Wesleyan College is now a member of the North Central Association of Colleges. A fact which is a signal honor and one well calculated to bring increasingly to Wesleyan the attention of the people of this and other states.

The stand on Athletics, the high religious ideals held up and emphasized before the student body and the advance program presented by President Wark and accepted by the Conference are convincing evidence that it is only a matter of time when West Virginia Wesleyan will be the leading college in the state.

We would herewith give the members of the Conference an opportunity to EMPHASIZE their determination, as expressed in their recent vote on the proposed financial campaign, to make this Advance Program a glorious reality by a cordial co-operation with those in charge of the campaign to raise a FUND OF FIVE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS until that amount PLUS has been secured.

We recommend the continuance of the Committee of Christian Education appointed last year, consisting of Dr. H. E. Wark, Myron S. Collins, C. G. Stater, C. W. Evans, E. S. Stoeffel.

And that the Sunday immediately preceding Lincoln's Birthday be observed as Christian Education Day and the offering for that purpose be taken at that time.

We recommend as trustees of West Virginia Wesleyan College for the term of four years: H. D. Clark, C. E. Goodwin, F. S. Townsend, J. E. Wells, L. G. Beerbower, Clyde O. Law, W. B. Mathews, S. V. Woods, Paul Smith and Mrs. Lena Lowe Yost.

For the term of three years: Ronald Moist.

For the term of one year: J. C. McWhorter.

We recommend as visitors to the college: L. S. Grose and J. C. Hoffman.

(Signed) ARTHUR LAZENBY, Chairman,
J. H. ANDERSON, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SUNDAY SCHOOLS AND RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Your Committee respectfully submits the following:

Leadership Training

The chief challenge in our church schools is the task of training teachers and officers. The establishment of Standard Training Schools is an imperative part of our program of Religious Education. We report with satisfaction three District Standard Schools of Leadership Training, to-wit: Charleston, Huntington, Wheeling, which enlisted some 800 workers in intensive study. We urge the necessity of each district setting up such a school. We report with commendation also Training schools conducted by West Virginia Council of Education at Moundsville, Beckley and Logan, in which our churches co-operated, our pastors at respective places being Deans.

Training in Worship

A commanding emphasis in Religious Education is now being placed on training in worship. We know the existing gap between Sunday school and church attendance. Our children and youth by the large are not forming the blessed habit of congregational worship. In order to train them for the practice of public worship, we must teach them how to worship. Services of worship in our church schools must be graded and organized so as to meet the experience and needs of young life. The hymns, prayers, Scriptures are required to be graded, as well as the lessons and courses of study, in teaching religion. Let us have worshipping schools, and train our youth into the worship and work of the church.

Literature and Publications

We note with high appreciation the fine quality and educational value of the varied lines of our Church School literature, and commend the work of the curriculum committee of the Board of Education and the Editors of church school publications. Our Conference has been honored by the presence of Dr. Matthew P. Trenery, General Secretary of the Department of Church Schools of the Board of Education, and Dr. Jonathan B. Hawks, associate editor of Sunday School publications. Their visit has delighted the workers in the field of religious education. We respectfully memorialize the General Conference to continue the organization work and strengthen the leaders of our program of Religious Education.

Vacation and Week-Day Schools

Notable progress has been made in the extension of Daily Vacation Bible Schools throughout the state. Exceptional work has been accomplished in the Huntington District in which 2100 boys and girls have attended summer vacation church schools, more than one-third of whom are in the industrial section of Raleigh county. Much credit is due to Rev. A. Coleman Brown, Superintendent of Huntington District Missionary Union, who has directed the leaders in this work. We express the appreciation of the Conference for the splendid co-operation of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension in contributing the expert services of Dr. Brown. We suggest the expansion of this part of our program and the heading up of leadership in a Conference Director of Religious Education, supported by the Conference, with a trained worker for each District supported by the District.

Your committee records expression of appreciation of the pioneer work of Rev. O. R. Snodgrass, who has served as Conference Director of Religious Education during the past year with great sacrifice and devotion. He accepted the challenge and gave himself to the task unstintedly with abandon and financial sacrifice almost insuperable.

Week-Day Church Schools of Religion are coming to be the inevitable and indispensable part of Religious Education. Wheeling now has a system of Week-Day Schools, in which our M. E. Churches are conducting real schools of religion. We suggest that other cities and towns establish such schools.

Mention should be made of the contribution of Aaron H. Rapping, specialist in Country Life Work, who has assisted in several Leadership Training Schools within our borders. He has featured emphatically religious education in Rural Churches.

The West Virginia Council of Religious Education, with headquarters at Charleston, has been going ahead with the task of reorganization. The Council has been recognized from year to year by this Conference for its importance to the general field of religious education within our state. Much has been achieved by the Council and its program becomes greater than ever. It is making a distinctive contribution of many communities in West Virginia. Our cordial greetings are extended to Dr. F. E. Brininstool, General Secretary, and we pledge co-operation within our Conference touching any phases of Religious Education under his direction. We nominate as members of the Executive Committee of West Virginia Council, the following: A. H. Rapping, S. C. Jones, M. C. Miles, J. R. Bright, A. S. Thomas, John Raine, J. M. Scott, W. T. Williamson, ex-officio president of Council.

Respectfully submitted and signed,

J. R. BRIGHT, Chairman,

SAMUEL CHARLES JONES, Secretary.

EPWORTH LEAGUE REPORT

We, your committee on Epworth League, wish to submit the following:

We wish first of all to record our confidence in our young people of the Conference, notwithstanding all pessimistic ideas that they are all going to the bad. We are persuaded that the greatest need in regard to the work of the League and young people's work is that of co-operation of all of our pastors. While all may not be natural leaders of the young people, we believe that they could show an appreciative sympathy for them instead of a lack of confidence in them. They want to do things and will work with us if we will give them a chance.

Central Office

We wish to express our appreciation for the valuable help that the Central Office has rendered through their suggested programs and also through personal correspondence. We would like to suggest to all of our pastors that they make use of their assistance and pass on to their leaders of the League the possibility of their getting help from the Central Office.

Among the outstanding things in relation to our Epworth League work we want to mention the following:

Win-My-Chum Campaign

We cannot minimize the value of Win-My-Chum campaign in the work of the League. We consider this of primary importance in winning our young people to faith in God and allegiance to Jesus Christ and his principles of life. We also believe that consecrated young people can do more in winning their comrades than any one else. Next to winning them is the task of training them for service in the church and the community of which they are a part. If the results of this campaign are conserved this must be done and in no superficial way.

Epworth Herald

We wish to recommend the Epworth Herald as a valuable ally to every Chapter of the League in our Conference for its suggestions on the topics and its inspirational worth in many directions. It is very valuable for every officer especially, and by this we are not saying that it will not help others.

Department Work

The main emphasis for the coming year is upon the work of the First department. The theme suggested is, Comrades of the Emmaus Way, the idea is to bring our young people into a closer walk with Christ. Let every pastor co-operate and every chapter emphasize this important topic this year. But we would remind you that while our emphasis is upon the First department, yet we have other work which must not be neglected. So we would call attention to the Second department with its work of Evangelism, and the Third department, which gives the young people a chance to minister to those in their own community who are in need of help one way or another. And last, the Fourth, which ministers to the Recreational and Social part of their life.

Mid-Year Institutes

It is with a deep sense of appreciation that we mention the the Mid-Year Institutes. First of all because they bring the spirit of the Institute to a large number of communities than the Conference Institute. And also because it touches the life of many of our young people who do not get to go to Buckhannon. Let us place more emphasis on these during the winter.

Conference Institute

We regret that it was impossible for Dr. McCuskey, who was elected to fill out the term of Dr. Pickens, who resigned after going to Charleston District. We are glad that Dr. McCuskey is recovering and look forward to having him with us next year. We are glad to welcome Rev. W. S. Patterson as the new Manager for the coming year.

The Twenty-four Hour Day League, Plan and World Service

We heartily endorse the Twenty-four Hour Day Plan as the method by which our Epworth Leagues may share in the World Service. The plan involves the giving of at least one dollar per year per member through the Epworth League. This amount is not too large for any of our young people, and yet would leave its value in training them in systematic giving to the benevolence of the church.

The general work of the Epworth League has been seriously threatened by the inadequate income during these recent months, by reason of the Epworth League preferential granted by the World Service Commission, fifty per cent of all money sent to the Central Office as Twenty-four Hour Day funds goes directly into the work of the League, in addition to its regular percentage. Since the local church receives full World Service credit for all contribution, we urge the pastor to encourage their young people to make their gifts to World Service directly through the Epworth League.

Only twenty-one chapters of our Conference out of one hundred and forty-nine last year made Twenty-four Hour Day payments to the Central Office. We congratulate them, but believe the percentage should be much higher this year. To enlist the other one hundred and twenty-eight to give will bring up our support for World Service as well as help the Central Office to carry on their work.

Junior League

We desire to call the attention of all our pastors to the very important value of the Junior League. The Junior League helps to supplement the work of the home in training our boys and girls in the spirit of work and service. It helps to train the boys for the Senior League, and for membership in the Church. And in this age when there is so much crime, and especially when they say that the age of youth in crime is being lowered we need to give our best effort in helping to stem the tide. May we not have more Junior Leagues this year?

We wish to endorse the following Conference officers and ask your approval of the same for this year:

President, Dr. F. H. Fast, Clendenin, W. Va.

First Vice President, J. W. Tucker, Morgantown, W. Va.

Second Vice President, Rev. Joseph Hoffman, Rainelle, W. Va.

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS

We, your committee on Books and Periodicals, submit the following resolutions:

Whereas, we believe that our people in general are lacking in the information in regard to the workings of our great church and that this is largely due to their failure to read our Church Paper. In view of this fact, we believe that our Church Paper, the Pittsburgh Christian Advocate, can supply these growing needs among our people, young and old. That the Advocate means an ark of blessing to every heart and home in which it is givenplace.

Whereas, we believe that our church membership grows in loyalty and love in proportion to the information it gets by reading our official paper and that, we believe every religious home needs and should have a religious periodical and that, the increas of subscriptions to the Pittsburgh Christian Advocate would give a more loyal and prosperous Church.

That the goal of One-Advocate-to-each-Church-Family is not too high for the future church.

Whereas, we believe that our editor and managr, Doctors Wallace and Westfall, are doing their utmost to give us everything worth while through the Advocate.

Whereas, we believe that the books handled by our Book Concern are manog the very best literature that can be secured for safe and sound reading of all ages. And that our manager, Mr. Burk, has at all times sought skillfully to give his people those publications that promise a more thorough Christian Church.

Therefore be it resolved, that we heartily renew our pledge and loyalty to these official organs of our Church.

Respectfully submitted,
 (Signed) L. C. HARRIS, Chairman,
 WESLEY WOODRUFF, Secretary.

REPORT NO. 7—CONFERENCE MINUTES

We your committee on Conference Minutes, offer the following report:

In view of the fact that the cost of publishing our Conference Minutes is constantly increasing and that advertising space is becoming more difficult to sell, we urge that all pastors be prompt in paying to the fund any amount that may be recommended by the Conference.

Therefore, Be it resolved, that each effective preacher in full connection be requested to contribute $2.50 annually to this fund and that each probationer and supply in charge of a work be requested to contribute $2.00 annually to this fund, said amounts to be payable in advance at the seat of the annual conference and if not paid at the time the Secretary shall send to each one their proportionate amount of Conference Minutes, with statement for same, which is to be paid on presentation.

Respectfully submitted,
T. H. TAYLOR, Chairman,
L. G. ROBINSON.

BIBLE CAUSE

The American Bible Society has been in a special sense a part of the organized benevolence of the Methodist Episcopal Church for more than eighty years. It has been recognized as our agency for Bible work. To it all our churches contribute in their World Service offerings, a percentage of which is devoted to this cause.

The Bible is the source from which we derive the doctrines of our faith. The work of Bible distribution is the basis of one of the most important of the great international societies engaged in this foundation work. It is constantly occupied with the work of new translation and revision. Already it has made the Bible accessible in more than 175 languages.

The publishing of the Bible in so many foreign languages and dialects by the American Bible Society, is of supreme importance to Missionaries carrying Christ and Christianity to the benighted millions of the earth.

If we are to have an intelligent and Christ-like Church there must be a return to the Bible reading custom of our fathers. If we hope to exemplify the teaching of the Savior we must know His teaching by patient, loving continuance in His words.

We commend this society, and pray God's blessing upon its work. We urge upon pastors and people alike a deeper study of the Sacred volume. We call attention to the emphasis placed upon the Word of God, in the addresses of our good Bishop Thirkield, and in the messages of Dr. Chas. L. DeBow, and Dr J. T. Wardle Stafford. This we believe is the secret of success for the ministry, is a plain and simple expounding of the Sacred word.

(Signed) W. D. WINTERS, President,
J. H. FUNK, Secretary.

SABBATH OBSERVATION

We, your Committee on Sabbath Observance, offer the following resolutions:

That whereas the world will love its own, and the allurements of the world are giving their bids for the souls of men, not satisfied with six days of business and pleasure, but now are making their demand for the Lord's Day, namely, the Christian Sabbath,

Resolved, First, that we as a Christian body, lend our influence by word, in prayer, in making laws and enforcing them, against all forms of Sabbath breaking, such as baseball, football, buying and selling, doing unnecessary work, operating or patronizing places of amusement, playing or singing songs that do not tend to the glory of God, or allowing anything in the home which would tend to draw the mind of the young away from the sanctity of the Sabbath.

Second, That we keep the Sabbath day as a day of rest, for public and private worship of God. We advise that all parents (for Christ's sake) will demand that their children under age will remember and keep to the best of their ability the Sabbath holy unto the Lord.

Third, That we endorse the great work of the Lord's Day Alliance of Maryland and bid them Godspeed.

Respectfully submitted,

M. W. CASTLE, Chairman.

ROWLAND ASPINALL, Secretary.

RESPECTS AND RESOLUTIONS

A very pleasing custom has grown up within our Conference during the past several years whereby we pause to note the changes during the past several years whereby we pause a moment to note the changes of relation among our members which the changing years and circumstances produce. To those who sever their Conference ties by transfer and to those who either enter the retired relation or pursue any calling which may take them out of the acting list we bid Godspeed and peace.

To Those Who Go Out

Two of our men leave us from other fields of labor, John A. Vol-lenwider, who goes to the New York East Conference, and George D. Sampson, who goes to the Baltimore Conference. The retiring men are H. J. Metheny, Perry Robinson, H. K. Riffe, J. H. Funk, W. F. McKain and D. B. Orr.

Our Conference could never have moved so smoothly or carried on so successfully were it not for the thought and patience, good judgment and skill of those who planned and wrought both before and during our Conference session.

The president of the Conference, Wilbur P. Thirkield, has made a real contribution to our spiritual life and development by his devotional talks from morning. In the chair he has always been patient, fair and helpful in every way. Dr. J. T. Wardle Stafford of Bristol, England, and Dr. Charles L. DeBow of Cleveland, Ohio, have wonderfully contributed to the spiritual uplift of our Conference thus meeting a long felt need. We wish to express our sincere appreciation and thank them for their helpful messages.

The Secretary, the Treasurer, the Statistician and their assistants are those upon whom fall perhaps the heaviest work of our Conference sessions. We appreciate their work.

We thank the local press for the space given from day to day for Conference news.

To the pastor of this Church, Rev. Claude E. Goodwin, the Official Board and Members we owe a debt of appreciation for the way in which their homes have been opened to us and for every provision made for our comfort and enjoyment. They have made our stay a time of pleasure and profit. We thank our sister churches for their kind spirit of co-operation and helpfulness.

We thank the Church Choir for their inspiring music night after night. Their gospel in song will not be forgotten.

We remember with kindly thoughts the janitor of this church, who has been careful for our comfort during these conference days.

We hope and pray that this church, wherein we have carried on our meetings from day to day, and upon every home which has been open to receive the ministers and delegates may fall the showers of blessings and that the God of all comfort and grace may continually be in their midst.

Respectfully submitted,

L. E. RESSEGGER, Chairman,
FRED. S. BISHOP, Secretary.

TEMPERANCE

Resolutions Passed by Joint Committee from the West Virginia Conference M. E. Church and the Western Virginia Conference M. E. Church, South, on Temperance and Prohibition.

Note:—This resolution was adopted by rising unanimous vote of both Conferences, assembled in joint meeting on Saturday afternoon, September 24, in the Johnson Memorial Church.

Earnestly calling for the hearty and active co-operation of all our Methodist Churches, Sunday Schools, Epworth Leagues, and all other organizations and societies in favor of prohibition and civic righteousness, we your committee on Temperance and Social Reform, make the following recommendations:

Inasmuch as the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment, with its allies, is sending out both men and women workers, as many as "a dozen" in one city, at one time, securing signers to petitions for the return of beer and wine, and at the same time endeavoring to secure nomination and election of a wet U. S. President and Congress, and are otherwise encouraging the nullification of the dry law,

Resolved, First, That in this present crisis we as members of this conference hereby publicly call upon our constituency in this State to renew their zeal and efforts to meet this persistent, insidious and pernicious attack upon our Constitution and dry policy;

Resolved, Second, That inasmuch as candidates for President, U. S. Senators, Congressmen, State Legislature, certain Judges and all County officers are to be nominated in the coming Primaries, we will support at the polls, from President to constable, only such candidates whose character, record and past lives, are a guarantee that they will loyally support our dry policy, state and National;

Resolved, Third, That we heartily commend Commander John D. Pennington for seeking honestly, justly and sanely to enforce the Prohibition law and for being "dead in earnest" about it; that we also commend the faithful efforts of Hon. Ross Wells, State Prohibition Commissioner, and all officers, legislative, judicial and executive, who are honestly endeavoring to carry into effect our prohibition policy; and that we call on Governor Gore and all officers to continue increasingly vigorous enforcement of the dry law; and we call upon the press, platform, pulpit and all citizens to uphold the law, back up the faithful officers and call to account derelict officers, high and low;

Resolved, Fourth, That we commend the West Virginia Anti-Saloon League and the Women's Christian Temperance Union for their vigorous campaign which eliminated all wet candidates for congress in the late primary election, as well as many candidates for lesser offices in the general election, and their successful efforts in the State Legislature; and that we request the League again to furnish the voters with the most reliable information obtainable regarding the record, character and attitude of candidates and prohibition;

Resolved, Fifth, That since the recent legislature re-enacted the law making mandatory the teaching of the evils of bverage alcohol and narcotics, we will strongly encourage this teaching in our public schools, as a safeguard for the future.

Resolved, Sixth, That we urge our next legislature to increase the penalty for drunkenness, now but one dollar, and in every way possible to strengthen our dry law, especially covering state-wide warrants, and "Home Brew."

Resolved, Seventh, That we declare it to be our firm conviction that the Prohibition Department should be retained and adequately financed, and that we strongly protest against change in our definition of Liquor from that enacted by the Legislature of 1868, and that our effective Permit System be retained;

Resolved, Eighth, That we pay sincere tribute to the patriotism and devotion to this cause on the part of the most faithful officers who jeopardize and sacrifice their lives to uphold law and orderly government, and that we extend sincere sympathy to the bereaved;

That we hold, as in a measure, morally co-responsible for these assassinations, the work of every person, organization and agency which themselves violate the law directly and indirectly encourage violation by others; makers, sellers and buyers of unconstitutional outlawed liquor; enforcement officers who wink at violations, are lax in their efforts to enforce the law, connive or conspire with violators, and thereby encourage law breaking and bloodshed; citizens who are indifferent to civic duty and inactive in backing up faithful officers and securing removal of incompetents, derelicts and traitors;

Resolved, Ninth, That we approve of the faithful and efficient work of O. M. Pullen as Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, and pledge him and the League our hearty support and request Bishop W. P. Thirkield to reappoint him to the same position for another year;

Resolved, Tenth, That we request the Conference to re-elect J. W. Engle and S. K. Arbuthnot as trustees of th State Anti-Saloon League for the M. E. Church, and W. L. Reid and W. M. Given for the M. E. Church, South.

J. B. COOK, Chairman Committee.

REPORT OF PERMANENT FUND COMMISSION

We wish to record our appreciation of the untiring efforts of the Secretary of the Permanent Fund, Dr. Frank S. Townsend, and of the generous and efficient services of the Treasurer, the Hon. U. G. Young.

We note with pleasure the steady increase of the Permanent Fund from year to year, and we appreciate the interest and generosity which makes this increase possible. We realize, however, that the Fund is far too small. We therefore desire that the Secretary continue his efforts both for collections and for new gifts, and we urge pastors and laymen to co-operate with him in every possible way.

The Secretary of the Permanent Fund is an important official of the Conference, and should be welcomed to the pulpits of all the churches.

All pastors are requested to arrange appointments for him whenever local conditions make it possible, and to give him such information as will aid him in his work. This applies particularly to persons who may be able to give gifts or to do something by way of legacies or annuities.

We wish the members of the Conference to understand the relation of their own cases to any New Pension Plan. If the New Pension Plan is adopted it will probably be introduced gradually, as younger men come into the Conference and leave those now in the ministry to be provided for under the present system. It is therefore of the greatest importance that the Permanent Fund be increased, and we ask for the interest of all to this desired end.

ARCHIBALD MOORE, President.
 CHAS. G. STATER, Secretary.

COMMISSION ON FINANCE

Huntington, W. Va., September 24, 1927.

Minutes of the Commission on Finance of meeting held in Huntington First M. E. Church, Saturday, September 24, 1927, with John Beddow presiding.

Treasurer A. E. Treanor made his report which on motion was adopted.

Motion was made that the salary of the District Superintendents be placed at $5,000 per year and that the collections be taken from the charges in the Conference on the basis of an equivalent of 9% of the cash salaries of the pastors.

On motion, it was ordered that the seven District Superintendents were deficient last year to the extent of $75.00 on the salary of each and that it be paid up in full from the surplus funds in the hands of the treasurer.

Election of Officers—On motion, John Beddow was elected as Chairman, E. A. Treanor, Treasurer, and J. E. Scott as Secretary for the coming year.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE CORRESPONDING SECRETARY WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY

"Looking Backward—Thinking Forward," the watchword for the Jubilee of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, was the inspiration of our president, Mrs. Wilbur P. Thirkield.

Looking backward during the past year, in many ways marks our greatest work, because of the strengthening and building up of the departments.

The 90 auxiliaries, 66 circles and 44 Junior organizations, with their 7,268 members have brought in receipts amounting to $31,610.62. All pledges and obligations paid in full. This is the direct result of the faithful service of each and all of our members and officers in our Junior Bands, circles, auxiliaries, district and Conference work.

With deep appreciation, we note the increased interest in the Thank Offering and Lenten Offering Services.

Three executive meetings of the Conference Board were held. The growing interest and business demands of the work make these meetings necessary.

Holloway Deaconess Home, Bridgeport, has been undergoing repairs. Under the direction of Miss Rena Crawford, the nine deaconesses continue their splendid work.

SETTLEMENTS

Minnie Nay Settlement, Miss Gladys Bowers, Superintendent

Assisted by Miss Young and Miss Swenson. This settlement shows results that exceed other years. The "decisions" for Christ were greater in number, and much other work of a high degree was done. Two Vacation Bible Schools under the direction of Minnie Nay Settlement, one at the settlement and the other at McMechen, were conducted with large attendance and good results. Work at the settlement was continued throughout the summer, Sunday School being held each Sunday. It is hoped that during this year, the indebtedness of $1,500 will be cancelled.

Engle Settlement, Fairmont. Miss Matilda Reeves is the new superintendent; Miss Stevens and Miss Wilson are the new assistants. They are planning a larger program, extending the work over a greater territory, including rural districts.

Scott's Run Settlement, Osage. The crowning event of our year was the dedication of our new $18,000 settlement house here on last Sunday, September 18th. The dedicatory services were conducted by Bishop Wilbur P. Thirkield. It was a most inspiring event, and was witnessed by a large number from all parts of the Conference.

The completion of this large, fine, completely equipped settlement house was accomplished only after many serious and at times disheartening obstacles had been overcome. Among these was a disastrous fire which destroyed the entire equipment. But from the ashes of this fire has arisen a modern settlement house which is the pride of the community and of the Conference.

Miss Grace Yoakam, superintendent, and her assistant, Miss Crothers, have worked most diligently and faithfully, performing a great task with almost nothing. Now that they have the new settlement house, they will carry on the work with new inspiration, courage and vigor.

BIRTHDAY JUBILEE PLANS

In 1930, our Society will be 50 years old, as you know, and we will celebrate our Jubilee. The year just closed was the second year of our Jubilee Plans. Our goals for that year were Evangelism and Etewardship. The goal for the present year is Membership. By 1930 we hope to reach our mark, which has been set at 10,000 members.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE CONFERENCE WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY

Plans are being formulated for this meeting, which will be held in First Church, Parkersburg, on October 31st and November 1st and 2nd. A large and enthusiastic attendance is anticipated. Mrs. Dan B. Brummitt, other national speakers, and our settlement superintendents will be on the program, as well as many others.

DISTRICT MEETINGS

Last year Mrs. Cora Downs Stevens, national field secretary, captivated our members at the seven district meetings. Her return was unanimously requested. She will again be with us in our district meetings this year.

"Thinking Forward"—May we be guided by our national text, "Call upon Me, and I will answer thee, and show thee great and mighty things thou knowest not of;" and go forth in the strength of our watchword: "Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith the Lord of Hosts."

MRS. R. B. NAY, President.

MRS. S. K. ARBUTHNOT, Corres. Sec'y.

September 24, 1927.

SECOND ANNUAL REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON METHODIST HISTORY

To the West Virginia Annual Conference:

We beg to report considerable progress in the appointment of local church historians, and respectfully urge the district superintendents at the first quarterly conference to ask "Who shall be local historian for each appointment?" Our delegates to the General Conference should see that this becomes an official question concerning an official position.

EARLY CONFERENCE BIOGRAPHY

We are happy to report a beginning in the reprinting of historical data relating to the ministers of the Conference. The official memoirs of the first one hundred members to go to their well-earned reward have been compiled by this committee from the minutes in which they originally appeared, and a posthumous article by Dr. George Cleaton Wilding, long a prominent member of the Conference, on early members who were transferred to other fields of labor, have been published in one volume through the generosity of Mr. Charles L. Scholl, of the Scholl Printing Company, of Parkersburg.

This publication is of rare value and of great interest to the historian in obtaining a correct estimate of the work of that period.

BIOGRAPHY OF MINISTERS

The records of the Methodist Episcopal Church are so complete and reliable that the career of any of our ministers may be fully traced and recorded.

This Committee received a request for the ministerial history of Joseph T. Barringer. To show how complete and reliable are the records of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and the willingness of the Methodist Book Concern at Cincinnati, to look up the same, we were enabled to submit a complete record of this faithful man of God, who preached the Gospel for 33 years without ever asking for a Sabbatical year or the supernumerary or superannuated relation.

We also found the official memoir in appreciation of the services of this active, engaging and successful one-time pastor at Charleston, who was born in 1817 and who died in 1871.

UNPUBLISHED MINUTES

The minutes of the first six sessions of our Conference, 1848 to 1853, were never printed, nor was that for 1857. They have been typewritten from the original journals and these manuscripts average 25 closely typewritten pages. The printed copies for the years 1854, 1855 and 1856 average 40 pages. To include these three year books and publish all for the first ten years would make an interesting volume for reference and preservation and one worthy the generosity of anyone who would donate the funds necessary to effect this purpose. The statistical contents make it rather costly, but some of the unimportant tabular presentations might be omitted.

There also is extant a work of fiction in manuscript, narrating the early customs of the early saddle-bag days in West Virginia, but which might not prove a "best seller" in this modern jazz era, still to historians, it would be of helpful interest, and if properly edited would be worthy of publication.

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS REPORTS

As pointed out in the report of last year, the discontinuance of the publication in the year book of the annual reports of the district superintendents is a source of great regret to this Committee. Those of conference evangelists are retained. We recommend the adoption of our former suggestion that a limited abstract be prepared by each superintendent for publication in the minutes.

WHAT A PRESBYTERIAN THINKS OF A METHODIST CHURCH

The Honorable Andrew Price, President of the West Virginia Historical Society, published the following encomium of the Methodist Church in the Pocahontas Times, which is well worthy of preservation, coming as it does from a source alike competent and unbiased:

"Sinclair Lewis is one of the scoffers. When he fails to grasp the meaning of the Methodist Church, he shows a profound ignorance of the events that made the United States possible. The history of the Methodist Church is the history of the American people. That is the church that the pioneers sheltered in. Their preachers went always in the front. No frontier was so far distant, so dangerous, or so uncomfortable, but that the circuit rider was there to perform his manifold duties. And it is the church today that affords the consolation of religion to the greatest area. I think of the circuit rider as the heroic figure of America. And today while they may be poor and burdened with cares and responsibility, they have good reason to be proud of the way they are serving their God and their country."

MINISTERIAL SUCCESSION

We again urge the "local historian" to compile a list of the pastors of his charge. Would it not be worth the trouble for each church to complete a correct list of its pastors, artistically engross and frame the same and give it a place on its walls for the information of all its members for all time to come.

THE CLIFTON HOMECOMING

In the Huntington District a notable Homecoming and re-dedication was held at Clifton on the Clifton-Mason Charge, Rev. W. L. Gearhart, pastor.

The exercises continued through Wednesday to Sunday, inclusive, August 24-28. Dr. J. E. Bird of this committee, very appropriately delivered the sermons on Sunday. A most interesting historical letter by Dr. C. E. Manchester, who built this church in 1872, and years afterwards was President McKinley's pastor, was read.

The Clifton church has been redecorated within and repainted without, memorial windows and new lighting fixtures installed and other improvements made, the cost of which was oversubscribed. Such homecomings should be promoted throughout the entire Conference.

A COMPLETE DISTRICT ORGANIZATION

The Parkersburg District reported a "historian" for each charge, but as the committee member for that district, J. W. Dawson, was appointed to the Cameron charge in the Wheeling District, there remained no member to report the work accomplished. A new appointee on the Committee for Parkersburg district should be made at this session of the Conference.

A HELPFUL ANNOUNCEMENT

In the Wheeling district, Miss Scott has been active in securing additional local "historians," and during the year collected a number of Methodist books, hymnals, sermons, tracts, clippings, etc.

The following notice appeared in the Fourth Street Herald, the weekly bulletin of that great church:

Miss Laura D. Wincher and Mrs. Anna Marsh have been appointed and approved by the Quarterly Conference as representatives of Fourth Street and Zane Street churches of the Methodist Historical Society. They make their annual report to the Conference Historical Society, of which Mrs. William B. Matthews of Charleston, is president. An appeal is being made for old Methodist documents, church pictures or anything relating to Methodist history in West Virginia. An attempt is being made to secure a complete file of disciplines, hymnals and conference minutes. Those having such may turn them over to Miss Wincher or Mrs. Marsh."

Similar notices should appear in all church bulletins. or be announced from the pulpit.

OLD REHOBOTH CHURCH

Several rare old volumes have come into possession of the committee, including 'Footprints of an Itinerant,' by Gaddis, published in 1855, and the 1819 volume of The Methodist Magazine. A manuscript history of Rehoboth Church, two miles east of Union, Monroe county, by Rev. J. L. Kibler, is of special interest, as it is said to be the oldest Methodist Church west of the Alleghenies. On August 28, 1927, after being repaired and a new roof being put on it, the chapel was rededicated, not for church purposes, but as a historical monument of the adherence of the pioneers of that region to the Methodist faith. It is in the present bounds of the Elkins District, but upon the division of the church in 1844, it fell to the territory of the Church, South, and has been served by her ministers ever since. The recent dedicatory services were conducted by that church, in charge of Rev. G. W. Richardson, presiding elder of the Lewisburg District. Dr. H. R. Carter of Virginia, delivered the sermon.

This society was organized about 1784. The building was completed in 1786, largely through the efforts of Edward Keenan, who donated five acres of land for the site. Conferences were held there by Bishop Asbury in 1792 in 1793 and 1796, although in 1792 it seems to have been held in a "log-body cabin-house" belonging to Mr. Keenan. Bishop Waugh served the church as pastor in 1810, and Bishop McKendree, as presiding elder, in 1797-8 and 1800. A pilgrimage to Rehoboth church would be worthy the effort of any Methodist. Bishop Clair was born at Union, nearby.

CONCLUSION

Many interesting matters could be mentioned, but lack of space forbids at this time. We hope our published volume shall only be the first of a series. In order to accommodate the first of the hearty co-operation of all the members of the Conference is earnestly invited, as it is absolutely essential to the success of this important work.

Respectfully submitted,
CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON METHODIST HISTORY,
By WM. BURDETTEE MATHEWS, Chairman.

REPORTS OF EVANGELISTS

E. D. Fellers

To the Bishop and Brethren of the West Virginia Conference:

This is the closing out of my 13th year as Conference year. I want to say God has been more than good to me during all these years. I love Him and praise Him.

All my time has been given to the work of evangelism. I have been able to answer every call from my own Conference. When not called to labor among the brethren of the West Virginia Conference, I have gone into other conferences of the Pittsburgh Area.

Number of revival meetings held, 12; offerings have totalled $1,931.00.

Sincerely,
EDWARD D. FELLERS,
Conference Evangelist.

W. A. Grogg

Dear Bishop and Brethren of the West Virginia Conference: We have conducted sixteen revivals this year. The Lord has been with us in a marvelous way, over six hundred converted or reclaimed. and a number added to the several churches which we have labored in. I have done the best I could, by the help of the Lord, to present the different claims of the church, such as World Service Conference Claimants, and Advocate subscribers. I have preached 380 times this year. I have been compensated for my labor to the amount of $2400.00.

I have enjoyed laboring with the different pastors. I have found them to be men of God, very much in earnest, to build up the Kingdom of God in the hearts of men. Willing to make a sacrifice of necessary to build up the church in their community.

I have given all of my time to the West Virginia Conference. I praise the good Lord for a little place in this great harvest field to labor for the salvation of souls.

Yours in Jesus Name, this the 21st of September, 1927.

W. A. GROGG,
West Virginia Conference Evangelist.

V. A. Nanna

To the West Virginia Conference, Huntington, W. Va.:

Dear Brethren—I have been busy most of the time with the Temperance workers of the State wherever the opportunity was presented. I have helped in revival work, valley meetings and all other work for the Master's cause; preached week nights and averaged three times for each Sunday during the entire Conference year. I have been remunerated for the work from those with whom I have labored to the extent of one thousand dollars.

V. A. NANNA, Conference Evangelist.

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY OF THE WEST VIRGINIA CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS PERMANENT FUND FOR THE YEAR 1926-27

The notes which I keep concerning my work indicate that this has been a harder year than the past one, and my own feelings agree with those indications.

I have preached on 28 Sundays of the year, have visited a number of churches on week-days and have attended seven District or Group meetings. On these trips I have delivered 71 sermons or formal addresses and taken part in 28 other services. I have also spent considerable time in personal work, both to secure new subscriptions and collect old ones—and I leave you to guess which of these has been the harder. I have traveled about 7,000 miles, by train, automobile and trolley.

The field has made it necessary at times to employ some help in the office and matters there have been looked after in my absence. Statements from one to four in number have been sent to subscribers who owed one or more payments on their pledges and it is sad to record that some persons have failed to respond to even the largest number of requests to make payments.

I have tried to secure new gifts and pledges and the sum of $5,230.00 has been secured in cash and new subscriptions during the year. An encouraging thing in collections has been a tendency on the part of a considerable number of subscribers to pay up the whole of their pledges, even before the final payment was due. On the other hand, an increasing number are disappearing, leaving no record of their new addresses. Cancellations because of sickness, death business troubles also occur and I fear that a spirit of indifference or even worse, causes too many persons to neglect their obligations. I keep names on the lists as long as there seems to be any hope of collection, but cross off those which seem to be hopeless. After the payments, cancellations and new pledges of the year, I estimate that about $65,000.00 of subscriptions still remain on the ledger. Of course there will be more cancellations, but the greater part of this amount should be paid during the coming conference year.

I am glad to make honorable mention of two churches and pastors: Diamond Street, Fairmont, is now added to the number of churches which have provided for their full apportionment to the Permanent Fund. Bro. J. B. Crowl of that church remembered the Fund in his will, but left the final adjustment of the matter to his wife and executrix. As the settlement of the estate proceeded this good woman decided that the estate would bear the payment of the legacy, and on August 15, in an interview with Mrs. Crowl and her pastor, A. D. Craig, I received her check for $2,000.00 for the Fund. Bro. Craig deserves much gratitude for his gracious influence and help in this matter, and I think the Conference should formally send its thanks to Mrs. Crowl for her kind and generous decision in the matter. Diamond Street had made a good subscription to the Fund before, and this gift places it well over the line.. I trust this will be an inspiration to faithful pledges and to still further gifts.

When the campaign for the Permanent Fund was put on in the Charleston District in the spring of 1924, Acme and Keyford Charge, H. E. Crowder, promptly subscribed not only its whole apportionment, but $90.00 more. During that Conference Year more than one-fourth of the amount pledged was paid and each year since there has been full payment of the year's dues. Finally, on August 23, I received the pastor's check for the final and full payment, every subscriber having paid his pledge in full.

This is the first charge in the Conference to pay its full apportionment and Bro. Crowder and his loyal people deserve gratitude and praise from us all.

The cash account now given is for September 30, 1927:

Total Receipts	$22,705.02
Total Disbursements	22,619.00
Balance	$ 86.02

In his report last year the Treasurer gave a total of assets in his possession of $285,408.17. In closing my own accounts for the year I paid him $3,000 more and during the present year have paid him $19,000.00 more. In addition to this he has so managed the changes in our investment as to increase his final total for the present year to $309,389.50. So the grand total of all the assets of the Fund will be about $375,000.00.

THE NEW PENSION PLAN

I mention this to insist upon one point. No one knows just what the General Conference will do with regard to the whole matter, but one thing seems certain. The Permanent Fund of our Conference is the great shield between its older members and even painful want. If a new system is adopted for younger men it will come in by degrees and it is of tremendous importance to maintain and increase our endowment. Instead of relaxing our efforts we should increase them and any members of the Conference who have not been active workers and givers should hear the bugle call which summons them to the front. Ministers and laymen should all understand that renewed activity is most earnestly demanded by the conditions.

For various reasons it is probable that the Secretary's most marked duty during the coming year will be the effort to collect the subscriptions already made, most of which are now due. But I shall watch for all opportunities to find new gifts, legacies and payments on annuity. I feel that every member of the Conference should help in the work, which is not for the Secretary, but for the whole Conference.

REPORT OF THE AUDITOR

We, your committee, appointed to audit the accounts of the various Conference Treasurers, have very carefully inspected these accounts and report as follows:

The funds of the Conference have been very carefully handled and accurate accounts have been submitted to us for audit.

We have inspected the Missionary accounts of District Superintendents G. D. Smith, D. C. Pickens, J. E. Wells, S. B. Hart, W. M. Shultz, J. E. Scott and H. C. Howard and find these correct.

Dr. Frank S. Townsend, secretary of the Permanent Fund of the Conference, submits a report showing total assets of $375,832.00 with a balance on hand in bank of $3,832.00.

Dr. Claude Goodwin, treasurer of the Board of Stewards, reports a balance on hand of $590.44. This we find correct.

The accounts of Conference Treasurer Joseph Vansickle were carefully audited and show a balance of $187.53.

Mr. E. A. Trenor, treasurer of the District Superintendents' Fund, submitted his account which shows that each district superintendent received $5,000.00 as salary and there remains $383.84. His records are very carefully kept.

Respectfully submitted,

GREKORY BLEAKLY, Chairman,
IRVING S. MIDDAGH, Secretary.

VII. IN MEMORIAM

THE REV. W. N. FRASURE

The Rev. W. N. Frasure was born in Doddridge County, W. Va., October, 15, 1878, and departed this life at Harrisville, November 2, 1926. Seemingly, he had just come to that place in life where he could be of greater service to the Church, when he was stricken with a fatal disease which held him in its grip for more than four years, then took him away. He leaves to mourn his loss, his wife, who was formerly Miss Ethel Powell, three daughters, Mrs. Edward Clark, of Rumble, Bernice and Edith and one son, William Junior, at home. One child preceded him.

W. N. Frasure united with the Church when he was fifteen years of age. At the age of thirty he began his work as a preacher in the Methodist Episcopal Church, where he served for sixteen years. During these years he was pastor of the following churches: Newark, Alva, Bristol, Harrisville, Ceredo and Rainelle. During his pastorate at Ceredo he received his Bachelor of Arts degree. He was planning a great life program when his health began to fail, but he made a brave fight and would not yield to the disease until the very last, though his suffering was intense. Through it all he was very optimistic and manifested the same sweet spirit that always characterized his life. He was always successful in his work, which was of a high character, and he was loved by all with whom he came in contact. He fought a good fight, triumphed in victory, and earned his crown. It can be well said of him, "Well done, good and faithful servant."

Funeral services in the Harrisville church were conducted by former District Superintendent L. E. Ressegger, addressed by the pastor, A. C. Riffe, and the pastors of the sister churches of the town.

REV. A. S. WOLFE.

REV. RALPH R. LITTLE

The Rev. Ralph R. Little, the son of Thomas and Ellen Little, was born February 8, 1850, near Oakvale, Mercer county, W. Va., and departed this life February 13, 1927, aged seventy-seven years. He was converted on July 26, 1867, at an old-time Methodist altar, under the pastorate of Rev. Robert Sluffey, and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. He was licensed to preach June 24, 1874. He was received on trial in the Virginia Conference in 1880, at Norfolk, Va., and was ordained deacon by Bishop Simpson in 1882 at Manassas, and elder by Bishop Foster, at Roanoke, in 1885. He served several pastoral charges in the Conference very acceptably, and one term as presiding elder of the Greenbrier district.

Broth Little is survived by his wife, who before marriage was Miss Adelaide Chambers, of Lindside, W. Va.; also by eight children, four boys and four girls, as follows: J. C. Little, of McAlpin, W. Va.; C. H. Little, of Lindside, W. Va.; N. L. Little, of Mullins, W. Va.; A. D. Little, of Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. J. A. Miller and Mrs. Florence Bland, of Roanoke, Va.; Mrs. H. D. Dennison, of Elkins, W. Va., and Mrs. Bradley, of Lindside, W. Va.

Brother Little was transferred into the West Virginia Conference with the Greenbrier district in the year 1926, and went on the retired list about fifteen years ago. He was a good Christian man, and an able minister of the gospel. He endured hardness as a good soldier of Jesus Christ, and I believe I am safe in saying that, while he was expiring on the operating table, he could say with Paul: "I am now ready to be offered . . . I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith; henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day. May we all meet him on the other side!

REV. C. M. NEFF.

REV. HARVEY M. LAW

Death has been very exacting of his toll among the veterans of the West Virginia Conference this year. Four have heard the summons and have marched out for honorable recognition.

The Rev. Harvey Milton Law was the last of the number to this writing. With the holy Sabbath, June 26, as his last day of time, he fell on sleep about three o'clock in the morning of June 27, 1927. He was born April 9, 1848. His parents, Andrew and Margaret, preceded him by many years.

In 1868, he was married to Catharine A. Rexroad, who survives him being in her seventy-ninth year. Two sons, Charles and Andrew, were born to the home. Andrew died when two years of age. Charles lives in Denver, Col. There are two grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. He had five brothers and three sisters. Two sisters and one brother are living.

Brother Law was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church when a small boy. He was a licensed exhorter as a boy and at eighteen was licensed to preach. At nineteen he was a pastor doing supply work.

After serving at Sistersville, West Union, Harrisville and Weston, he went to Colorado with the Greely Colony. There he served a number of charges, most of which he organized. In this field he built seven churches leaving them free from debt. Because of family conditions, he returned to the East and served Elizabeth, Fulton-Greggs of Wheeling, Ellenboro, Dallas and Webster Springs.

After retiring he made his home at Ellenboro, where his activity in church and community work gave him a place in the hearts of all the people. After some weeks of illness, he won the fight, passing to coronation. He was a fine type of our heroic itinerant preachers. He preached well; his judgment of men and conditions was dependable. He was a worthy friend and brother. In feebleness of body the wife survives.

Funeral services were held at Ellenboro, June 30, at one o'clock. The writer had the funeral in charge and delivered the principal address. The pastor, G. G. Wadsworth, District Superintendent J. E. Scott, C. Fred Anderson, M. L. Dearien, J. F. Richrds and A. Law Ireland assisted in the funeral services. Interment at Harrisville cemetery was in charge of the Masonic fraternity.

DANIEL WESTFALL, D.D.

REV. JAMES ALVIN SHULTZ

The Rev. James Alvin Shultz, son of the Rev. J. F. Shultz, was born at Grayson, Pa., August 12, 1879, and died February 25, 1927, at the Reynolds Memorial hospital, Glen Dale, W. Va. He was married to Miss Estella Mertz, June 7, 1900. To this union were born two children—Mrs. J. W. Lambert, of Pittsburgh, and John P., principal of the Junior High school of Moundsville. There survive also four brothers—three of whom are in the ministry, William M. Shultz, superintendent of the Morgantown district of the West Virginia Conference; W. B. Shultz, pastor of St. Peters Church, Reading, Pa.; I. S. Shultz, pastor of Trinity Church, Philadelphia, and B. P. Shultz, of Johnstown—also three sisters—Mrs. Lida Robb, of Altoona; Miss Grace Shultz, of Philadelphia; Miss Jean Shultz, of Reading, and his stepmother, Mrs. Mary A. Shultz, his own mother having died when he was but one year old.

He entered the ministry of the United Evangelical Church fourteen years ago this spring. In that church he served nine years. He was admitted to the West Virginia Conference at Fairmont in 1922. He served the Monongalia circuit one year; then went to the Sabra and Westover Church at Morgantown, where he built a fine new church and parsonage; and from there he came to Calvary Church, Moundsville, where he was pastor at the time of his demise.

Brother Shultz was a forcible preacher of the truth which he loved so dearly to proclaim His ministry of the Word was edifying, instructive, and deeply spiritual, with a strong evangelistic note. He was a loyal ambassador of Christ, a true prophet of the Most High, and quite successful as an evangelist. As a pastor, he was watchful and earnest, tender and sympathetic. Many speak highly of comforting and consoling messages in the homes of his people when they were in any sorrow. He was a wise and safe counselor in the work of the Church.

He was not narrow nor provincial in his ministry, nor bigoted nor prejudiced in his interpretation of truth. He was public-spirited and thought not of duty in terms of his church alone of church relationship only, but in the larger sense of the interests of the community. When he pleaded for any particular cause, he sought to be sure of his ground, and to know, as far as he was able, all the facts in the case, and he generally won his cause.

He has run well. He has finished his work. And, as Dr. Morely Punshon said of Alfred Cookman, "He has gone home at noontide."

The services were held Friday evening in the Calvary Methodist Episcopal Church, of which he was the pastor. Dr. H. C. Howard was in charge, assisted by Dr. J. E. Scott, superintendent of Parkersburg district, and the Revs. P. Y. DeBolt, J. C. Sleeth, S. K. Arbuthnot and the writer. Further services were held in the Westover church at Morgantown, of which he was formerly pastor.

REV. C. E. LEATHERBY.

REV. MILLARD FILLMORE PRITCHARD

Millard Fillmore, son of Thomas Willis and Amanda Virginia Pritchard, was born on the south fork of Hughes river, in Ritchie county, Virginia, (now West Virginia,) September 22, 1856, and died July 29, 1927. He had six brothers and one sister. He was converted in early life at the White Oak Methodist Episcopal Church of his home county. Soon after he heard the call to the ministry, and in 1883 entered the ministry of the United Brethren Church. Three of his brothers became ministers in the same denomination.

He served in West Virginia until 1890, when, seeking larger fields, he transferred to the Rock River Conference, Illinois. There he served until 1898, when he returned to West Virginia and entered the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church, where he wrought well until he passed from labor to reward. In our denomination he served the following charges: Winifrede, Parsons, Littleton, Wallace, Zane Street, Wheeling; Sistersville, St. Marys, Ash Chapel, Clarksburg; Shinnston, West Union, Pennsboro, Hammond, Clarksburg.

Some months ago he had a severe hospital experience. He came home but was restless under enforced rest and possibly resumed his work too soon. His passion for the work impelled him to serve beyond the warrant of his strength.

Brother Pritchard was a good preacher. His people always spoke highly of his pulpit work. He was evangelical in his type of preaching and witnessed many revivals. He was not sensational but so sincere that he won for Christ. Preaching was his passion, and he gave himself to the work. Though seventy years of age, he knew no place for rest. We are informed that during his forty-four years of ministry, he was not off more than six months' time.

Brother Pritchard was twice married. The name of the first wife was Miss Maggie Kelley, who lived only a few years. To this marriage were born a son and daughter. The second wife's name was Rosa Bell Nestor, who became mother to a son and two daughters. The wife, five adult children, and five brothers survive.

The funeral was conducted from the Hammond Church, under the direction of District Superintendent G. D. Smith. Addresses were made by the writer, a long-time friend, and Doctor Smith. A number of preachers assisted. By their presence a large number of pastors of different denominations bore testimony to their high esteem for their fellow-worker. Interment was made in the Masonic cemetery near the church.

A great host of friends join in offering their sympathy to the bereaved family.

Because our comrade was translated in a day removed from pastoral activities we are saying with James Montgomery:

Tranquil amid alarms
 Death found him on the field,
 A veteran slumbering on his arms
 Beneath his red-cross shield.
 His sword was in his hand,
 Still warm with recent fight,
 Ready that moment, at command,
 Through rock and steel to smite."

DANIEL WESTFALL, D.D.

REV. B. D. MAHONE

The Rev. B. D. Mahone passed from among us June 17, 1927, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Lena Rymer, in Glenville, W. Va. He was born in Hamlin, W. Va., July 10, 1849, was married December 14, 1869, to Mary A. Jayne, and was the father of seven children, as follows: Mrs. B. D. Lewis, Mrs. Lena Rymer, Mrs. B. E. Meling, A. V., L. D., W. A., and J. K. Mahone, all of whom survive him. His wife preceded him two years and nine months, and after her death he made his home with his daughter Lena.

He was received into the West Virginia Conference in 1876, and in his active ministry of twenty-five years served the following charges: 1876-78, Coal River; 1878-81, Pleasant Retreat; 1881-84, Mountain Cove; 1884-85, Glenville; 1885-89, Wilsonburg; 1889-93, Ellenboro, 1893-95, Belleville; 1895-97, Summersville; 1897-1900, Henderson; 1900-01, Wayne.

He was a typical circuit rider. His charges were always large, sometimes consisting of more than a dozen appointments. Yet he felt that no circuit was too hard for him, and always worked cheerfully and faithfully wherever sent. He was a good stayer. Twice the three years' time limit removed him; twice he remained four years, after the three years' limit was removed. He was a loyal and faithful soldier., promptly going where he was sent, and always kept step with the policy and dominant interests of the Church. It was such as he who have made our itinerant system such a pronounced success.

He was clothed with a meek and quiet spirit. The beauty of the Lord was upon him. He was an aggressive worker, but never aggressive in self-seeking, or in trampling upon the feelings of others. The memory of him stirs us to better living. The trophies of his twenty-five years of active ministry are a rich legacy to the Church.

In 1901 he took the supernumerary and in 1902 the retired relation, in which he was listed until his death.

His funeral services were conducted by the writer, assisted by Oscar Nease, at Flatwoods, June 19, and he was buried in the village cemetery there.

REV. G. D. SMITH, D.D.

REV. A. D. ADAMS

The Rev. A. D. Adams, of Parkersburg, W. Va., a retired minister of the West Virginia Conference, died Saturday evening, September 10, in St. Agnes' Hospital, Baltimore, Md., after an illness of less than a week.

A. D. Adams was born March 25, 1851, in Brownsville, Ohio, the youngest child of Arthur B. and Mary (Townsend) Adams, and was the last surviving member of his family. He had five brothers in the Union army during the Civil War, and he himself, though only thirteen years old, after twice attempting to enlist, was accepted the third time with the Fourteenth West Virginia Regiment. He is believed to have been perhaps the youngest soldier in service during the conflict. On account of illness, he was sent to his home and later attended West Point, where he remained until the close of the war, when he was discharged because of his youth.

He was of old Covenanter stock and was converted before he was twenty-one years old. His first charge was at Barbour, Boone county, in 1886, and he was an active minister in the Methodist Episcopal Church until nine years ago, when he retired. Since that time he had served occasionally in pulpits in the vicinity of his home.

At the age of twenty-four he was married in Highland, Ritchie county, to Sarah E. Douglas, a member of a pioneer family, who survives, with the following children: Mrs. J. R. Pierpont, of Sapulpa, Okla.; Mrs. Freeman Barr, of Spencer; Mrs. Sherman Grimm, of Parkersburg; Adolphus A., of Parkersburg; Harry A., of Belpre; Dr. W. A., of South Parkersburg, and Dr. C. T. and Russell D., of Parkersburg. Two children died in infancy.

Funeral services at the home on Tuesday afternoon were conducted by District Superintendent J. E. Scott, assisted by Dr. C. F. Anderson and the Rev. H. K. Riffe.

J. E. SCOTT.

MRS. A. J. L. CURTIS

Sarah Rebecca Parks, daughter of Thomas J. Parks and Eliza (Groves) Parks, was born in Vinton county, Ohio, May 26, 1863, and moved with her parents to Wood county, W. Va., near Williamstown, in 1868, when five years old, and lived there till her parents moved to Clarenc(, Roane county, in August, 1879. In January, 1880, at a revival in the Old Log Church near Clarence, she found Jesus Christ and never lost Him, and for forty-seven years she worked for God and men. She had a clear Christian experience.

At Clarence, on May 7, 1891, she was married to A. J. L. Curtis, by the Rev. Jacob Pringle. Five children blessed this union, namely: Mrs. Elsie May Linard, of Barrackville, W. Va.; Willard Foss Curtis, Moundsville; Mrs. Ava Felicia West, Fairmont; Orin Delbert Curtis, Glenville, and Harland Kent Curtis, Moundsville. All of her father's family have passed away save two sisters, Martha J. Locker, of Williamstown, and Lydia Florence McGaughy, of Parkersburg.

She had been paralyzed for nearly a year, and when death came she was ready to go, and on May 23, 1927, hre pure spirit went away to live with God, who gave it .

Perhaps her best work was done in the Sunday school in teaching God's word. She has gone to her reward. She was a good neighbor and friend. She was a good wife, and the best of mothers.

Services were held in the Barrackville church on May 5, by the writer and the Revs. W. M. Kerr and W. M. Shultz, and we laid body to rest in the Barrackville cemetery to await the call of the eternal morning, and in the hope of that eternal morning, the husband and children go to the future.

REV. A. D. CRAIG.

MRS. WILLIAM HUNTER

Mrs. Nettie Davis Hunter was born in Bellaire, Ohio, December 29, 1860, and passed away February 12, 1927, at Elizabeth, W. Va. She came to Wirt county in her youth with her parents, who were pioneers in that county.

On October 17, 1882, she was united in marriage to the Rev. William Hunter, of the West Virginia Conference. A brother, the Rev. Elmer A. Davis, who died some years ago, was a member of the same Conference. She fulfilled the duties of an intinerant minister's wife in parsonage home in many towns in Wood, Tyler and Ritchie counties where they resided.

She leaves her husband and two sons—the Rev. William Hunter, Jr., of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Robert F. Hunter, of Clarington, O—to mourn the loss of a faithful, devoted wife and mother; also Harvey A., Lon S., Ben F. and Blaine W. Davis, brothers, and one sister, Mrs. Rena Tucker.

The funeral service was held February 15, in the Rose Hill church, by the Rev. J. M. Hart and the Rev. J. E. Scott, of Parkersburg—in the little country church which her father had been instrumental in building over forty years ago. She was laid to rest by the side of her baby boy, there toawait the resurrection morning.

She had often expressed a wish that when God should call her home she might be permitted to go suddenly. Her prayer was answered, for, after a stroke of apoplexy on Friday, she soon lapsed into unconsciousness and slipped out of life as kently as the setting of the summer sun at eventide, to her heavenly habitation. He hope of that better country was always unclouded and as real as the earthly life itself.

Her Christian faith was founded upon a rock. She believed in God's Word, which was her sure comfort.

It appearing that a quorum of duly accredited delegates and reserves was present, the Conference formed a temporary organization by electing Judge Charles W. Lynch, of Clarksburg, as temporary president, and Roy Reger, of Charleston, as temporary secretary. On motion the temporary organization was made permanent.

A collection was then taken for defraying of expenses connected with this Conference, including cost of printing credential blanks and printing of minutes with the minutes of the annual Conference. The collection amounted to $56.46.

The president then announced that the election of seven delegates and three reserve delegates to the General Conference was the next order of business. Thereupon a motion was made and carried that nominations be made by handing to the secretary the names of candidates in writing, and that such names then be written on the blackboard in alphabetical order.

The following candidates were then nominated:

Buckhannon District—W. J. Chatam, Mrs. J. U. Jolliffe, H. H. Westfall and U. G. Young.

Charleston District—R. E. Hughes, W. T. Williamson.

Elkins District—John Raine.

Huntington District—W. H. Rardin, E. A. Trenor and Ellis A. Yost.

Morgantown District—Chas. W. Evans, Chas. H. Hartley and Frank B. Trotter.

Parkersburg District—K. H. Bird, Chas. L. Scholl.

Wheeling District—R. B. Nay

A motion was made and carried that all candidates be called forward and introduced, which was done.

Upon motion duly carried, the president appointed the following tellers to count the vote:

C. H. Browning, Wayne Meredith, Mrs. Lora Parsons, S. M. Babb, A. A. Sharp and J. S. Bonar.

Thereupon a ballot was taken, and the tellers retired to count the vote. Pending their return, and by successive motions duly carried, votes were taken by the Conference upon proposed amendments to the constitution, providing for admission of laymen to annual Conferences, which votes were as follows:

Amendment proposed by Kansas Conference, 102 for, 6 against.

Amendment proposed by General Laymen's Association, 78 for, 5 against.

A motion was made and carried that a committee on resolutions be appointed, whereupon the president appointed the following: C. W. Flesher, W. W. Wertz, C. D. Howard, W. H. Newcomb, F. B. Trotter, Chas. L. Scholl and R. B. Nay.

The Conference then heard an address by Mr. John Raine concerning the endowment campaign being planned for Wesleyan College.

A resolution introduced by James M. Crump, of Beech Hill, concerning the attitude of the church in regard to dancing and card-playing was referred to the committee on resolutions.

The tellers then reported the result of the ballot as follows:

Charles L. Scholl.....	128	K. H. Bird.....	11
Ellis A. Yost.....	126	W. J. Chatman.....	3
Charles W. Evans.....	100	Ray Fink	2
Wm. T. Williamson.....	97	J. T. Daniel	2
R. B. Nay.....	95	H. W. Harmer.....	1
Mrs. J. U. Jolliffe.....	88	E. A. Frame.....	1
John Raine	84	—— Parkins.....	1
U. G. Young.....	83	—— Lon	1
Charles L. Hartley.....	80	Pete Clay	1
W. H. Rardin.....	77	G. H. Barley.....	1
R. E. Hughes.....	48	J. W. Brown	1
F. B. Trotter.....	39	Charles Schoolcraft	1
E. A. Trenor.....	13	W. A. Hendrick.....	1
H. H. Westfall.....	12	E. Mankin	1

The total number of votes cast was 161; necessary for a choice 81.

Thereupon the president declared Charles L. Scholl, Ellis A. Yost, Charles W. Evans, Wm. T. Williamson, R. B. Nay, Mrs. J. U. Jolliffe and John Raine duly elected, they having received the greatest number of votes cast, in the order named, each having a majority of the total number of votes.

Upon motion, it was ordered that the three candidates having the next highest votes after the last delegate named, viz: U. G. Young, Charles H. Hartley and W. H. Rardin, be designated in the order named, as reserve delegates.

On motion the Conference recessed until 2 o'clock P. M.

Afternoon Session

The committee on relations presented the following resolutions which were adopted:

Whereas, the Board of Trustees of West Virginia Wesleyan College and the Wesleyan Foundation, seeing the necessity of enlarging the school program at Wesleyan College, which will require additional buildings and endowment, and the Wesleyan Foundation desiring to promote its work among the students at the West Virginia Wesleyan University, have decided to put on a program for raising $500,000.00, which action has been approved by the Board of Trustees of said College, the Wesleyan Foundation, and the Annual Conference.

Therefore, be it resolved, that the Lay Electoral Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in session at Huntington, on September 23, 1927, do go upon record as endorsing said program, pledging its earnest support in putting this great program over, and raising this money.

Be it further resolved, that it is the sense of this Lay Electoral Conference, and it hereby goes on record as reaffirming its position taken on the prohibition question, and said Conference hereby pledges its support to uphold in every way the position heretofore defined by the Methodist Episcopal Church on said temperance question.

Be it further resolved that a campaign of education upon this question be continued, and that each and every member of this Conference pledge his undivided support to the position taken heretofore by our church.

Be it further resolved that we extend to the officials of the Fifth Avenue Baptist Church our appreciation for the use of their beautiful church in which we are holding our Conference; and to the members of the First M. E. Church of Huntington for the most generous way in which we have been so delightfully entertained while in attendance upon this Conference.

Wm. B. Mathews, chairman of the Conference Committee on Methodist History, distributed to the Conference copies of the booklet published by the committee, entitled, "Promoted Pioneer Preachers," which was printed gratis by Mr. Charles L. Scholl of Parkersburg.

No further business appearing, the conference, on motion adjourned.

ROY REGER, Secretary.

DISCIPLINE CONCERNING SUPERNUMERARY MINISTERS

¶ 187. A Supernumerary Minister is one who, because of impaired health, or other sufficient reason, is temporarily unable to perform full work. This relation shall not be granted for more than five years in succession except by a two-thirds vote of the Conference, upon recommendation of the Committee on Conference Relations, and a statement of the reasons for such recommendation. He may receive an appointment, or be left without one, according to the judgment of the Annual Conference of which he is a Member; and he shall be subject to all the limitations of the Discipline in respect to reappointment and continuance in the same Charge that apply to Effective Ministers. In case he has no Pastoral Charge he shall have seat in the Quarterly Conference, and all the privileges of membership, in the place where he resides. He shall report to the fourth Quarterly Conference and to the Pastor all Marriages solemnized and all Baptisms administered. Should he reside beyond the bounds of his Annual Conference, he shall forward to it annually a certificate similar to that required of a Retired Minister, and in case of failure to do so the Annual Conference may locate him without his consent. He shall have no claim on the Conference funds except by vote of the Conference; such claim to be paid out of the necessary fund.
